CONSTITUTION OF THE NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION

PREAMBLE

To elevate the character and advance the interests of the profession of teaching, and to promote the cause of popular education in the United States, we, whose names are subjoined, agree to adopt the following

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I—NAME

This association shall be styled the NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

ARTICLE II—DEPARTMENTS

SECTION 1. It shall consist of eighteen departments: first, of Superintendence; second, of Normal Schools; third, of Elementary Education; fourth, of Higher Education; fifth, of Manual Training; sixth, of Art Education; seventh, of Kindergarten Education; eighth, of Music Education; ninth, of Secondary Education; tenth, of Business Education; eleventh, of Child Study; twelfth, of Physical Education; thirteenth, of Natural Science Instruction; fourteenth, of School Administration; fifteenth, the Library Department; sixteenth, of Special Education; seventeenth, of Indian Education; and eighteenth, the National Council of Education.

SEC. 2. Other departments may be organized in the manner prescribed in this constitution.

ARTICLE III—MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. There shall be three classes of members, namely, active, associate, and corresponding.

SEC. 2. Teachers and all who are actively associated with the management of educational institutions, including libraries and periodicals, may become active members. All others who pay an annual membership fee of two dollars may become associate members.

Eminent educators not residing in America may be elected by the Directory to be corresponding members. The number of corresponding members shall at no time exceed fifty.

SEC. 3. Any person eligible may become an active member upon application indorsed by two active members, and the payment of an enrollment fee of two dollars and the annual dues for the current year.

Active members only have the right to vote and to hold office in the general Association or in the several departments.

All active members must pay annual dues of two dollars, and will be entitled to the volume of Proceedings without "coupon" or other conditions. The annual membership fee shall be payable at the time of the annual convention, or by remittance to the Secretary before September 1 of each year. Any active member may discontinue membership by giving written notice to the Secretary before September 1, and may restore the same only on payment of the enrollment fee of two dollars and the annual dues for the current year.

All life members and life directors shall be denominated active members, and shall enjoy all the powers and privileges of such members without the payment of annual dues.

Associate members may receive the volume of Proceedings in accordance with the usual "coupon" conditions, as printed on the membership certificate.

Corresponding members will be entitled to the volume of Proceedings without the payment of fees or other conditions.

SEC. 4. The names of active and corresponding members only will be printed in the volume of Proceedings, with their respective educational titles, offices, and addresses, the list to be revised annually by the Secretary of the Association.

ARTICLE IV—OFFICERS

SECTION 1. The officers of this Association shall consist of a President, twelve Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Board of Directors, a Board of Trustees, and an Executive Committee, as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. The Board of Directors shall consist of the President of the National Educational Association, First Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, chairman of the Board of Trustees, and one additional member from each state, territory, or district, to be elected by the Association for the term of one year, or until their successors are chosen, and of all life directors elected previous to July 10, 1895.

All past presidents of the Association now living (July 10, 1895), and all future presidents at the close of their respective terms of office, and the United States Commissioner of Education, shall be life directors of the Association.

The President of the National Educational Association, First Vice-President, Treasurer, chairman of the Board of Trustees, and a member of the Association to be chosen annually by the Board of Directors, which member shall hold office for one year, shall constitute the Executive Committee.

SEC. 3. The elective officers of the Association, with the exception of the Secretary, shall be chosen by the active members of the Association by ballot, unless otherwise ordered, on the third day of each annual session, a majority of the votes cast being necessary for a choice. They shall continue in office until the close of the annual session subsequent to their election, and until their successors are chosen, except as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 4. Each department shall be administered by a president, vice-president, secretary, and such other officers as it shall deem necessary to conduct its affairs; but no person shall be elected to any office of the Association, or of any department, who is not, at the time of the election, an active member of the Association.

SEC. 5. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Association and of the Board of Directors, and shall perform the duties usually devolving upon a presiding officer. In his absence, the first vice-president in order, who is present, shall preside; and in the absence of all vice-presidents, a pro-tempore chairman shall be appointed on nomination, the Secretary putting the question.

SEC. 6. The Secretary shall keep a full and accurate report of the proceedings of the general meetings of the Association and all meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall conduct such correspondence as the directors may assign, and shall have his records present at all meetings of the Association and of the Board of Directors. The secretary of each department shall, in addition to performing the duties usually pertaining to his office, keep a list of the members of his department.

SEC. 7. The Treasurer shall receive, and under the direction of the Board of Trustees hold in safe-keeping, all moneys paid to the Association; shall expend the same only upon the order of said board; shall keep an exact account of his receipts and expenditures, with vouchers for the latter, which accounts, ending the 1st day of July each year, he shall render to the Board of Trustees and, when approved by said board, he shall report the same to the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall give such bond for the faithful discharge of his duties as may be required by the Board of Trustees; and he shall continue in office until the first meeting of the Board of Directors held prior to the annual meeting of the Association next succeeding that for which he is elected.

SEC. 8. The Board of Directors shall have power to fill all vacancies in their own body; shall have in charge the general interests of the Association, excepting those herein intrusted to the Board of Trustees; shall make all necessary arrangements for its meetings, and shall do all in its power to make it a useful and honorable institution. Upon the written application of twenty active members of the Association for permission to establish a new department, it may grant such permission. Such new department shall in all respects be entitled to the same rights and privileges as the others. The formation of such department shall in effect be a sufficient amendment to this constitution for the insertion of its name in Art. II, and the Secretary shall make the necessary alterations.

SEC. 9. The Board of Trustees shall consist of four members, elected by the Board of Directors for the term of four years, and the President of the Association, who shall be a member ex officio during his term of office. At the election of the trustees in 1886, one trustee shall be elected for one year, one for two years, one for three years, and one for four years; and annually thereafter, at the first meeting of the Board of Directors held prior to the annual meeting of the Association, one trustee shall be elected for the term of four years. All vacancies occurring in said Board of Trustees, whether by resignation or otherwise, shall be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired term; and the absence of a trustee from two successive annual meetings of the board shall forfeit his membership therein. The Board of Trustees thus elected shall constitute the body corporate of the Association, as provided in the certificate of incorporation under the provisions of the Act of General Incorporation, Class Third, of the Revised Statutes of the District of Columbia, dated the 24th day of February, 1886, at Washington, D. C., and recorded in Liber No. 4, "Acts of Incorporation for the District of Columbia."

SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the Board of Trustees to provide for safe-keeping and investment of all funds which the Association may receive from donations; and the income of such invested funds shall be used exclusively in paying the cost of publishing the annual volume of Proceedings of the Association, excepting when donors shall specify otherwise. It shall also be the duty of the board to issue orders on the Treasurer for the payment of all bills approved by the Board of Directors, or by the President and Secretary of the Association acting under the authority of the Board of Directors; and, when practicable, the trustees shall invest all surplus funds exceeding one hundred dollars that shall remain in the hands of the Treasurer after paying the expenses of the Association for the previous year.

SEC. 11. The Board of Trustees shall elect the Secretary of the Association, who shall also be secretary of the Executive Committee, and shall fix the compensation and the term of office for a period not to exceed four years.

ARTICLE V—MEETINGS

SECTION 1. The annual meeting of the Association shall be held at such time and place as shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

SEC. 2. Special meetings may be called by the President at the request of five directors.

SEC. 3. Any department of the Association may hold a special meeting at such time and place as by its own regulations it shall appoint.

SEC. 4. The Board of Directors shall hold its regular meetings at the place and not less than two hours before the assembling of the Association.

SEC. 5. Special meetings may be held at such other times and places as the board or the President shall determine.

SEC. 6. Each new board shall organize at the session of its election. At its first meeting a committee on publication shall be appointed, which shall consist of the President and the Secretary of the Association for the previous year, and one member from each department.

ARTICLE VI—BY-LAWS

By-laws not inconsistent with this constitution may be adopted by a two-thirds vote of the Association.

ARTICLE VII—AMENDMENTS

This constitution may be altered or amended at a regular meeting by the unanimous vote of the members present; or by a two-thirds vote of the members present, provided that the alteration or amendment has been substantially proposed in writing at a previous meeting.

BY-LAWS

*1. At the first session of each annual meeting of the Association there shall be appointed by the President a committee on resolutions; and at the third session of such meeting there shall be appointed a committee on nominations, consisting of one member from each state and territory represented, the same to be appointed by the President on the nomination of a majority of the active members from such state or territory present at the meeting called for the purpose of making such nomination; provided, however, that such appointment shall be made by the President without such nomination, when the active members in attendance from any state or territory shall fail to make a nomination.

The meetings of active members to nominate members of the nominating committee shall be held at 5:30 P.M. on the first day of the annual meeting of the Association, at such place as shall be announced in the general program.

2. The President and Secretary shall certify to the Board of Trustees all bills approved by the Board of Directors.

3. Each paying member of the Association shall be entitled to a copy of its Proceedings.

4. No paper, lecture, or address shall be read before the Association or any of its departments in the absence of its author, nor shall any such paper, lecture, or address be published in the volume of Proceedings, without the consent of the Association, upon approval of the Executive Committee.

5. It shall be the duty of the President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the Association to appoint annually some competent person to examine the securities of the Permanent Fund held by the Board of Trustees, and his certificate, showing the condition of the said fund, shall be attached to the report of the Board of Trustees.

ACT OF INCORPORATION

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the National Educational Association, held at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., July 14, 1885, the following resolution was passed:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to secure articles of incorporation for the National Educational Association, under United States or state laws, as speedily as may be.

*As amended at the meeting of active members held July 9 (see minutes in the Journal of Proceedings, p. 23).

N. A. Calkins, of New York ; Thomas W. Bicknell, of Massachusetts ; and Eli T. Tappan, of Ohio, were appointed such committee.

Under the authority of the resolution quoted above, and with the approval of the committee, and by competent legal advice, the chairman obtained a

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

We, the undersigned, Norman A. Calkins, John Eaton, and Zalmon Richards, citizens of the United States, and two of them citizens of the District of Columbia, do hereby associate ourselves together, pursuant to the provisions of the Act of General Incorporation, Class Third, of the Revised Statutes of the District of Columbia, under the name of the "National Educational Association," for the full period of twenty years, the purpose and objects of which are to elevate the character and advance the interests of the profession of teaching and to promote the cause of popular education in the United States. . . . To secure the full benefit of said act we do here execute this our certificate of incorporation as said act provides.

In witness whereof, we severally set our hands and seals this 24th day of February, 1886, at Washington, D. C.

NORMAN A. CALKINS. [L. S.]

JOHN EATON. [L. S.]

ZALMON RICHARDS [L. S.]

Duly acknowledged before Michael P. Callan, Notary Public in and for the District of Columbia, and recorded in Liber No. 4, Acts of Incorporation for the District of Columbia.

CHARLES W. ELIOT,
NICHOLAS MURRAY BUTLER,
NEWTON C. DOUGHERTY,
F. LOUIS SOLDAN. "

Executive Committee, National Educational Association of the United States:

GENTLEMEN: In accordance with instructions received from Mr. A. G. Lane, chairman of the Board of Trustees, we have examined in detail the books and accounts of the National Educational Association of the United States, as kept by the Secretary, Irwin Shepard, and the Treasurer, William M. Davidson, for the year ending June 30, 1903. We have verified the Treasurer's report, submitted by Mr. Davidson at the meeting of the Association at Boston, Mass., which we certify to be in accordance with the books.

We are pleased to be able to report that the books are correctly and carefully kept, and to state that in our opinion the system of bookkeeping and the check both on receipts and expenditure are very suitable to the needs of the Association.

Yours respectfully,

THE INTERNATIONAL AUDIT COMPANY,
By ROBERT NELSON, C. A., Vice-President.

JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS
OF THE
FORTY-SECOND ANNUAL MEETING
OF THE
NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION

BOSTON, MASS., JULY 6-10, 1903

FIRST DAY'S PROCEEDINGS

OPENING SESSION.—MONDAY, JULY 6, 8 P. M.

The forty-second annual session was opened in the auditorium of the Massachusetts Charitable Mechanics Association at 8 P. M. by President Charles W. Eliot.

A choral, from Back, was sung by the St. Cecilia Society—B. J. Lang, leader.

Rev. Edward Everett Hale, D.D., asked a blessing and led the great audience in the Lord's Prayer.

Brief addresses of welcome were delivered by Hon. John L. Bates, governor of the commonwealth of Massachusetts; Hon. Patrick A. Collins, mayor of the city of Boston; and Henry S. Pritchett, president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Responses were made by Albert G. Lane, chairman of the Board of Trustees of the National Educational Association, Chicago, Ill.; and by Hon. W. T. Harris, United States Commissioner of Education, Washington, D. C.

A "Jubilee Overture," Weber, was rendered by the orchestra under the leadership of Mr. B. J. Lang.

The President's address, "The New Definition of the Cultivated Man," was delivered by the President of the Association, Charles W. Eliot, president of Harvard University.

Andrew F. West, dean of the Graduate School, Princeton University, addressed the convention on "The Present Peril to Liberal Education."

The following Committee on Resolutions was appointed by the President:

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

NICHOLAS MURRAY BUTLER, of New York city, Chairman

Andrew S. Draper, of Illinois
James M. Green, of New Jersey
E. C. Branson, of Georgia
J. H. Van Sickle, of Maryland
Miss Bettie A. Dutton, of Ohio

Frank B. Cooper, of Washington
H. B. Frissell, of Virginia
Miss Laura Fisher, of Massachusetts
Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, of Illinois
Miss Clara A. Wilson, of Iowa

William H. Smiley, of Colorado

After announcements, the meeting adjourned.

SECOND DAY'S PROCEEDINGS

SECOND SESSION.—TUESDAY, JULY 7, 8 P. M.

The convention was called to order by President Eliot at 8 o'clock P. M.

The topic for the evening was, "Manual, Trade, and Technical Education."

Papers were read by Calvin M. Woodward, professor of mathematics and dean of the School of Engineering, Washington University, St. Louis, Mo.; Thomas M. Balliet, superintendent of schools, Springfield, Mass.; and Henry S. Pritchett, president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston, Mass.

After announcements, adjournment was taken to 8 o'clock Wednesday evening.

THIRD DAY'S PROCEEDINGS

THIRD SESSION.—WEDNESDAY, JULY 8, 8 P. M.

The convention assembled at 8 o'clock, and was called to order by President Eliot. The Committee on Nominations was announced by President Eliot, as follows:

The President explained that a contest had arisen over the selection of a member of the Committee on Nominations from the state of Florida, and as the action of neither of the contesting delegations appeared to conform to the by-law governing such selection, he had, in accordance with his constitutional authority, appointed a member not belonging to either delegation.

The general topic of the session, "School Gardens, City School Yards, and the Surroundings of Rural Schools," was discussed in papers presented by Orville T. Bright, principal of the James R. Doolittle School, Chicago, Ill.; Henry L. Clapp, principal of the George Putnam School, Boston, Mass.; Charles R. Skinner, state superintendent of public instruction, Albany, N. Y.; and W. W. Stetson, state superintendent of public education, Augusta, Me.

At the close of the meeting W. N. Sheats, of Florida, presented a protest against the action of the President in the appointment of a member of the Committee on Nominations from that state. He was answered by Miss Clem Hampton, who represented the other of the two contesting delegations. The incident was closed by the remark of the President that the protest and the answer to it illustrated both the occasion and the expediency of appointing a third party.

MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING OF ACTIVE MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION HELD
IN HUNTINGTON HALL, JULY 9, 1903

The meeting was called to order by President Charles W. Eliot at 12:30 P. M. About two hundred members were present.

The reading of the minutes of the last meeting at Minneapolis, July 8, 1902, was, on motion, omitted, and they were approved as printed in the volume of Proceedings of the Minneapolis convention.

The Treasurer, W. M. Davidson, of Topeka, Kan., presented his annual report, printed copies of which, bearing the certificate of approval of the Board of Trustees, were distributed to the members.

On motion of Charles H. Keyes, of Connecticut, the reading of the report in detail was dispensed with, and the report was approved and ordered printed in the annual volume.

The chairman of the Board of Trustees, A. G. Lane, of Chicago, Ill., presented the seventeenth annual report of that body and distributed printed copies of the same. A brief explanation was made by Chairman Lane regarding the Kansas bonds which were purchased about fifteen years ago. A large proportion of them were reported as paid, and confidence was expressed that most, if not all, of the others will be paid. Attention was called to that part of the report showing that in certain cases payment of either principal or interest was in default. Chairman Lane also reported that the Board of Trustees had authorized him to take legal steps to collect the overdue amounts in all cases where it may be found possible to do so.

On motion of J. M. Greenwood, of Missouri, the report was received and approved, and ordered printed in the annual volume of Proceedings.

The report of the Committee on Nominations was presented by the chairman, L. D. Harvey, of Wisconsin, as follows:

To the Active Members of the National Educational Association:

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) WM. H. ELSON, Secretary.(Signed) L. D. HARVEY, Chairman.

On motion of I. C. McNeill, of Wisconsin, the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot of the Association for the nominees as reported. The ballot was cast as ordered, and the nominees were declared elected for the ensuing year.

Nicholas Murray Butler, of New York, called attention to by-law No. 4, and moved the adoption of the following resolution :

Resolved, That, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee, as provided by the existing by-law No. 4, the memorial address upon the late President William M. Beardshear, prepared for the meeting of the National Council of Education by President William F. King of Mount Vernon College, Ia., be incorporated in the published Proceedings, despite the fact that the paper itself was not read, President King having been detained by serious illness in his family.

The motion was unanimously carried.

MR. BUTLER then asked permission to offer an amendment to by-law No. 1, and explained the necessity for the proposed amendment as follows :

The by-law relating to the appointment of the nominating committee as it now stands is unworkable. [Reads the by-law.] It has been tried for six years. The records show that it has never been complied with, except possibly in one or two cases. The records of the meetings of active members held this year show that the merest handful attended the state meetings; in some cases fewer than 5 per cent. of those present here in Boston. That the by-law has broken down and is incapable of operation is, I think, the judgment of a large majority of the members of the Association from every state who have expressed an opinion upon this subject. The fact that the by-law is unworkable became apparent almost as soon as it was adopted. Each year it has been urged that the time had come to change it, but each year any proposal for a change has been withheld in order to obtain a wider experience. I know that I am stating a fact when I say that at this great meeting only an insignificant minority participated in any way in the action contemplated by the existing by-law. The President of the Association has found that nearly if not quite every certificate sent to him bore upon its face evidences of irregularity. I propose, therefore, that we meet the situation by striking out an impracticable and unworkable by-law, and go back to the condition of things which existed here in this Association for thirty-six years, by which the power to appoint this committee was placed in the hands of the President for the year. He can be held responsible for his action; he is known to all of us; and he is chosen because we know him and deem him worthy of the responsibility. This is the democratic and the effective method of procedure. I ask, therefore, that a two-thirds vote be given, as required by the constitution, for the following amendment to the by-laws, and I offer, Mr. President, a resolution to effect the amendment, as follows :

Resolved, That the by-laws of the National Educational Association be amended as follows:

Existing by-laws numbered 2, 3, 4, and 5 to be numbered 3, 4, 5, and 6, respectively.

For existing by-law numbered 1, the following by-laws numbered 1 and 2 to be substituted:

1. At the first session of each annual meeting of the Association there shall be appointed by the President a committee on resolutions.

2. Not later than the third session of each annual meeting of the Association there shall be appointed by the President a committee on nominations, consisting of one active member from each state and territory represented at the meeting.

I move, sir, the adoption of this resolution, noting at the same time that it requires for its passage a two-thirds vote of those present and voting.

MISS MARGARET A. HALEY, of Illinois: Mr. President, I rise to speak against that resolution and the proposed amendment to the by-laws. I am opposed to the centralizing of power any more than we have already done in the National Educational Association. I believe the proposed amendment would be a backward movement. It is against democracy; it is centralization. It would take away from the active members in each state the small measure of power which they now have and place it in the hands of one who is selected entirely apart from the action or choice of the state members. I am opposed to the proposed amendment on general principles, and I am opposed to it for special reasons. Illinois had 111 active members present on Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock at the state headquarters at the meeting of active members, and there were some ten or twelve more who came in a few minutes too late to vote. I do not know whether it is because the women of Illinois have awakened to the situation and to their power as shown by the vote cast at that meeting, 74 to 37, that this attempt is made to shut us out, but it looks like it. If you men pass this amendment, you certainly leave yourselves open to that charge, whether right or wrong. Under the present constitution and by-laws you have left an opening for the women. Why do you want to close it? The women pay about nine-tenths of the money in this Association, and they make up a corresponding proportion of the attendance at the convention. If such an important matter as this was intended to be brought before this body, at least one year's notice should have been given. It certainly should not be passed today. It should be postponed for one year, and if next year we cannot secure enough activity on the part of the members to make the present by-law operative, then bring up this amendment. But for myself, I think it is wrong in principle. I believe the proper people to make the selection of members of the nominating committee are the people from each state. If there were only three present at any meeting, you have no right to take away the rights of those three members. Do you think the people would tolerate for a moment the proposal to take away their right to vote at the primary elections because 95 per cent. of the qualified voters stayed at home? Not at all. You men would not do it. I move that the resolution be deferred for one year.

THE PRESIDENT: Miss Haley has made the motion that consideration of the resolutions presented by President Butler be postponed until next year.

CARROLL G. PEARSE, of Nebraska: I regret to see any attempt made in this Association to line up the men and the women on opposite sides of this question. I think this matter should be considered as one of principle, to be decided on its own merit, and not upon a division of the sexes. The by-law which it is now proposed to change was passed in response to what was regarded as essential in the conduct of the affairs of the Association. That by-law has in many instances been inoperative for lack of a quorum; still I believe that it is a useful rule. I should think it extremely unfortunate if this Association should take away from its members the right which they now enjoy of participating in this matter. I move, therefore, as an amendment to Dr. Butler's motion, that by-law No. 1 be so amended as to provide that a majority of the active members present at the meeting called for the purpose of selecting the member of the nominating committee, if more than three, shall have the right to select the member of the nominating committee.

THE PRESIDENT: Does President Butler accept the amendment?

MR. BUTLER: I should prefer the amendment to the existing by-law, but I should prefer my motion to either of them.

THE PRESIDENT: Does that mean that President Butler declines to accept the amendment?

MR. BUTLER: Yes.

S. Y. GILLAN, of Wisconsin: I rise to support Miss Haley's motion. I wish she had made the motion for indefinite postponement, instead of to postpone for one year. To me this seems to be a reappearance of the old spirit of centralization, which was scotched, but not killed, in 1897, when the meeting was held in Milwaukee.

THE PRESIDENT: It is entirely impossible to obtain evidence that the by-law has been conformed to during its existence; it was not conformed to in a single case in the meetings of this week for the election of members of the nominating committee.

MR. GILLAN, of Wisconsin: Why do you give that interpretation? May not that word "attendance" mean attendance at that particular meeting of the active members from that state? It is entirely a matter of interpretation.

THE PRESIDENT: The reading of the by-law is this: "The same to be appointed by the President on the nomination of a majority of the active members in attendance from such state or territory," etc. It is perfectly clear that the by-law expects an action in nomination by the majority of the active members present at the Association meeting, and I found that the expectation had not been realized in a single case this year. Moreover, it is next to impossible, even in a small convention, and it was absolutely impossible in this Boston convention, to ascertain in season what number of active members was in attendance from any particular state or territory. The Secretary could not furnish that information.

THOMAS W. BICKNELL, of Rhode Island: The principle of the present by-law is a correct one. Representatives of the various states should have the power to elect the officers called for by this by-law. Of that there can be no question. It seems to me we have reached the point in state and national life where that is recognized. It seems to me that this matter should go over for another year. It has now been brought to our notice. President Butler has very clearly set forth the condition of things, and I have no doubt that that condition will be removed, and, instead of three members being present, I believe the majority of active members from every state will be present hereafter. I hope, therefore, that the motion of Miss Haley will prevail, that action on this matter may be postponed, and that we may be allowed a year for the consideration of the question.

JAMES H. CANFIELD, of New York: I simply desire to say that what I have heard here today with regard to centralization and autocracy is just as absurd and as foreign to the spirit of this Association as the talk of deciding this question by a division of the sexes. I very earnestly desire that this matter shall be considered on its merits, and that a motion made here to amend the by-laws shall not immediately bring up someone who will speak about movements that have been "scotched, but not killed," and use language which certainly does not properly apply to the motives, the purpose, or the thought of any member of this Association as I have known it for over twenty years.

EUGENE BOUTON, of Massachusetts: I move an amendment to the motion offered by Dr. Butler so that the by-law shall provide that any number in attendance at this meeting of active members shall constitute a quorum.

MISS HALEY: Mr. President, I wish to accept that amendment in place of my motion.

THE PRESIDENT: Miss Haley withdraws her motion to postpone until next year. Does President Butler accept the amendment to his motion made by Mr. Bouton?

MR. BUTLER: No, sir, I do not. I prefer to have a vote upon my motion.

MISS GERTRUDE EDMUND, of Massachusetts: I wish to say that, altho I am a warm admirer of Miss Haley and the work she has done, I do not agree that we have not been fairly treated by the gentlemen of this convention. I want to thank the gentlemen who are present for all that they have done for the women who have shown an interest in the work of the Association.

MR. BUTLER: I trust that the members of the Association will consent to vote upon the pending motion solely from the standpoint of principle and of practical effectiveness, and not be misled by wholly irrelevant matters. I should not have made any motion whatever had I not been very jealous of the Association's standards of effectiveness and methods of procedure. Nothing would please me more than to see 75 per cent. or 100 per cent. of the active membership of each state present at every meeting and co-operating to elect the member of the nominating committee from that state. But it is absolutely and utterly impracticable. Experience has shown this conclusively. Anyone who will examine the records of this year's state meetings and those of previous years will find that, under the guise of transferring a privilege to active members, this privilege has been transferred to one or two active members in many of the states. This is the very reverse of democratic. It is a concentration of power in a wholly irresponsible group of persons. I saw a certificate last year which was signed by a member of the Association saying that at the meeting the number of active members present was "one," that the meeting nominated for member of the nominating committee "himself," and he signed the certificate as chairman of the meeting. There are several certificates in my hand which show just about the same facts. That is not a proper condition of affairs. My proposition for a change is a purely practical proposition. This is a very large and businesslike association, and why shouldn't it do its business in a businesslike and responsible way? Why let ourselves be confused by an abstract and untrue proposition about "democracy" when we are faced by six years' experience of the most undemocratic action imaginable? During all of this time the President has appointed the nominating committee because of the illegality of the elections themselves or the illegality of almost every record that came to his hands. Therefore I do not see how the situation would be improved by decreasing the number of active members who are obliged to attend in order that this election may be legal, as would be the effect of the proposed amendment to my resolution; nor do I see the use of postponing action upon this question, now that it has been raised. I should prefer to see a direct vote taken in order that this matter may be settled.

THOMAS A. MOTT, of Indiana: To me it seems like a backward step to take away from the members of the several states the power to make the selections for the nominating committee. In my opinion, it is better that three who are interested shall make the nomination than that a by-law should be so carefully constructed that the members in attendance from the several states shall have no voice in this matter. State representation was the thing we fought for in Milwaukee, and I am in favor of voting for it here.

THE PRESIDENT: Before the question is put I will take the liberty of stating to the members just how the by-law has worked this year. I was simply an observer. I wished to conform to this by-law, of course. I immediately found that to be impossible. I found that I was obliged personally to appoint all the members of this nominating committee. If the amendment which is made by Mr. Bouton prevails, the appointing, however, will lie in the hands of whatever small number of persons attend the meetings by states, and the President of the Association will then accept and confirm those nominations. A very small number of persons will, presumably, attend those meetings. I think the active members here present would deceive themselves if they felt that under such a provision the state would really be getting any representation at all. That is the difficulty with the present situation. All of us, I suppose, would desire a real representation of the members by states in the selection of this nominating committee. The present arrangement gives no such real representation by states, and I conceive that Mr. Bouton's amendment will not give that desirable thing. The advantage of the amendment proposed by President Butler is that the nominations will be made by a responsible person, responsible to the Association. He is a person who is in office but a year, and he cannot have any motive for preferring one man to another in the representation on this nominating committee. He is a temporary official himself, immediately replaced after this act. The existing method and the method proposed in the amendment will inevitably result in the delegation of this appointing power to small irresponsible bodies, which I think our political experience has taught us is not a desirable method of nomination. What more desirable method than the present can be arrived at I am not prepared to advise, but I have felt it my duty to say that it has seemed to me, from my experience this week, that the former method of nomination was certainly better than the present method. That is as far as my official experience enables me to go.

MISS HALEY: I should like to ask two questions, if I may. Under the plan presented by Dr. Butler, the President of the National Educational Association appoints the nominating committee, and the nominating committee in turn appoints the President, and then the President appoints the next nominating committee, and that nominating committee appoints the President. May I ask the chair if I am right?

THE PRESIDENT: The answer to Miss Haley's question seems to me to be this: One President appoints a committee to nominate all the officers for the ensuing year, and that committee nominates another President—a totally different person; but the election is by the general meeting of active members, and not by any committee whatever. It is important to notice, as a qualification of Miss Haley's argument, that the President of the year cannot be a nominee for re-election.

MISS HALEY: You have answered one question to the effect that we should have under Dr. Butler's amendment a self-perpetuating machine. The question that I desire next to ask is this: Does not the amendment presented by Mr. Bouton, the one which I accepted in place of my motion, remove the objection, which the President makes, that he was obliged to appoint, or did appoint, the members of the nominating committee, since none of the appointments made by the different states conformed to the provisions of the by-law? Is not that objection removed by providing that any number of active members present at the meeting shall constitute a quorum competent to do business?

THE PRESIDENT: The answer to Miss Haley's question is that Mr. Bouton's amendment will provide a legal mode of operation. Our present method cannot be legally operated. At this point a general discussion ensued as to the effect of the amendment offered by Mr. Bouton to the resolution of Mr. Butler amending the by-laws.

A motion by A. S. Downing, of New York, to lay the question on the table for one year was defeated.

President Eliot explained, in answer to a question, that the adoption of Mr. Bouton's amendment and the subsequent adoption of Mr. Butler's motion by a two-thirds vote would amend the by-law to read, after the word "President" in the fourth line, as follows: "On the nomination of a majority of the active members from such state and territory present at the meeting called for the purpose of making such nomination;" and would eliminate the provision of the by-law requiring for a quorum the presence of a majority, not less than three, of the active members in attendance (on the convention) from each state or territory.

The amendment of Mr. Bouton was then passed.

A vote on the resolution of Mr. Butler, as amended, was then taken, resulting in: ayes, 123; noes, 43. The resolution as amended was declared adopted by a two-thirds vote.

In answer to a question as to the future relations of the President of the Association to the nominating committee, President Eliot stated that, as he understood the action just taken, the President under the new by-law will simply record the nominations made by the state meetings, and will then proceed to fill vacancies where state meetings have failed to make nominations.

The Secretary announced the receipt of a communication and resolutions from Miss Margaret A. Haley, president of the National Federation of Teachers, as follows:

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED AT MASS MEETING OF TEACHERS HELD AT CHICKERING HALL, BOSTON, JULY 7, 1903, UNDER AUSPICES OF NATIONAL FEDERATION OF TEACHERS

WHEREAS, Demands are continually made on teachers for a higher scholastic and professional attainment; cost of living is steadily increasing, with stationary or decreasing salaries, insecure tenure of office, no provision for old age, and conditions generally under which teachers work such that further progress in education demands immediate betterment of these conditions; therefore

Resolved, That it is the sense of this mass meeting of teachers held under the auspices of the National Federation of Teachers that the time has come to bring the facts as to these conditions to public attention, and to this end that the subjects of Teachers' Salaries, Tenure of Office, and Pensions should be placed on the general program of the National Educational Association next year; and

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Secretary of the National Educational Association with the request that they be brought to the attention of the body at its meeting July 9.

(Signed) MARGARET A. HALEY.

The communication and accompanying resolutions were referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

The meeting then adjourned.

FOURTH DAY'S PROCEEDINGS

FOURTH SESSION.—THURSDAY, JULY 9, 8 P. M.

President Eliot opened the session at 8 o'clock P. M., and introduced R. W. G. Welling, of New York city, who read a paper on "The Teaching of Civics and Good Citizenship in the Public Schools."

"The Justification of City Expenditure on Parks and Parkways — Material for Public Education" was discussed by Nathan Mathews, Jr., of Boston, Mass., and "The Nature-Study Movement" by L. H. Bailey, director of the College of Agriculture, Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.

FIFTH DAY'S PROCEEDINGS

FIFTH SESSION.—FRIDAY, JULY 10, 8 P. M.

The closing session of the forty-second annual convention of the National Educational Association was called to order by President Eliot at 8 o'clock P. M.

The topic for the evening was "Education in the Southern States." This subject was presented in addresses as follows:

"The Beginning and Aims of the General Education Board," by Wallace Buttrick, secretary and executive officer of the General Education Board, New York city.

"The Educational Needs of the Southern Negro," by Rev. Charles T. Walker, of New York city.

"Public Education in the South," by Edgar Gardner Murphy, executive secretary of the Southern Education Board, Montgomery, Ala.

Following the addresses, the President introduced Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, President of Columbia University, New York city, chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, who presented on behalf of the committee the following

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

The members of the National Educational Association, assembled in their forty-second convention, make the following

DECLARATION

1. The United States Bureau of Education has amply proved its usefulness to the nation. Its publications are standard works of reference for school officers and teachers everywhere. The Bureau of Education should be made an independent administrative department, such as were the Departments of Agriculture and of Labor before their elevation to cabinet rank. Sufficient appropriations should be made by the Congress to enable the Commissioner of Education to extend the scope and add to the usefulness of his work.

2. The condition of affairs in the Indian Territory, where fully three-quarters of the population are reported as being without schools for their children, demands the immediate attention of the Congress. Provision should be speedily made by which the people of the Indian Territory will have power to establish and carry on a system of public schools, so that all classes of citizens in the Indian Territory may have the educational opportunities which are enjoyed by their fellow-citizens in other parts of the country.

3. Teaching in the public schools will not be a suitably attractive and permanent career, nor will it command as much of the ability of the country as it should, until the teachers are properly compensated and are assured of an undisturbed tenure during efficiency and good behavior. A large part of the teacher's reward must always be the pleasure in the character and quality of the work done; but the money compensation of the teacher should be sufficient to maintain an appropriate standard of living. Legislative measures to give support to these principles deserve the approval of the press and the people.

4. The true source of the strength of any system of public education lies in the regard of the people whom it immediately serves, and in their willingness to make sacrifices for it. For this reason a large share of the cost of maintaining public schools should be borne by a local tax levied by the county or by the town in which the schools are. State aid is to be regarded as supplementary to, and not as a substitute for, local taxation for school purposes. In many parts of the United States a large increase in the amount of the local tax now voted for school purposes, or the levying of such a tax where none now exists, is a pressing need if there are to be better schools and better teachers.

5. The highest ethical standards of conduct and of speech should be insisted on among teachers. It is not becoming that commercialism or self-seeking should shape their actions, or that intemperance should mark their utterances. A code of professional conduct clearly understood and rigorously enforced by public opinion is being slowly developed, and will doubtless one day control all teachers worthy of the name.

6. It is important that school buildings and school grounds should be planned and decorated so as to serve as effective agencies for educating, not only the children, but the people as a whole, in matters of taste. The school is becoming more and more a community center, and its larger opportunities impose new obligations. School buildings should be attractive as well as healthful, and the adjoining grounds should be laid out and planned with appropriateness and beauty.

7. Disregard for law and for its established modes of procedure is as serious a danger as can menace a democracy. The restraint of passion by respect for law is a distinguishing mark of civilized beings. To throw off that restraint, whether by appeals to brutal instincts or by specious pleas for a law of nature which is superior to the laws of man, is to revert to barbarism. It is the duty of the schools so to lay the foundations of character in the young that they will grow up with a reverence for the majesty of the law. Any system of school discipline which disregards this obligation is harmful to the child and dangerous to the state. A democracy which would endure must be as law-abiding as it is liberty-loving.

Committee on Resolutions.

After submitting the above declaration, which was adopted by a unanimous vote, the following resolutions of thanks were offered by the committee and unanimously adopted by the convention:

Resolved, That the thanks of the National Educational Association be given with heartiness and sincerity to the citizens of Boston for their hospitable welcome, as graceful and as gracious as it has been generous; and particularly to His Honor the Mayor of Boston; to Mr. Edward R. Warren, chairman of the Local Executive Committee; to Mr. Grafton D. Cushing, chairman of the Boston School Committee; to Mr. Edwin P. Seaver, superintendent of schools; to the teachers of Boston, who have assisted in untold ways with effective service; and to the women who have assumed full responsibility for the admirable work of the Hospitality Committee. We are grateful, too, for the opportunities to hear stately music, to visit museums and collections of various kinds, and to enter private homes whose doors have been thrown open to us.

Recognition is also due to the newspapers, for their reports of proceedings; to the railroads, for their co-operation; and to the Remington Typewriter Company, for expert service so freely given to the officers and members of the Association.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Association be tendered to the retiring President, Charles W. Eliot, of Massachusetts, and to the retiring Treasurer, William M. Davidson, of Kansas, for their year of skillful and effective service.

President Eliot then introduced Dr. John W. Cook, president of the Northern Illinois State Normal School, De Kalb, Ill., as the President-elect for the ensuing year. President Cook briefly addressed the convention, expressing appreciation of the honor conferred upon him, and asking the members of the Association for their active co-operation in the work of the convention for the coming year.

President Eliot, after a few words of thanks to the members of the Association for their co-operation during the past year, declared the forty-second annual convention adjourned.

IRWIN SHEPARD, Secretary.

MINUTES OF THE MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS FOR 1902-1903

BOSTON, MASS., JULY 6, 1903

The annual meeting of the Board of Directors was called to order in Trinity Chapel at 12:30 P. M., July 6, by President Charles W. Eliot.

The following directors answered to roll-call:

Charles W. Eliot, Massachusetts; William M. Davidson, Kansas; Albert G. Lane, Illinois; W. T. Harris, District of Columbia; Nicholas Murray Butler, New York; James H. Canfield, New York; Newton C. Dougherty, Illinois; Aaron Gove, Colorado; James M. Green, New Jersey; J. M. Greenwood, Missouri; E. Oram Lyte, Pennsylvania; Charles R. Skinner, New York; F. Louis Soldan, Missouri; Charles H. Keyes, Connecticut; Augustus S. Downing, New York; J. W. Lansinger, Pennsylvania; M. Bates Stephens, Maryland; Alexander T. Stuart, District of Columbia; H. B. Frissell, Virginia; G. H. Crowell, North Carolina; S. L. Frogge, Kentucky; J. W. Abercrombie, Alabama; J. L. Wright, Tennessee; E. E. Bass, Mississippi; Alexander Hogg, Texas; George B. Cook, Arkansas; John D. Benedict, Indian Territory; J. K. Baxter, Ohio; T. A. Mott, Indiana; Miss Catharine Goggin, Illinois; D. W. Springer, Michigan; L. D. Harvey, Wisconsin; A. V. Storm, Iowa; C. M. Young, South Dakota; J. W. Spindler, Kansas; W. J. Kerr, Utah; F. B. Cooper, Washington; E. D. Ressler, Oregon

Present, thirty-eight directors.

On motion, the reading of the minutes of the last meeting, held at Minneapolis, Minn., July 10, 1902, was dispensed with, and the minutes were approved as printed in the volume of Proceedings of the Minneapolis meeting.

The Secretary read communications from several absent directors tendering their resignations and nominating successors to be appointed by the board, as follows:

Warren Easton, of Louisiana, nominating Nicholas L. A. Bauer.

F. Yale Adams, of Arizona, nominating A. J. Matthews.

H. S. Philips, of Colorado, nominating Lewis C. Greenlee.

James A. Foshay, of California, nominating Thomas H. Kirk.

David R. Boyd, of Oklahoma, nominating A. R. Hickam.

John J. McMahan, of North Carolina, nominating P. T. Brodie.

Director N. C. Dougherty, of Illinois, moved that the Secretary be instructed to cast the ballot of the members present for the election of the nominees named to fill the vacancies occasioned by the several resignations which had been read.

After discussion concerning the authority of the board to fill temporarily a vacancy occasioned by the absence of a director, the chairman, President Charles W. Eliot, ruled that, while the board had authority under the provisions of the constitution to fill a vacancy, it had no authority to appoint a temporary representative of an absent director whose resignation had not been received.

The motion of Director Dougherty was then carried.

The Secretary reported that the ballot had been cast as ordered. The nominees named in the several letters of resignation were then declared duly elected to fill the respective vacancies.

On motion, the Executive Committee was authorized to appoint temporary representatives of absent directors to receive and distribute to members from the respective states the invitations to receptions and tickets of admission to various entertainments which the Local Executive Committee had arranged to distribute thru the state directors.

The report of the Treasurer, W. M. Davidson, of Topeka, Kan., for the year ending June 30, 1903, was then read.

The report was accepted and adopted by a unanimous vote.

The seventeenth annual report of the Board of Trustees was presented by the chairman, A. G. Lane, of Chicago, Ill., and, on motion, was accepted and adopted by a unanimous vote.

PRESIDENT ELIOT: As President of this Association I have had an opportunity to examine into the state of the property and the receipts and expenditures of this institution, and am glad to be able to assure the directors that the National Educational Association has on hand a substantial endowment of more than $100,000, the income of which meets its permanent expenses. Moreover, this is increasing, as you have heard. It increased $10,000 last year, and I am quite sure it will increase still more this year. Appreciating their responsibilities, the Board of Trustees have today decided upon an exceedingly conservative policy in the management of this property.

Director Charles H. Keyes, of Connecticut, member of the Committee of Eleven on Formulation of Contemporary Educational Doctrine, called attention to the action of the Department of Superintendence of the National Educational Association, at the recent Cincinnati meeting, requesting that an appropriation not exceeding $2,500 be made to said committee for expenses in pursuance of its work. Director Keyes urged the propriety of this appropriation, and reported the fact that the committee had already accomplished some work in the line of its duties.

On motion, the application was referred to the National Council for investigation and recommendation.

Director L. D. Harvey, of Wisconsin, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the National Council of Education be requested by the Board of Directors of the National Educational Association to appoint a committee to report to that body, after such investigation as may seem desirable, conclusions as to what should be undertaken in the field of industrial education in schools in rural communities, and to recommend such an appropriation as may be necessary for carrying on the investigation and preparation of the report.

DIRECTOR HARVEY, in support of his resolution, said: The reason for offering this resolution at this time is that all thru the middle West, in the South, and even in some of the New England states, the question of what can be done, especially in the field of elementary agricultural instruction in rural schools, is a live one. In a number of states laws have been enacted requiring teachers to pass examinations on that subject in order to teach. In other states laws have been passed making it mandatory that instruction in elementary agriculture be given in the rural schools.

There is a very widespread feeling that something should be done, but the difficulty is that nobody knows today what ought to be done, or what can be done. In Canada in 1872 they undertook by law to put the teaching of agriculture into the public schools, without a definite idea of what should be done. The result was a failure, and the movement dropped out of sight three or four years ago. They are now taking it up again. We are, however, undertaking certain lines of work from which we expect good results. A number of states—New York, Wisconsin, and others—are carrying on successful work in this field today. It seems to me there is no subject that is more important for our country schools than this. We are in danger of making a serious mistake in attempting this work without something definite being suggested as to what we shall do. It seems to me there is no more important work for the National Council than to appoint a committee of investigation on this subject and to recommend such an appropriation as may be necessary to carry on the work.

Director W. T. Carrington seconded Director Harvey's motion, which was unanimously carried.

The Secretary then read the following communication:

To the Board of Directors, National Educational Association:

GENTLEMEN:—In view of the increased interest shown thruout the country in the matter of the condition of the teachers, as to salary, tenure of position, pensions, and cost of living;

In view of the remarkable increase in cost of the necessities of life;

In view of the rise of wages and salaries of workers of all other kinds above and beyond the increase in the salaries of teachers;

In view of the impossibility of maintaining the highest grade of instruction in the United States under present conditions of low salaries in the country;

You are respectfully urged to make the investigation of the condition of teachers thruout the United States a special order for the coming year. You are earnestly requested to appoint a committee for investigation and report. You are earnestly requested to appropriate from two to three thousand dollars for the expenses of correspondence, canvassing, tabulating, and printing. The New York delegation of members of the National Educational Association, having enjoyed a great improvement in the matter of salaries, etc., feels especially concerned for their brother and sister teachers of America, whose average yearly salary is shown by the last report of the Commissioner of Education to be less than $350 per year. We feel that we should do all in our power to contribute toward the improvement of the condition of the teachers thruout the country.

Respectfully,

NEW YORK MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION,

By

CHARLES R. SKINNER,
C. T. MCFARLANE,
HARRY F. TOWLE,
WM. McANDREW,
KATHERINE BLAKE,
W. B. GUNNISON.

On motion, the communication was referred to the Committee on Investigation and Appropriations of the National Council for recommendation.

The Secretary made an explanation of the conflicting announcements in the Advance Program-Bulletin and the Official Program regarding the time for the meeting of active members to select members of the Committee on Nominations. The change of the opening of the convention from Tuesday afternoon to Monday evening had rendered inoperative the by-law which provides for the meetings to occur at 5:30 P. M. of the first day of the convention, since, if strictly followed, the meetings would occur before the opening of the convention, before the various state headquarters would be open for use, and before the arrival of many of the members. It had therefore seemed advisable for all interests to announce these meetings for 9 o'clock A. M. Tuesday morning; but, objection having been raised to this technical violation of the provisions of the by-law, the announcement was changed in the Official Program to the effect that the meetings be held at 5:30 P. M., Monday afternoon, and it was recommended in the announcement that the meetings adjourn, without action, to the more favorable time suggested in the Program-Bulletin, namely, 9 o'clock A. M., Tuesday, July 7.

Director Nicholas Murray Butler, of New York, gave notice that, in view of the impracticable provisions of by-law No. 1, he should, at the proper time at the regular annual meeting of active members, move an amendment to the by-law in question.

After announcements by the Secretary, the meeting adjourned.

IRWIN SHEPARD, Secretary.

MEETING OF THE NEW BOARD OF DIRECTORS FOR 1903-1904

BOSTON, MASS., JULY 9, 1903

The Board of Directors of the National Educational Association met in Trinity Chapel, Boston, at 4:30 P. M., President-elect John W. Cook, of Illinois, in the chair.

The following directors responded to roll-call:

President John W. Cook, Illinois; McHenry Rhoads, Kentucky; Charles W. Eliot, Massachusetts; Nicholas Murray Butler, New York; James H. Canfield, New York; Newton C. Dougherty, Illinois; Aaron Gove, Colorado; J. M. Greenwood, Missouri; Albert G. Lane, Illinois; Eliphalet Oram Lyte, Pennsylvania; F. Louis Soldan, Missouri; A. J. Matthews, Arizona; Charles H. Keyes, Connecticut; Miss Catherine Goggin, Illinois; T. A. Mott, Indiana; A. V. Storm, Iowa; E. H. Mark, Kentucky; J. S. Locke, Maine; M. Bates Stephens, Maryland; Louis P. Nash, Massachusetts; D. W. Springer, Michigan; W. F. Kunze, Minnesota; Ben Blewett, Missouri; Edwin J. Bodwell, Nebraska; A. S. Downing, New York; E. D. Ressler, Oregon; J. W. Lansinger, Pennsylvania; W. B. Jacobs, Rhode Island; Walter E. Ranger, Vermont; Miss Lucy Robinson, West Virginia; L. D. Harvey, Wisconsin; Miss Estelle Reel, Wyoming.

Number of directors present, thirty-two.

The reading of the minutes of the meeting of the former Board of Directors was, on motion, omitted.

Director A. G. Lane, of Illinois, called attention to the fact that no director had been elected for the state of Florida; that the member of the Committee on Nominations for that state, Dr. John F. Forbes, did not learn of his appointment until after the meeting of that body had adjourned; and that he now wished to address the board on the question of filling the vacancy.

No objection being made, Dr. Forbes was introduced by President Cook, and made a brief explanation of the conditions in Florida which led to the two contesting delegations from that state in the appointment of a member of the Committee on Nominations. He recommended that B. C. Graham, county superintendent of schools for Hillsborough county, be appointed director.

On motion, the recommendation of Dr. Forbes was accepted, and B. C. Graham was unanimously appointed director for Florida.

Director E. H. Mark, of Kentucky, stated that it had been his own wish and the wish of the entire delegation from that state that S. L. Frogge, of Frankfort, Ky., should be elected director; but, thru a misunderstanding, his own name had been entered for that office in the report of the Committee on Nominations, and he had been duly elected. He therefore tendered his resignation as director, with the request that S. L. Frogge be appointed to the vacancy.

On motion of Director Dougherty, of Illinois, the resignation of Director Mark was accepted, and S. L. Frogge was unanimously appointed director for Kentucky.

On motion, the chairman was authorized to appoint a committee of three to nominate members of the National Council.

Directors E. Oram Lyte, Newton C. Dougherty, and A. G. Lane were appointed such committee.

The next order of business being the election of a member of the Board of Trustees to fill the vacancy occasioned by the expiration of the term of service of A. G. Lane, Director James M. Green, of New Jersey, moved that Director A. G. Lane be elected trustee to succeed himself. The motion was unanimously carried.

On motion of Director Aaron Gove, of Colorado, Director Wm. T. Harris, United States Commissioner of Education, was elected to succeed himself as member of the Executive Committee.

A communication was received from the National Council transmitting the following reports to that body by its Committee on Investigations and Appropriations on certain applications to the Council for recommendation of appropriations by the Board of Directors. These reports were accompanied by resolutions embodying the action of the Council on the reports.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON INVESTIGATIONS AND APPROPRIATIONS

To the Council:

The Committee on Investigations and Appropriations begs leave to report as follows relative to the several matters which have been before it either by reference from the Council or from the Board of Directors, or upon the initiative of the committee itself:

1. Action on the proposal of President Baker, of Colorado, to appoint a committee, and to ask for an appropriation to inquire into the contemporary judgment as to the culture element in education and the time that should be devoted to the combined school and college course, should await a clear definition of the topic to be studied and a precise indication of the methods of inquiry to be pursued. We recommend that the president of the Council be authorized to appoint a committee of five active members of the Association to undertake to define the question as presented by President Baker, the report of this committee to be printed and distributed in advance of the next annual meeting of the Council, and its discussion made a special order for that meeting.

2. In reference to the request of a number of active members of the Association, made to the Board of Directors and referred by that board to this committee, that an investigation be undertaken to determine the economic condition of public-school teachers throughout the United States, your committee feels that the time is ripe for the prosecution of such an inquiry. There is a great and growing interest throughout the country in matters relating to the condition of public-school teachers and their compensation, and there is every reason to believe that, if the facts could be correctly ascertained and lucidly set forth, the effect upon public opinion, and consequently upon the status of the teachers themselves, would be excellent. We, therefore, recommend that the president of the Council be authorized to appoint a committee of seven, to consist of active members of the Association, and of not more than two experts in statistical and economic science, who may or may not be members of the Association, to inquire and report to the Council upon the salaries, tenure of office, and pension provisions for public-school teachers in the United States. We recommend that an appropriation of $1,500, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be asked from the Board of Directors to defray the necessary expenses of conducting the work of this committee.

3. The committee is unable to recommend any appropriation to defray the cost of the work being carried on by the so-called Committee on Formulation of Contemporary Educational Doctrine. The attention of the Council is called to the fact that, by resolution of the Board of Directors, and by terms of the constitution of the Council, Art. IV, all investigations made in the name of the National Educational Association shall originate in the Council, or, if not, shall be made under its direction or authority. To the best of our knowledge and belief, no request has ever been made that the Council should authorize or approve the work of a Committee on the Formulation of Contemporary Educational Doctrine.

4. With reference to the request of the Board of Directors that this committee report upon the expediency of undertaking an investigation in the field of industrial education in schools in rural communities, we report that such an investigation seems to be urgently needed in view of the requests for information and advice that are reaching the school authorities in several states of the middle West. We recommend that the president of the Council be authorized to appoint a committee of five, consisting of active members of this Association, and of not more than one expert in agricultural education, who may or may not be a member of this Association, to undertake such an investigation and to report to the Council. We recommend that the Board of Directors be requested to appropriate $500, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to defray the cost of the investigation to be conducted by such committee.

5. Several times during the past few years the National Educational Association has explicitly declared in favor of strengthening the Bureau of Education, and of increasing its dignity and importance in the scheme of governmental administration at Washington. At a meeting of the Department of Superintendence held at Chicago February 28, 1900, upon motion of the Commissioner of Education, a committee of six members was appointed for the purpose of aiding the Bureau of Education to accomplish its work. This committee has from time to time had under consideration the needs and opportunities of the bureau. It has recently held a series of prolonged sessions for the purpose of giving careful consideration to the whole matter, and, in conjunction with the Commissioner of Education himself, has arrived at the conclusion that the time has now come when a determined effort should be made to secure from the administration and from Congress such action as will put into practical effect the oft-repeated recommendations of this Association relative to the Bureau of Education. It is the judgment of the committee referred to that the Bureau of Education should be speedily restored to the status which it had at the time of its formation, namely, that of an independent department—a status which the Departments of Agriculture and of Labor had before they were raised to cabinet rank. Inasmuch as education in the United States is not a matter committed to the general government, the Bureau of Education can never become a strictly administrative office save in certain limited respects. The bureau should, however, have the dignity of a separate organization, and there is reason to believe that it would fare better if it enjoyed such status rather than continued in its present rank as a bureau of the Department of the Interior. The salary of the Commissioner of Education should be raised to at least $5,000, preferably to $6,000. He should be given two assistants, at salaries of $3,000 or $3,500 each, and the annual appropriation now made to the bureau should be increased by not less than $50,000, primarily to enable the commissioner to bring together and to make public a still greater and more practical amount of information than he now collects and brings to the attention of school officers and school-teachers in every state and territory. One assistant commissioner might well have charge of the division of statistics and reports—the work which has been so effectively carried on under Dr. Harris' personal direction for fourteen years. The second assistant commissioner should have charge of the administrative division of the Department of Education, whose duty it should be to deal more directly and more strongly than now with education in those parts of our domain that are not organized into states and territories, and where in consequence the matter of public education is either neglected or is under a local control which is not in touch with the experience and the resources of the educational system of the nation as a whole.

It is our belief that the National Council should take vigorous action in the matter of the status of the Bureau of Education, and that it should either assume as its own the committee appointed by the Department of Superintendence in 1900, as mentioned above, or should name a committee in succession to that one, whose duty it shall be to undertake an active propaganda before Congress and the country in favor of the upbuilding of the Bureau of Education into a department, as outlined above. We, therefore, recommend that the president of the Council be authorized to appoint such a committee, to consist of seven active members of the Association, and that the sum of $1,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be asked from the Board of Directors to pay the necessary expenses of the work.

Appropriate resolutions to carry these recommendations into effect are attached to this report.

Respectfully submitted for the committee,

(Signed) J. M. GREENWOOD, Chairman.

BOSTON, MASS., July 8, 1903.

RESOLUTIONS

1. Resolved, That the report of the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations, made under date of July 8, 1903, be accepted and its recommendations adopted.

2. That the Board of Directors of the National Educational Association be requested to make the following appropriations:

One thousand five hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for a committee of seven to inquire and report to the Council upon the salaries, tenure of office, and pension provisions of public-school teachers of the United States.

Five hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for a committee of five to investigate and report to the Council upon the subject of industrial education in schools in rural communities.

One thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for a committee of seven to urge upon Congress and the country the erection of the Bureau of Education into a separate administrative department and its adequate equipment and financial support.

The above report and resolutions were adopted by unanimous vote.

(Signed) J. F. MILLSFAUGH,
Secretary, National Council.

SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON INVESTIGATIONS AND APPROPRIATIONS

To the Council:

The Committee on Investigations and Appropriations begs leave to report as follows relative to the application made to it, upon reference from the Board of Directors by a committee of nine appointed by the Department of Superintendence on February 27, 1902. This committee was appointed "to formulate, on a sound educational basis, contemporary educational doctrines, submit statements covering contemporary educational experience, and indicate the tendencies of contemporary educational methods."

The committee has asked for an appropriation of $2,500 with which to meet the expenses of its work.

After a full hearing of representatives of the committee, your committee begs leave to report that in its judgment the Council should request the committee to designate a subcommittee of three of their own number, which subcommittee shall report to the Council at its next annual meeting—

1. A detailed and specific statement of the field of proposed investigation.

2. A precise indication of the method or methods to be pursued.

3. A careful estimate of the cost of the proposed investigation and the amount of time it will probably consume.

It is further recommended that an appropriation of $750 be placed at the disposal of the chairman of the Committee of Nine for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the subcommittee of three, as well as of meeting the cost of the work hitherto prosecuted by the full committee.

An appropriate resolution is attached to this report.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) J. M. GREENWOOD,
Chairman of the Committee.

BOSTON, MASS., July 8, 1903.

Resolved, That the Board of Directors be requested to appropriate the sum of $750, or so much thereof as may be necessary, in order to defray the expenses of the work of the subcommittee of three on a proposed investigation of the facts of contemporary educational experience, and the expenses already incurred by the Committee of Nine appointed by the Department of Superintendence on February 27, 1902.

The above report and resolution were adopted by the National Council July 9, 1903, and, under the direction of that body, are hereby referred to the Board of Directors for its approval.

(Signed) J. F. MILLSFAUGH,
Secretary, National Council.

On motion of Director Nicholas Murray Butler, of New York, seconded by Director Aaron Gove, of Colorado, the report and recommendations of the Council were accepted and approved, and the amounts named appropriated, respectively, for the expenses of the several committees.

The Secretary read a communication from Miss Laura E. Aldrich, delegate to the National Educational Association from the National Association of Elocutionists, asking for information as to the steps to be taken to become affiliated with the National Educational Association.

On motion of Director Charles H. Keyes, of Connecticut, the communication was received and referred to the Executive Committee.

Director Charles W. Eliot called attention to an action, taken by the Executive Committee at his request, for which perhaps there may not have been authority, as follows: "Last January 1 a meeting of the presidents of departments was held in Boston at my instance, in order that we might consult together concerning the preparation of the programs for the convention which is now in progress. That meeting, according to my observation, and also according to the testimony of the presidents of departments, was a useful one. The members of this board have had some opportunity of judging whether the programs on which we have been conducting our meetings have been good. The presidents of departments, I think, attributed some of the merits of the programs to the opportunity they had for consultation. In the interests of my successor, I believe it would be well to continue to hold a meeting of the presidents of departments about the 1st of January, and I venture to suggest that the Board of Directors authorize the Executive Committee to incur the necessary expenses of such a meeting."

On motion of Director Gove, the Executive Committee was authorized to incur the necessary expenses of a meeting of department presidents in accordance with the suggestion of Director Eliot.

Director Charles H. Keyes, of Connecticut, moved that $800 be appropriated for the expenses of the meeting of the Department of Superintendence which is to meet in Atlanta, Ga., in February next.

Some objections being raised to the appropriation of so large an amount, the motion was amended by Director A. S. Downing, of New York, to appropriate $400. The amendment was accepted by Director Keyes, and the amended motion passed by a unanimous vote.

Director E. Oram Lyte, chairman of the Committee on Nominating Members of the Council, reported as follows:

To the Board of Directors:

Your committee finds the following vacancies in the Council to be filled at this time, viz.:

Wm. T. Harris, by reason of expiration of term.

C. B. Gilbert, by reason of expiration of term.

William R. Harper, by reason of expiration of term.

George J. Ramsey, by reason of expiration of term.

Charles R. Skinner, by reason of expiration of term.

Emerson E. White, deceased.

R. B. Fulton, by reason of absence for two years.

The following nominations are submitted for your approval:

Wm. T. Harris, to succeed himself, term to expire in 1909.

William R. Harper, to succeed himself, term to expire in 1909.

Charles R. Skinner, to succeed himself, term to expire in 1909.

Ella Flagg Young, to succeed C. B. Gilbert, term to expire 1909.

Howard J. Rogers, to succeed George J. Ramsey, term to expire 1909.

Livingston C. Lord, to succeed Emerson E. White, term to expire 1906.

On motion, the report of the committee was received and adopted, and the nominees were declared elected members of the Council for their respective terms.

The President announced the next order of business to be the consideration of invitations for the next place of meeting, and instructed the Secretary to call the roll of states.

When California was reached, the Secretary reported that he had received from President Benjamin Ide Wheeler and the authorities of the city of San Francisco an invitation to hold the convention for 1904 in that city.

At the call of Missouri, the Secretary reported that he had received a communication from Howard J. Rogers, of the department of education of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, transmitting letters from the president of the exposition, the mayor of St. Louis, and the Business Men's League of St. Louis inviting the Association to hold its next convention in that city in 1904.

The roll-call of states was continued to the state of Washington. Director F. B. Cooper, of Washington, in behalf of the north Pacific coast, renewed the invitation presented at Detroit in 1901, and again in 1902 at Minneapolis, to meet in that section at such point as should be chosen by the Executive Committee. He also extended formal invitations from the chamber of commerce and the citizens of Seattle to meet in that city in 1904.

The roll-call of states was completed without other invitations being presented.

Director Ben Blewett, of Missouri, stated that he held in his possession an outline of certain facts, bearing on railroad concessions and other matters that would affect the pecuniary interests of the Association, should the next meeting be held in St. Louis, and that he would be pleased to present the same if the board desired to consider it at this time.

Director F. Louis Soldan, of Missouri, suggested that the statement referred to by Director Blewett be presented.

Director Springer, of Michigan, moved that, in accordance with the custom for some years past, all the invitations be referred to the Executive Committee, with full power to select the next place of meeting and make all arrangements for the same. The motion was seconded.

DIRECTOR SOLDAN: While I do not wish to oppose this motion, may I direct the attention of the board to the fact that this is perhaps an extraordinary occasion; that it may not be desired by the Executive Committee to have to settle this matter without some suggestions or advice from this body? I agree fully that its hands should be left untrammelled by any instructions; but should there not be some indication as to the pleasure of this body concerning the question of location?

Director Aaron Gove, of Colorado, stated that, since the selection of the place of meeting must ultimately rest with the Executive Committee, statements and arguments presented here will have little weight in determining the result. The Executive Committee have some months before it for the consideration and determination of this question

Director J. M. Greenwood, of Missouri, moved, as a substitute for the motion of Director Springer, that the board proceed to take an informal vote on the question of the next place of meeting; seconded.

A general discussion followed on the advisability of receiving at this time presentation of the facts referred to by Director Blewett relating to the invitations that had been presented from the city of St. Louis.

Objections being withdrawn, Director Blewett was recognized by the chair and said in part: "I wish to speak only of the financial questions involved in the invitations transmitted by Mr. Rogers. St. Louis will guarantee two thousand advance members. The exposition, in spite of the fact that it has placed the congresses of education in September and October, guarantees its best effort to make the gathering of teachers in July, if held in St. Louis, not only a national, but an international, affair. It guarantees to take care of any number, no matter if it be thirty thousand, that you may bring to St. Louis. I am authoritatively informed that it is the intention of the railroads to offer a half rate to St. Louis and return from the beginning of the exposition, if not on all trains, at least on certain trains, and that it will be impossible to add the $2 membership coupon to these tickets, as has been done in the past. I understand that it has been a matter of anxiety to the directorate as to what effect it will have on the relations of the Association with the transportation companies in the future. I hold in my hand a copy of a letter to Mr. C. S. Crane, general passenger agent of the Wabash road, conveying assurances that waiver of the collection of the membership fee for one year will not unfavorably affect the Association in its future relations with the railroads. I simply wish to assure this body that as a monetary consideration the Association need not fear coming to St. Louis, and she should not fear investing money in the educational advantages of a meeting in St. Louis, even if a financial loss followed.

Director Soldan said in part: "I wish to speak only of the one vital point. Is it not advisable for the National Educational Association to take cognizance of the fact that the largest educational exhibit that we have ever seen will be collected, arranged, and placed before the world at the St. Louis exposition in 1904? Is it expedient for this Association, representing the teachers of America, whose vital interests will center in that exposition, to appoint a meeting at the extreme end of the country, and seek to keep as far away as possible from the place of chief common interest? If such is the decision, let it go on record that for the first time in the history of any national exhibit the body of teachers chiefly interested in that exhibit takes its meeting as far away from it as it can go. Now, I shall not dwell on any other point. I shall not speak of the attractions or the asperities of the month of July in St. Louis. Shall it be the rule of the Association to draw a geographical line and say: 'Below that line we shall not take the Association in the future, because it is too warm?' Is the Association becoming a geographic body that transacts its business in a limited space, or shall we keep open the chance that all parts of the country may have the advantages of this Association, as has been the custom in the past? I plead that the reasons advanced for taking the Association away from the great exposition are not sound. I say that the Association should go to that place where there is to be the largest exposition and the largest educational exhibit ever organized."

After a brief general discussion, in which objections were again urged against the advisability of taking a ballot on the question of the next place of meeting, Director Greenwood withdrew his substitute motion, and the motion of Director Springer to refer the question to the Executive Committee, with full powers, was passed by a unanimous vote.

After an informal discussion of a proposition by Director A. V. Storm, of Iowa, that the board should make appropriations for the expenses of state headquarters, on which no action was taken, the board adjourned.

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

OF

THE NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION

To the Executive Committee:

The meeting of the Association in Boston, July 6-10, 1903, had certain unusual features which may appropriately be put on record in the files of the Executive Committee.

The President elected for the year lived at the appointed place of meeting, and was therefore able to take part in the local preparations for the convention. There are unquestionable advantages in this exceptional arrangement, if it comes about naturally and without serious drawbacks. The Executive Committee met in Boston, October, 1902, and authorized a reduction in the number of general sessions, the reservation of all the mornings for department meetings, the appropriation of all the afternoons to excursions and hospitalities, the omission of devotional exercises and music from all sessions, general or departmental, except the first general session, and the shortening of the addresses of welcome and of the replies thereto. They also expressed the wish that the local committees might succeed in preventing certain annoyances common at large gatherings of teachers, such as commercial exhibits, importunate advertising, and the demanding of fees by guides and messengers.

The committee also authorized the President to call a meeting of the departmental presidents at Boston. This meeting was held on January 1, 1903, and was thought by all who participated in it to be a very useful innovation. It was there agreed that each session, general or departmental, should be devoted to a single topic, that the limit of a principal paper should be twenty minutes, and of a contribution to a discussion from seven to ten minutes, and that copies of all papers should be sent weeks beforehand to the department president to whose program they severally belong. These rules were carried into effect in good measure, and in the end it clearly appeared that those meetings were the most interesting and successful in which they were best enforced.

Two local committees were next organized—an Advisory Committee and an Executive Committee. The Advisory Committee consisted of the chief educational authorities of the neighborhood, and the heads of local teachers' associations, learned societies, and two park commissions. The chairman of the Local Executive Committee, Mr. Edward R. Warren, was selected by the President of the National Educational Association, and the chairman selected his four associates. The members of this committee received moderate compensation for a portion of the time they gave to the work. The Local Executive Committee organized and enlisted nine subcommittees as follows: on advance membership, press, excursions, hospitality, accommodations, reception, school exhibits, music, and halls. The numerous members of these subcommittees were all volunteers, working with zeal to promote the objects of the National Educational Association, and the pleasure and satisfaction of the teachers who were to visit Boston. All the subcommittees laid their plans and began work several months beforehand. After the Local Executive Committee had learned the views and expectations of the several subcommittees, and had made a rough estimate of the probable expenses of the convention on the assumption that 25,000 persons would attend it, a Finance Committee was organized which undertook to raise $25,000 to defray the local costs. This committee obtained $25,155 from transportation companies, hotels, business firms, and other public-spirited contributors. The treasurer's statement is annexed to this report. The expenditure of this money, and particularly the allotment of money to the several subcommittees, was carefully supervised by the Local Executive Committee. The two concerts given to the Association, and the various hospitalities in and about Copley Square, were the most expensive provisions made, as appears in the treasurer's statement, but they were also the things most enjoyed during convention week by the visiting members of the Association. The Advance Membership Committee did an unprecedented piece of work in enrolling 6,883 new members from New England. The Accommodations Committee succeeded in meeting promptly all demands for lodgings, in spite of the fact that the attendance at the convention exceeded by many thousands the estimated 25,000. The teachers of Boston and the vicinity in large numbers served on the committees and gave an indispensable co-operation in many other ways. Hundreds of selected pupils from the public schools served as guides and messengers during the convention week. The wishes of the National Executive Committee in regard to advertising and fees were carried out with a good degree of success. The use of the buildings and grounds of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and of the churches, in which department meetings were held, was freely given to the Association. The excursions to places of historical or literary interest in and about Boston were eagerly availed of by thousands of the visiting teachers during the week July 6-11; and the daily resort to the places described by the Excursions Committee was more considerable than usual for several weeks afterwards.

From the experience of the President of the Association and of the department presidents at the Boston meeting it may certainly be inferred that the preparation of the programs for a meeting in July should be begun in earnest not later than January 1; that every paper should be in the hands of the president concerned not later than May 15; and that every writer should be urged to deal with actual experience, difficulties encountered, and results achieved, rather than with theories or generalities. Free discussion after the reading of the papers in a department meeting is sometimes interesting, but oftener rambling and disjointed. It should be limited as to time, and otherwise controlled and directed by the presiding officer. Interest in the meetings can best be assured by procuring the active participation on the program of teachers who have a wide reputation, or who have obtained in their own fields unusual results. A few papers on educational theory are desirable; but these should make but a small part of the total program of a convention. The general opinion at the Boston meeting seemed to be that three twenty-minute papers and six seven-to-ten-minute papers were enough for a department session. Under the conditions which existed at Boston, and probably would exist in any large city, it was apparent that the general sessions held in the evening had a less cogent attraction for the average member of the Association than the department meetings in the morning. This fact should be taken into account in preparing the program of the general sessions for any place of meeting where the outside attractions during the day and evening are strong.

The weakest point in the present administration of the Association is the mode of selecting members of the Committee on Nominations. The conditions prescribed for their election by the by-law in force up to July 9, 1903, could not be fulfilled, so that all elections had been illegal. The meeting of Active Members on July 9 amended the by-law so that legal elections can be effected, but at the moment the meeting could not see the way to prevent the election of members of the nominating committee by very small meetings which can easily be managed in the interest of aspiring individuals. The National Executive Committee might render an important service to the Association if it would prepare and submit to the Active membership before the next meeting a satisfactory method of electing members of the Committee on Nominations.

President at the Boston Convention.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, WINONA, MINN., November 15, 1903.

To the Board of Trustees:

GENTLEMEN: I beg leave to submit the following report of certain features of the business of the Secretary's office since October 1, 1901, when the last report was made.

The active membership of the Association has increased within the past two years from 2,810 to 4,288. The following table shows the growth of the active membership since its organization at the Denver meeting in 1895:

TABLE SHOWING ACTIVE MEMBERSHIP ENROLLMENT SINCE 1895

Year	Meeting	Additions	Loss by Death	Loss by Withdrawal	Total Loss	Net Gain	Total Membership
1895-96.....	Buffalo.....	1,464	1,464

1902.....	Minneapolis.....	1,074	3,215	33.4
1903.....	Boston.....	2,117	4,288	49.4

The enrollment of educational institutions as active members has increased from 204, reported two years ago, to 521. These institutions are distributed as follows:

Universities and colleges	136
Normal schools	59
Public libraries	102
Public schools (New York city)	180
Boards of education	17
Other educational institutions	27
Total	521

The cash receipts at the Secretary's office from membership fees of active members not in attendance at the annual convention, from sales of back volumes, committee reports, and from miscellaneous sources have been during the past two years, respectively, $4,785.93 and $5,404.96.

TABLE OF CASH RECEIPTS AT THE SECRETARY'S OFFICE SINCE 1895

Year	Act. Membership Dues Not Paid at Annual Meeting	Sales of Back Volumes	Sales of Committee Reports, Etc.	Total

1902-1903	4,152.24	830.25	122.47	5,404.96

The following table shows the growth of the permanent fund and the interest receipts as appear from the reports of the Board of Trustees since its organization in 1886. The surplus from the meetings of 1884 and 1885 and from other sources, amounting to $3,400, was turned over to the Board of Trustees as the first installment of the permanent fund.

TABLE SHOWING GROWTH OF THE PERMANENT FUND

Year	Meeting	Additions to the Permanent Fund	Total Amount of Permanent Fund	Revenue from Permanent Fund

1893-94	No meeting	No addition	40,000.00	2,369.16
1894-95	Asbury Park	5,000.00	45,000.00	2,058.96
1895-96	Denver	9,961.75	54,961.75	3,058.14
1896-97	Buffalo	4,300.00	59,261.75	2,801.95
1897-98	Milwaukee	4,738.25	64,000.00	2,568.47
1898-99	Washington	10,000.00	74,000.00	3,164.13
1899-1900	Los Angeles	14,000.00	88,000.00	3,474.12
1900-1901	Charleston	No addition	88,000.00	3,883.03
1901-1902	Detroit	10,000.00	98,000.00	3,841.22
1902-1903	Minneapolis	10,000.00	108,000.00	4,715.10

Already from the receipts of the Boston convention $24,000 has been transferred to the permanent fund, bringing the amount up to $132,000 at this date, November 15, 1903. This will be further increased during the year.

From the above tables it will be seen that during the past two years there has been a fixed revenue from the receipts of the Secretary's office and from interest on the permanent fund, amounting to $9,627.15 and $10,120.06 respectively. This revenue is entirely independent of receipts from the annual convention.

CONFERENCE OF DEPARTMENT PRESIDENTS

The recommendation in the last report that the President of the Association be authorized to call a meeting of the department presidents about January 1 for the purpose of considering and determining the various programs for the annual convention was, on the recommendation of President Charles W. Eliot, adopted by the Executive Committee at its meeting in Boston October 9, 1902. The department presidents were called to meet in Boston January 1, 1903; fifteen were present besides President Eliot and the Secretary. A series of interesting and profitable sessions were held; every phase of each proposed program for the Boston convention was discussed in detail, and valuable suggestions and criticisms were freely offered. It is believed that the excellent programs and the unusually successful department meetings at the Boston convention were largely due to these conferences. The total expense to the Association for this meeting was $621.81, which included railroad fare, expenses en route, and two days' board in Boston.

The Board of Directors at its meeting July 9, 1903, voted to authorize the Executive Committee to continue this plan and to incur the necessary expense.

THE OFFICE AND DEPOSITORY

Permit me to recall your action at the Minneapolis convention authorizing the chairman of your Board to enter into an agreement to pay rent for offices, including a depository for the publications of the Association, on condition that I should build an addition to my residence suitable for such purposes. In accordance with this agreement the addition, a two-story structure 22 X 30 feet, was completed in November, 1902, and the depository of the volumes of Proceedings (about fifteen thousand volumes) and other publications removed from Washington, and installed in the new depository in the following month.

The addition, which is used exclusively for offices and depository, consists of five rooms, on two floors, two halls, and stairway, and is connected with the library of my residence by a broad doorway. It is heated by hot water, and provided with both gas and electric lights. The two rooms and hallway on the first floor are used for offices, while the depository occupies two rooms on the second floor, the third room being used as a stock- and packing-room.

Under the agreement the Association pays $50 per month rent for the rooms, which amount includes all expenses of furnishing, lighting, heating, care, and telephone service. By this arrangement the rent of the depository at Washington and the salary of the custodian, amounting together to $150 per annum, is discontinued.

The following table shows expenses of the Secretary's office since 1898, when the work became fully organized:

TABLE OF CLASSIFIED EXPENSES AT THE SECRETARY'S OFFICE SINCE 1898

Year	Postage	Telegrams	Freight and Express	Clerical Service	Stationery and Office Supplies	Traveling	Miscellaneous	Rent	Salary	Total
1898-1899	$462.78	$134.97	$21.53	$525.45	$118.44	$275.21	$3,000	$4,538.38
1899-1900	649.76	118.86	55.44	464.33	160.07	398.63	4,000	5,840.09
1900-1901	749.65	53.42	21.18	563.70	169.02	139.15	4,000	5,606.19
1901-1902	764.80	71.63	20.09	689.25	114.15	148.40	$49.75	...	4,000	5,857.07
1902-1903	784.38	69.73	20.08	792.15	99.73	298.30	45.70	$550	4,000	6,660.07

The great increase in the work of the office, especially since the Boston convention, has made necessary the increase of the clerical force, on the authority and recommendation of the Executive Committee. It will be necessary, hereafter, to employ two clerks regularly, and additional help at certain times as circumstances may demand. No small part of the increase in the office work is due to the rapid growth of the active membership, with the necessity for collecting the annual dues by correspondence of a large proportion of the members, and for verifying or revising annually for publication the educational position, address, etc., of each member. It is worthy of note, however, that the amount of the enrollment fees alone of new members ($2 for each member) received since the Milwaukee meeting has much more than paid for the expense of the entire clerical force of the office each year since 1897.

SPECIAL COMMITTEES

The following special committees of investigation have been created and appropriations made for their expenses, as indicated:

COMMITTEE ON TAXATION AS RELATED TO PUBLIC EDUCATION

James M. Greenwood, superintendent of schools, Kansas City, Mo., chairman.
 Aaron Gove, superintendent of schools, Denver, Colo.
 W. T. Harris, Commissioner of Education of the United States, Washington, D. C.
 J. W. Carr, superintendent of schools, Anderson, Ind.
 Newton C. Dougherty, superintendent of schools, Peoria, Ill.
 Nathan C. Schaeffer, state superintendent of public instruction, Harrisburg, Pa.
 William H. Maxwell, superintendent of schools, New York, N. Y.
 Carroll G. Pearse, superintendent of schools, Omaha, Neb.
 Charles D. McIver, president of the Normal and Industrial College, Greensboro, N. C.
 Frank A. Fitzpatrick, 93 Summer St., Boston, Mass.

This committee was appointed at the Minneapolis meeting in 1902 (see Minutes, Minneapolis volume of Proceedings, pp. 34, 311-13). The committee is under instructions to make a printed report to the National Council not later than 1904, unless otherwise directed, and the sum of $1,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, was appropriated for the expenses of the committee.

COMMITTEE ON THE NATIONAL BUREAU OF EDUCATION

Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, chairman.
 Newton C. Dougherty, superintendent of schools, Peoria, Ill.
 Andrew S. Draper, president of University of Illinois, Champaign, Ill.
 Aaron Gove, superintendent of schools, Denver, Colo.
 G. R. Glenn, ex-state school commissioner of Georgia, Atlanta, Ga.
 E. Oram Lyte, president of the State Normal School, Millersville, Pa.
 Together with the United States Commissioner of Education.

This committee was first appointed by the Department of Superintendence at its annual meeting in Chicago in 1900, "to aid the Bureau of Education, in whatever way they find it practicable, to accomplish its work" (see Minutes of Department of Superintendence, Charleston volume of Proceedings, p. 185).

At a meeting of the National Council July 6, 1903, the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations reported at length on the desirability of strengthening the Bureau of Education, and of enlarging its organization and facilities with the view of securing its erection into a separate administrative department, and its adequate equipment and financial support (see Minutes of Council, Boston volume of Proceedings, pp. 306, 309).

The committee already appointed by the Department of Superintendence, as above stated, was approved and continued by the Council; and an appropriation of $1,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the expenses of the committee, was authorized by the Board of Directors at its meeting July 9, 1900 (see Minutes of Board of Directors, Boston volume of Proceedings, pp. 36, 37, 38).

COMMITTEE ON CONTEMPORARY EDUCATIONAL DOCTRINE

Paul H. Hanus, Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass., chairman.
 *Frank A. Hill, secretary of state board of education, Boston, Mass.
 Lewis H. Jones, president of State Normal College, Ypsilanti, Mich.
 Charles B. Gilbert, educational editor, New York, N. Y.

*Deceased.

Charles H. Keyes, superintendent of schools, south district, Hartford, Conn.
 George S. Locke, assistant professor of education, University of Chicago, Chicago, Ill.
 D. L. Kiehle, ex-professor of pedagogy, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minn.
 Calvin N. Kendall, superintendent of schools, Indianapolis, Ind.
 James H. Van Sickle, superintendent of schools, Baltimore, Md.
 Elmer E. Brown, professor of theory and practice of education, University of California, Berkeley, Cal.
 W. T. Harris, Commissioner of Education of the United States, Washington, D. C.

This committee was originally appointed as a committee of nine by the Department of Superintendence at its meeting in Chicago in 1902 (see Minutes of Department of Superintendence, Minneapolis volume of Proceedings, pp. 156, 157). At the meeting of the Department of Superintendence in Cincinnati in 1903 it was increased to eleven members (see Minutes of Department of Superintendence, Boston volume of Proceedings, p. 140).

At the meeting of the National Council July 9, 1903, the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations recommended that this committee designate a subcommittee of three of their own number to report to the Council in 1904 (a) a detailed and specific statement of the field of proposed investigation, (b) a precise indication of the method or methods to be pursued, (c) a careful estimate of the cost of the proposed investigation and the time it will probably consume; and also recommended that an appropriation of $750 be asked for the expenses of the subcommittee and to meet the expense of the work already done by the full committee (see Minutes of the National Council, Boston volume of Proceedings, p. 309).

The Board of Directors at its meeting July 9, 1903, authorized the appropriation of $750 for the use of said committee (see Minutes of Board of Directors, Boston volume of Proceedings, pp. 37, 38).

COMMITTEE ON SALARIES, TENURE OF OFFICE AND PENSIONS OF TEACHERS

Carroll D. Wright, U. S. Commissioner of Labor, Washington, D. C., chairman.

CLARIBEL ANGLE died at her home in Minneapolis Mar 15, 1903.

She was born in Randolph, N. Y., in 1871. Her early training was received in rural schools and in the Avon Union School. She completed a high-school course in 1889, and the classical course of the State Normal School at Buffalo, N. Y., in 1893. Later she entered the University of Minnesota, specializing in zoölogy. She graduated in June, 1897, with honors in science; and in recognition of her high scholarship was elected to the Sigma Xi, honorary, Society. From 1898 to 1900 she was assistant principal of the Monticello High School; from 1900 until February, 1903, she served as science teacher in the high school at Spring Valley, Minn.

She became an active member of the National Educational Association at the Minneapolis meeting in July, 1902.

WILLIAM MILLER BEARDSHEAR died at his home at the Iowa State College, Ames, Ia., August 5, 1902.

Dr. Beardshear was born near Dayton, O., in 1850. He entered the army as a drummer boy and served later in the one hundred and eighty-fourth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, Fourth Army Corps, Army of the Cumberland, until the close of the war. His early education was gained in rural schools. Later he graduated from Otterbein University, receiving the degrees of A.B. in 1876, A.M. in 1879, and LL.D. in 1885. He attended the Yale Theological Seminary for two years and served as a pastor in one of the churches of Dayton, O., until 1881. He was president of Western College, Toledo, Ia., from 1881 to 1889; superintendent of public schools of Des Moines, Ia., from 1889 to 1891; and was chosen president of Iowa State College in 1891, which position he held at the time of his death.

He was an active member and regular attendant of the National Educational Association from 1889, often serving in important official positions. He was elected President of the Association in July, 1901. He prepared with great care and skill the program for the Minneapolis convention of that body in July, 1902; but was taken ill at the opening of the convention, and was unable to preside at any session. All the circumstances attending his last illness were peculiarly sad, and his death came as a personal bereavement to the thousands of members of the Association to whom he had endeared himself, and whose interests he had served with singular loyalty and efficiency.

A memorial sketch of President Beardshear may be found on p. 368 of the volume of Proceedings for 1903, Boston meeting.

REUBEN SAXTON BINGHAM died at the home of his daughter in San Francisco, Cal., in March, 1903.

Superintendent Bingham was born in Floyd, Oneida county, N. Y., in 1836. He prepared for college at Fairfield, N. Y., and graduated from Hamilton College from which he received the degrees of A.B. and A.M. After graduating he took a course of studies in law, but decided to enter the work of teaching. He was superintendent of schools in Marengo, Ia., for five years; in Cedar Falls, Ia., for seven years, and for several years was superintendent of schools in Tacoma, Wash., resigning this position in 1902 on account of ill health.

He became an active member of the National Educational Association in 1896, and at the time of his death was also a member of the National Council of Education.

CLARENCE MILES BOUTELLE, superintendent of schools of Marshall, Minn., died at his home in Marshall September 16, 1903.

Dr. Boutelle was born in New Hampshire in 1851. In 1859 his parents removed to a farm near Lake City, Minn. He received his early education in rural schools, teaching a district school for two winters. Later he entered the State Normal School at Winona, graduating in 1872. He then spent two years in the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston. He was granted the degree of LL.D. by St. Stephen's College, Annandale, N. Y., in 1896. In 1874 he was elected teacher of mathematics and sciences in the Winona Normal School. This position he held for nine years. He next served as a teacher in the public schools of Rochester, Minn., and was elected superintendent of schools of Decorah, Ia., where he remained seven years. He next taught in the State Normal School at East Stroudsburg, Pa., and was elected superintendent of schools at Marshall, Minn., in 1895, which position he held at the time of his death.

He became an active member of the National Educational Association in 1896.

DANIEL FOWLER DE WOLF died at the home of his daughter in Marietta, Ga., August 18, 1903.

Dr. De Wolf was born at Sacketts Harbor, N. Y., in 1823, and lived on a farm in Madison county until he was fourteen years of age, too busy with farm work to attend school. For two years after that he attended school winters, 1837 and 1838; and then taught a rural school two winters, 1839 and 1840. He prepared for college at Fayetteville, N. Y., and attended Oberlin College, teaching school winters in Ohio. He was admitted to the bar in 1857, and practiced law until the outbreak of the Civil War, when he entered the service in the Fifty-fifth Regiment of Ohio Volunteer Infantry. Later he became colonel of the One Hundred and Sixty-fourth Regiment of the Ohio Veteran Reserve Corps. He was superintendent of schools of Toledo, O., from 1864 to 1876; professor of German and French at Western Reserve College until 1880; and state school commissioner for two terms. In 1884 he removed to Marietta, Ga., where he lived with his daughter, Mrs. Emma De Wolf Paige, until the time of his death. He received the degree of A.M. from Miami University and of Ph.D. from the University of Wooster.

He became a life member of the National Educational Association in 1881.

WILLIAM B. FRIEDBERG died in New York city March 31, 1903.

Principal Friedberg was born in the city of New York and received his early education in the city schools. He graduated from the College of the City of New York in 1873, after which he studied law and was admitted to the bar. For ten years from 1880 he taught in various public schools of the city, and was appointed principal of Public School No. 10 in 1890, and was subsequently transferred to Grammar School No. 92, which position he held at the time of his death.

He became an active member of the National Educational Association in 1892.

WILLIAM E. GODDARD died in Chicago, Ill., October 17, 1903.

He was born in Illinois in 1863 and received his early education in rural schools. He graduated from the University of Michigan in 1886, and served as principal of schools in Michigan for four years. In 1891 he was appointed a representative of the firm of Ginn & Co., and was assigned to the state of Wisconsin, which position he held at the time of his death.

He became an active member of the National Educational Association in 1899.

AUSTIN GEORGE died January 20, 1903, at his home in Ypsilanti, Mich.

PREAMBLE

To elevate the character and advance the interests of the profession of teaching, and to promote the cause of popular education in the United States, we, whose names are subjoined, agree to adopt the following

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I—NAME

This Association shall be styled the NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

ARTICLE II—DEPARTMENTS

SECTION 1. It shall consist of eighteen departments: first, of Superintendence; second, of Normal Schools; third, of Elementary Education; fourth, of Higher Education; fifth, of Manual Training; sixth, of Art Education; seventh, of Kindergarten Education; eighth, of Music Education; ninth, of Secondary Education; tenth, of Business Education; eleventh, of Child Study; twelfth, of Physical Education; thirteenth, of Natural Science Instruction; fourteenth, of School Administration; fifteenth, the Library Department; sixteenth, of Special Education; seventeenth, of Indian Education; and eighteenth, the National Council of Education.

SEC. 2. Other departments may be organized in the manner prescribed in this constitution.

ARTICLE III—MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. There shall be three classes of members, namely, active, associate, and corresponding.

SEC. 2. Teachers and all who are actively associated with the management of educational institutions, including libraries and periodicals, may become active members. All others who pay an annual membership fee of two dollars may become associate members.

Eminent educators not residing in America may be elected by the Directory to be corresponding members. The number of corresponding members shall at no time exceed fifty.

SEC. 3. Any person eligible may become an active member upon application indorsed by two active members, and the payment of an enrollment fee of two dollars and the annual dues for the current year.

Active members only have the right to vote and to hold office in the general Association or in the several departments.

All active members must pay annual dues of two dollars, and will be entitled to the volume of Proceedings without "coupon" or other conditions. The annual membership fee shall be payable at the time of the annual convention, or by remittance to the Secretary before September 1 of each year. Any active member may discontinue membership by giving written notice to the Secretary before September 1, and may restore the same only on payment of the enrollment fee of two dollars and the annual dues for the current year.

All life members and life directors shall be denominated active members, and shall enjoy all the powers and privileges of such members without the payment of annual dues.

Associate members may receive the volume of Proceedings in accordance with the usual "coupon" conditions, as printed on the membership certificate.

Corresponding members will be entitled to the volume of Proceedings without the payment of fees or other conditions.

SEC. 4. The names of active and corresponding members only will be printed in the volume of Proceedings, with their respective educational titles, offices, and addresses, the list to be revised annually by the Secretary of the Association.

ARTICLE IV—OFFICERS

SECTION 1. The officers of this Association shall consist of a President, twelve Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Board of Directors, a Board of Trustees, and an Executive Committee, as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. The Board of Directors shall consist of the President of the National Educational Association, First Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, chairman of the Board of Trustees, and one additional member from each state, territory, or district, to be elected by the Association for the term of one year, or until their successors are chosen, and of all life directors elected previous to July 10, 1895.

All past Presidents of the Association now living (July 10, 1895), and all future Presidents at the close of their respective terms of office, and the United States Commissioner of Education, shall be life directors of the Association.

The President of the National Educational Association, First Vice-President, Treasurer, chairman of the Board of Trustees, and a member of the Association to be chosen annually by the Board of Directors, which member shall hold office for one year, shall constitute the Executive Committee.

SEC. 3. The elective officers of the Association, with the exception of the Secretary, shall be chosen by the active members of the Association by ballot, unless otherwise ordered, on the third day of each session, a majority of the votes cast being necessary for choice. They shall continue in office until the close of the annual session subsequent to their election, and until their successors are chosen, except as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 4. Each department shall be administered by a president, vice-president, secretary, and such other officers as it shall deem necessary to conduct its affairs; but no person shall be elected to any office of the Association, or of any department, who is not, at the time of the election, an active member of the Association.

SEC. 5. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Association and of the Board of Directors, and shall perform the duties usually devolving upon a presiding officer. In his absence, the First Vice-President in order, who is present, shall preside; and in the absence of all Vice-Presidents, a pro-tempore chairman shall be appointed on nomination, the Secretary putting the question.

SEC. 6. The Secretary shall keep a full and accurate report of the proceedings of the general meetings of the Association and all meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall conduct such correspondence as the directors may assign, and shall have his records present at all meetings of the Association and of the Board of Directors. The secretary of each department shall, in addition to performing the duties usually pertaining to his office, keep a list of the members of his department.

SEC. 7. The Treasurer shall receive, and under the direction of the Board of Trustees hold in safe-keeping, all moneys paid to the Association; shall expend the same only upon the order of said board; shall keep an exact account of his receipts and expenditures, with vouchers for the latter, which accounts, ending the 1st day of July each year, he shall render to the Board of Trustees and, when approved by said board, he shall report the same to the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall give such bond for the faithful discharge of his duties as may be required by the Board of Trustees; and he shall continue in office until the first meeting of the Board of Directors held prior to the annual meeting of the Association next succeeding that for which he is elected.

SEC. 8. The Board of Directors shall have power to fill all vacancies in their own body; shall have in charge the general interests of the Association, excepting those herein intrusted to the Board of Trustees; shall make all necessary arrangements for its meetings, and shall do all in its power to make it a useful and honorable institution. Upon the written application of twenty active members of the Association for permission to establish a new department, it may grant such permission. Such new department shall in all respects be entitled to the same rights and privileges as the others. The formation of such department shall in effect be a sufficient amendment to this constitution for the insertion of its name in Art. II, and the Secretary shall make the necessary alterations.

SEC. 9. The Board of Trustees shall consist of four members, elected by the Board of Directors for the term of four years, and the President of the Association, who shall be a member ex officio during his term of office. At the election of the trustees in 1886, one trustee shall be elected for one year, one for two years, one for three years, and one for four years; and annually thereafter, at the first meeting of the Board of Directors held prior to the annual meeting of the Association, one trustee shall be elected for the term of four years. All vacancies occurring in said Board of Trustees, whether by resignation or otherwise, shall be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired term; and the absence of a trustee from two successive annual meetings of the board shall forfeit his membership therein. The Board of Trustees thus elected shall constitute the body corporate of the Association, as provided in the certificate of incorporation under the provisions of the Act of General Incorporation, Class Third, of the Revised Statutes of the District of Columbia, dated the 24th day of February, 1886, at Washington, D. C., and recorded in Liber No. 4, "Acts of Incorporation for the District of Columbia."

SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the Board of Trustees to provide for safe-keeping and investment of all funds which the Association may receive from donations; and the income of such invested funds shall be used exclusively in paying the cost of publishing the annual volume of Proceedings of the Association, excepting when donors shall specify otherwise. It shall also be the duty of the board to issue orders on the Treasurer for the payment of all bills approved by the Board of Directors, or by the President and Secretary of the Association acting under the authority of the Board of Directors; and, when practicable, the trustees shall invest all surplus funds exceeding one hundred dollars that shall remain in the hands of the Treasurer after paying the expenses of the Association for the previous year.

SEC. 11. The Board of Trustees shall elect the Secretary of the Association, who shall also be secretary of the Executive Committee, and shall fix the compensation and the term of office for a period not to exceed four years.

ARTICLE V—MEETINGS

SECTION 1. The annual meeting of the Association shall be held at such time and place as shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

SEC. 2. Special meetings may be called by the President at the request of five directors.

SEC. 3. Any department of the Association may hold a special meeting at such time and place as by its own regulations it shall appoint.

SEC. 4. The Board of Directors shall hold its regular meetings at the place and not less than two hours before the assembling of the Association.

SEC. 5. Special meetings may be held at such other times and places as the board or the President shall determine.

SEC. 6. Each new board shall organize at the session of its election. At its first meeting a committee on publication shall be appointed, which shall consist of the President and the Secretary of the Association for the previous year, and one member from each department.

ARTICLE VI—BY-LAWS

By-laws not inconsistent with this constitution may be adopted by a two-thirds vote of the Association.

ARTICLE VII—AMENDMENTS

This constitution may be altered or amended at a regular meeting by the unanimous vote of the members present; or by a two-thirds vote of the members present, provided that the alteration or amendment has been substantially proposed in writing at a previous meeting.

BY-LAWS

1. At the first session of each annual meeting of the Association there shall be appointed by the President a committee on resolutions; and at the third session of such meeting there shall be appointed a committee on nominations, consisting of one member from each state and territory represented, the same to be appointed by the President on the nomination of a majority of the active members from such state or territory present at the meeting called for the purpose of making such nomination; provided, however, that such appointment shall be made by the President without such nomination, when the active members in attendance from any state or territory shall fail to make a nomination.

The meetings of active members to nominate members of the nominating committee shall be held at 5:30 P. M. on the first day of the annual meeting of the Association, at such place as shall be announced in the general program.

2. The President and Secretary shall certify to the Board of Trustees all bills approved by the Board of Directors.

3. Each paying member of the Association shall be entitled to a copy of its Proceedings.

4. No paper, lecture, or address shall be read before the Association or any of its departments in the absence of its author, nor shall any such paper, lecture, or address be published in the volume of Proceedings, without the consent of the Association, upon approval of the Executive Committee.

5. It shall be the duty of the President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the Association to appoint annually some competent person to examine the securities of the Permanent Fund held by the Board of Trustees, and his certificate, showing the condition of the said fund, shall be attached to the report of the Board of Trustees.

ACT OF INCORPORATION

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the National Educational Association, held at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., July 14, 1885, the following resolution was passed:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to secure articles of incorporation for the National Educational Association, under United States or state laws, as speedily as may be.

N. A. Calkins, of New York; Thomas W. Bicknell, of Massachusetts; and Eli T. Tappan, of Ohio, were appointed such committee.

Under the authority of the resolution quoted above, and with the approval of the committee, and by competent legal advice, the chairman obtained a

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

We, the undersigned, Norman A. Calkins, John Eaton, and Zalmon Richards, citizens of the United States, and two of them citizens of the District of Columbia, do hereby associate ourselves together, pursuant to the provisions of the Act of General Incorporation, Class Third, of the Revised Statutes of the District of Columbia, under the name of the "National Educational Association," for the full period of twenty years, the purpose and objects of which are to elevate the character and advance the interests of the profession of teaching and to promote the cause of popular education in the United States. . . . To secure the full benefit of said act we do here execute this our certificate of incorporation as said act provides.

In witness whereof, we severally set our hands and seals this 24th day of February, 1886, at Washington, D. C.

OWENSBORO, KY., June 30, 1904.

McHENRY RHOADS, Treasurer.

ST. LOUIS, MO., June 26, 1904.

The undersigned, trustees of the National Educational Association, have this day examined and approved the accounts of Mr. McHenry Rhoads, Treasurer, with all statements of receipts and vouchers for disbursements.

(Signed)

ALBERT G. LANE, Chairman.
JOHN W. COOK.
NICHOLAS MURRAY BUTLER.
NEWTON C. DOUGHERTY.
F. LOUIS SOLDAN.

CHICAGO, July 13, 1904.

Executive Committee, National Educational Association of the United States:

GENTLEMEN: In accordance with instructions received from Mr. A. G. Lane, chairman of the Board of Trustees, we have examined the books and accounts of the National Educational Association of the United States, as kept by the Secretary, Irwin Shepard, the Treasurer, McHenry Rhoads, and the chairman of the Board of Trustees, A. G. Lane, for the year ending June 30, 1904.

We have verified the Treasurer's report, and the report of the Board of Trustees, submitted at the meeting of the Association at St. Louis, Mo., and we certify both reports to be in accordance with the books.

We noticed an error in one of the vouchers for the Treasurer's Cash Disbursements as follows: Voucher No. 170, Irwin Shepard, Secretary, $104.95. Various items in this voucher amount to $114.95, leaving a balance due to Dr. Shepard of $10.00.

We are pleased to be able to report that the books are correctly and carefully kept, and are, in our opinion, well suited to the needs of the Association.

Yours respectfully,

THE INTERNATIONAL AUDIT COMPANY,
By JOHN McLAREN, President.

ROBERT NELSON,
Certified Public Accountant, Manager.

CHICAGO, ILL., June 23, 1904.

John W. Cook, Esq., Normal School, DeKalb, Ill.:

DEAR SIR: Pursuant to your instructions, I have this day examined the following securities belonging to the permanent fund of the National Educational Association. (Here follows detailed list of securities as per the above statements.)

¹Interest or principal in default.

With regard to the above Kansas bonds, no interest has been paid on the Garfield County Bonds since July, 1892; on the Grant County Bonds, since July, 1895; on the Lane County Bonds, since July, 1896. The District No. 70 Ness County Bonds are overdue, and Mr. Lane informs me that negotiations are pending for settlement.

The City of South Hutchinson, Reno county, Bonds have not paid interest since August, 1896. Mr. Lane informs me that a bond for $1,000, Seward county, Kansas, is in the hands of Bentley & Hatfield, Wichita, Kan., and that judgment has been obtained on same.

The July coupons for interest on the Hodgeman County Bond and the Village of Morgan Park Bond were found to be in the hands of the First National Bank for collection; also mortgage note on property 5603 Madison avenue, Chicago. Documentary proof of this was submitted.

I have not examined the books of account or inquired into the titles in the case of the above, but have simply verified the physical possession of the securities detailed above, which are in accordance with a list given me by Mr. Lane.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) F. J. HOWELL, Secretary.

JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS
OF THE
FORTY-THIRD ANNUAL CONVENTION
OF THE

HELD IN CONNECTION WITH THE LOUISIANA PURCHASE EXPOSITION

ST. LOUIS, MO., JUNE 27-JULY 1, 1904

FIRST DAY'S PROCEEDINGS

OPENING SESSION.—TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 9:30 A. M.

The forty-third annual convention of the National Educational Association was called to order by President John W. Cook, of De Kalb, Ill., at 9:30 A. M., in Festival Hall, on the Exposition grounds.

After several selections by Banda Rossa, of Italy, prayer was offered by Superintendent Nathan C. Schaeffer, of Pennsylvania.

A letter was read by the President from Governor A. M. Dockery of Missouri, regretting his inability, by reason of unexpected and important official business, to be present at the opening session of the convention to welcome the convention to the state.

Addresses of welcome were given by Hon. W. T. Carrington, state superintendent of public instruction of Missouri; Dr. C. M. Woodward, president of the board of education of St. Louis; Dr. F. Louis Soldan, superintendent of instruction of the public schools of St. Louis; Hon. Rolla Wells, mayor of the city of St. Louis; Hon. David R. Francis, president of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition; Hon. Howard J. Rogers, chief of the Department of Education and director of Congresses, Louisiana Purchase Exposition; and Chancellor W. S. Chaplin, of Washington University, chairman of the Local Executive Committee of the National Educational Association for St. Louis.

Responses to the addresses of welcome were made by Hon. W. T. Harris, Commissioner of Education of the United States, and Charles D. McIver, president of the State Normal and Industrial College, Greensboro, N. C.

The annual address of the President of the Association was delivered by President John W. Cook, of De Kalb, Ill., on the subject, "The New Individualism."

Following this address, President Edmund J. James, of Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., addressed the convention on "The Place of the Church in American Education."

The Committee on Resolutions was announced as follows:

Charles D. McIver, president of State Normal and Industrial College, Greensboro, N. C.

John W. Carr, superintendent of schools, Anderson, Ind.

Miss Amelia C. Fruchte, first assistant in Normal and High School, St. Louis, Mo.

Miss Margaret A. Haley, president of the National Federation of Teachers, Chicago, Ill.

Miss Anna Tolman Smith, of the United States Bureau of Education, Washington, D. C.

Augustus S. Downing, assistant commissioner of education, Albany, N. Y.

S. Y. Gillan, editor of the Western Teacher and the American Journal of Education, Milwaukee, Wis.

W. S. Sutton, professor of the science and art of education, University of Texas, Austin, Tex.

John D. Benedict, superintendent of schools for Indian Territory, Muskogee, I. T.

C. C. Van Liew, president, State Normal School, Chico, Cal.

After announcements by the Secretary, the convention adjourned to meet at 9:30 A. M., Wednesday, June 29.

SECOND DAY'S PROCEEDINGS

SECOND SESSION.—WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 9:30 A. M.

The convention was called to order in Festival Hall by President John W. Cook, at 9:30 A. M.

Two musical selections were rendered by Weil's Band, of St. Louis, Mo.

Rev. D. S. Phelan, of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Catholic Church, led the convention in prayer.

The President then introduced Captain Percy Atkin, commissioner in charge of the British education exhibit, who addressed the convention on "Popular Education in England."

"The Educational Possibilities for the Country Child in the United States" was the subject of a paper by O. J. Kern, superintendent of schools of Winnebago county, Rockford, Ill.

John Herbert Phillips, superintendent of schools of Birmingham, Ala., read a paper on "The Educational Needs of the South."

Mr. Scott Brook, the organist of Leland Stanford Junior University, of California, was introduced and favored the audience with two selections on the great Exposition organ.

An address on "Education in the Philippines" was delivered by E. B. Bryan, former superintendent of education of the Philippine Islands, now connected with the Indiana State University, Bloomington, Ind.

"Our Educational Creed," by Z. X. Snyder, president of the State Normal School, Greeley, Colo., was the closing address of the morning session.

Announcements were then made by the Secretary of a special invitation to visit the Philippine education exhibit, and of various receptions and entertainments tendered to the members of the Association.

The convention then adjourned to 5:30 P. M.

THIRD SESSION.—WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 5:30 P. M.

The first vesper meeting of the Association was called to order at 5:30 P. M., President Cook in the chair.

Halsey C. Ives, chief of the Department of Art of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, was introduced by the President, and addressed the Association on "The Art Exhibits of the Exposition."

Hawaii.....	CHARLES B. DYKE.....	Honolulu
Philippine Islands.....	C. H. MAXSON.....	Iloilo, Panay

Respectfully submitted,

J. H. PHILLIPS, Chairman.

W. G. HARTRANFT, Secretary.

After the reading of the report, attention was called to the fact that the territory of New Mexico was not represented by a nominee for director.

On motion of A. S. Downing, of New York, the report was amended by the insertion of the name of H. A. Owen, of Silver City, N. M., for director of the territory of New Mexico.

On motion of F. Louis Soldan, of Missouri, the report of the Committee on Nominations, as amended, was received, and the Secretary was instructed by unanimous vote to cast the ballot of the members for the nominees, as read.

The Secretary reported the ballot as cast in accordance with the motion of instructions, and the President announced the nominees as officers of the National Educational Association for the ensuing year.

THE PRESIDENT: The next item on the docket is new business. The chair will await the pleasure of the meeting.

BEN BLEWETT, of Missouri: Mr. Chairman, I have a resolution to offer, an explanation of which I presume is not necessary for those who have been active members of this Association for any considerable length of time; but to those who have recently become members it may be due to say a word before the resolution is read. The Board of Trustees, which, before the law, is the corporate body of the Association, was incorporated some nineteen years ago, to have a corporate existence of twenty years. That incorporation will expire by limitation in February, 1906. The important business in the charge of the Board of Trustees makes it necessary at this time to look forward toward its reincorporation, and to the proper attention to the interests of the Association. With your permission, and the permission of the active members, I offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That, in view of the early expiration, thru limitation by law, of the certificate of incorporation of the Board of Trustees of the National Educational Association, the Board of Trustees is hereby authorized and requested to take such steps as may be necessary to continue its corporate existence, and to protect the interests of the Association thereby.

Resolved, That, in case existing provisions of law as to the incorporation of associations for educational or financial purposes require any change in the terms of the existing Constitution and rules of the Association, the trustees be, and are hereby, directed to report to the Board of Directors, and to the next annual meeting of the active members, such changes, if any, as they may recommend for adoption.

In answer to a request by a member that notification of any proposed changes in the Constitution under the resolution be sent by the Secretary to the active members, Mr. Blewett asked permission to add the following:

Resolved, That due notice by the Secretary, under the terms of the present Constitution, be given to active members of any changes that shall be proposed by the Board of Trustees in pursuance of the above resolutions.

The resolutions, as thus amended, were carried by a unanimous vote.

S. Y. GILLAN, of Wisconsin: Mr. President, I rise to offer a resolution to amend the Constitution and By-Laws of the Association as follows:

Resolved, That sec. 2, Art. IV, of the Constitution be amended by adding the following words to the first paragraph:

"The active members from any state, territory, or district, in attendance at the meeting for electing a member of the Committee on Nominations, may elect the additional member of the Board of Directors for such state, territory, or district."

Resolved, That the By-Laws be amended by inserting the following paragraphs immediately after the first paragraph of By-Law No. 1:

"The Committee on Nominations shall meet on the second day of each annual session and nominate candidates for President, first Vice-President, Treasurer, and a director for each state, territory, or district whose members shall not have reported the election of a director as provided in sec. 2, Art. IV, of the Constitution; and the Committee on Nominations shall report to the active members at their meeting the following day a list of the nominations.

"When the vote is taken by the Committee on Nominations for candidates for President, first Vice-President, and Treasurer, the committee shall report the persons having the highest number of votes, not exceeding two persons, as candidates for each office. But if, after two formal ballots, any person shall receive a two-thirds majority of the votes cast by the Committee on Nominations for any one of the aforesaid offices, then the person receiving such two-thirds majority shall be reported as the only candidate for such office."

Mr. President, I believe that, under the rules, a proposed amendment must lie over for one year, in order to give opportunity for deliberate consideration of the proposed amendment. I, therefore, move that the Secretary be instructed to print these proposed amendments, and any others that may be proposed at this meeting, in the official program of next year, so that they may be intelligently taken up at the next annual meeting in 1905.

The motion of Mr. Gillan was seconded and carried by unanimous vote.

A count of the number of active members present was made. The Secretary reported 576 members present, and stated that the number was more than twice the attendance at any former meeting of active members.

After notices by the Secretary, the meeting adjourned.

IRWIN SHEPARD, Secretary.

FIFTH SESSION.—THURSDAY, JUNE 30, 5:45 P. M.

The second vesper meeting was called to order in Recital Hall of the Festival Hall building. In the absence of Carl T. F. Bitter, director of sculpture of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, Mr. George Julian Zolnay, instructor in architecture of St. Louis School of Fine Arts, addressed the convention on "Sculpture and Decoration at the Exposition."

After Mr. Zolnay's address, a few announcements were given, and the convention adjourned to Friday, at 9:15 A. M.

FOURTH DAY'S PROCEEDINGS

SIXTH SESSION.—FRIDAY, JULY 1, 9:15 A. M.

An introductory musical program was rendered by Weil's Band, of St. Louis.

The convention was called to order by President Cook at 9:15 A. M., and was opened by prayer by Rev. Robert A. Holland, D.D., of St. George's Episcopal Church, St. Louis.

The first address of the morning was on "The Place of the Small College," by George A. Gates, president of Pomona College, Claremont, Cal.

The convention was honored in a visit by his eminence Cardinal Francis Satolli, accompanied by his associates. Having been introduced to the Association by President Cook, Cardinal Satolli addressed the convention briefly, as follows:

REMARKS BY CARDINAL SATOLLI

[STENOGRAPHIC REPORT]

I am very happy this morning to pay my respects and to offer congratulations to you, the members of the National Educational Association of America. I come here, not only as a simple Christian underpriest of the Catholic church, but also as a cardinal of the Holy See, to tender a tribute of sincerest respect.

Yesterday evening I spoke in this place on that most interesting subject, education. The results of your congress will not only remain for the honor of this glorious Universal Exposition, but will also be continued in their salutary influence thruout the United States, and, in their highest consequences, will affect also the people in all countries of the Christian world.

The future of humanity does not depend on the strength of nations or on their material prosperity; but the corner-stone of civilization, and the welfare of the greatest world-nations, are founded on public Christian education. Therefore, the United States of America in civil and political liberty leads in the progress of humanity; for which reason, also, special congratulations are tendered on behalf of your Republic and your Christian and universal education.

Following the address of the cardinal, Rt. Rev. Monsignor D. O'Connell, rector of the Catholic University of America, at Washington, D. C., was introduced and spoke as follows:

REMARKS BY RT. REV. MONSIGNOR D. O'CONNELL

Mr. President, Teachers of the Schools in America:

Tho something of a stranger in St. Louis, I feel myself quite at home here. I have spent much of my life, and I suppose I shall spend the rest of it, doing just what you are doing—carrying on the work of education. I look with a great deal of interest and admiration at all of the many objects placed here on exhibition by the several states of the Union and the different nations of the world, but nothing of all that the Exposition presents to me impresses me as the audience now before me.

What is the great power in the world today, in civilization? It is the soul of America. Who is it controls that mighty soul? You; you who create, teach, and inspire that mighty soul that is charged with the destinies of humanity. Oh, what a mighty responsibility to shape that future! All priests and priestesses of humanity! Really, I should like to get into your souls, to know what you think. And I suppose you would like to get into mine. How I should like, for a moment, to be in your place, to be able to breathe impulses into that mighty soul of America! Were I a teacher of a school, what would I say to the soul of America? What would be my first lesson? This, above all: To thy God be true; next: Love honesty above all things else; thirdly: Put your liberties above your interests, and spend your lives to make yourselves and your fellow-men better.

The second paper of the session was read by Dr. Leopold Bahlens, commissioner of the German educational exhibit, on "The Preparation of Teachers in Germany."

Then followed a brief organ recital by Professor Charles R. Galloway.

Miss Margaret A. Haley, president of the National Federation of Teachers, Chicago, Ill., addressed the convention on "Why Teachers Should Organize."

"The Limitation of the Superintendent's Authority and of the Teacher's Independence" was the subject of the closing address of the morning, by Aaron Gove, superintendent of the city schools, Denver, Colo.

After announcements, the convention adjourned to meet at 5:45 P. M.

SEVENTH SESSION.—FRIDAY, JULY 1, 5:45 P. M.

The convention assembled for the closing vesper meeting at 5:45 P. M., and was called to order by President Cook.

Mr. George Julian Zolnay, instructor in architecture of the St. Louis School of Fine Arts, and superintendent of the Division of Sculpture of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, was introduced and addressed the convention on "The Architecture of the Exposition," supplying the place of William S. Eames, president of the American Institute of Architects, who had been appointed to speak at this session, but who was unable to fill the engagement on account of illness.

Following the address of Mr. Zolnay, the President called for the report of the Committee on Resolutions, which was presented by Mr. Charles D. McIver, of North Carolina, chairman of the committee.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

The members of the National Educational Association, assembled in this their forty-third convention, make the following resolutions:

DECLARATION

1. We cannot emphasize too often the educational creed first promulgated more than a century ago, that "religion, morality, and knowledge being necessary to good government and the happiness of mankind, schools and the means of education shall forever be encouraged." This declaration of the fathers must come to us now with newer and more solemn call when we remember that in many parts of our common country the fundamental questions of elementary education—local taxation, consolidation of weak schools, rational supervision, proper recognition of the teacher as an educator in the school system, school libraries, and well-trained and well-paid teachers—are still largely unsettled questions.

2. We would direct attention, therefore, to the necessity for a supervisor of ability and tact for every town, city, county, and state system of public schools. Not only are leaders needed in this position who can appreciate and stimulate the best professional work, but qualities of popular leadership are also demanded to the end that all classes of people may be so aroused that every future citizen of the Republic may have the very best opportunities for training in social and civic efficiency.

3. The very nature of the teacher's task demands that that task be entrusted only to men and women of culture and of intellectual and moral force. Inadequate compensation for educational work drives many efficient workers from the schoolroom and prevents many men and women of large ambitions for service from entering the profession. It is creditable neither to the profession nor to the general public that teachers of our children, even though they can be secured, should be paid the paltry sum of $300 a year, which is about the average annual salary of teachers throughout the country.

4. The Bureau of Education at Washington should be preserved in its integrity, and the dignity of its position maintained and increased. It should receive at the hands of our lawmakers such recognition and such appropriations as will enable it not only to employ all expert assistance necessary, but also to publish in convenient and usable form the results of investigations; thus making that department of our government such a source of information and advice as will be most helpful to the people in conducting their campaigns of education.

5. We would emphasize the necessity for the development of public high schools wherever they can be supported properly, in order that the largest number possible of those who pass through the elementary grades may have the advantage of broader training, and for the additional reason that the public elementary schools are taught largely by those who have no training beyond that given in the high schools.

6. As long as more than half of our population is rural, the rural school and its problems should receive the solicitous care of the National Educational Association. The Republic is vitally concerned in the educational development of every part of its territory. There must be no forgotten masses anywhere in our Union of states and territories, nor in any one of its dependencies.

7. We believe that merit and merit alone should determine the employment and retention of teachers; that, after due probation, tenure of office should be permanent during efficiency and good behavior; and that promotions should be based on fitness, experience, professional growth, and fidelity to duty. We especially commend the efforts that are being made in many parts of the country whereby teachers, school officials, and the general public working together for a common purpose are securing better salaries for teachers and devising a better system for conserving the rights and privileges of all and for improving the efficiency of the schools.

8. We declare further that, granted equal character and efficiency, and equally successful experience, women are equally entitled with men to the honors and emoluments of the profession of teaching.

9. We advocate the enactment and rigid enforcement of appropriate laws relating to child labor, such as will protect the mental, moral, and physical well-being of the child, and will be conducive to his educational development into American citizenship.

10. The responsibility for the success or failure of the schools rests wholly with the people, and therefore the public schools should be kept as near to the people as practicable; to this end we indorse the principle of popular local self-government in all school matters.

11. Since education is a matter of the highest public concern, our public-school system should be fully and adequately supported by taxation; and tax laws should be honestly and rigidly enforced both as to assessment and collection.

12. We congratulate and thank the management of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition for giving education first place in the scheme of classification, for the location and grandeur of its building, and for the extent and arrangement of the educational exhibits. Such recognition of education is in harmony with the genius of our democracy and will stimulate interest in popular education thruout the world.

CHARLES D. McIVER, of North Carolina, Chairman;

JOHN W. CARR, of Indiana;

AMELIA C. FRUCHTE, of Missouri;

MARGARET A. HALEY, of Illinois;

ANNA TOLMAN SMITH, of District of Columbia;

AUGUSTUS S. DOWNING, of New York;

S. Y. GILLAN, of Wisconsin;

Committee on Resolutions.

The resolutions as presented were then adopted by the convention by a unanimous vote.

Following this action, a series of resolutions was passed expressing the thanks of the Association to the teachers and other citizens of St. Louis; to Chancellor W. S. Chaplin, chairman of the Local Executive Committee of the National Educational Association, and his associates, for the generous reception and entertainment of the Association; to the officers of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company, and especially to Howard J. Rogers, chief of the Department of Education and director of Congresses; to the Missouri State Commissioners, for the use of their beautiful building for headquarters; and to the press of the city and the Associated Press, for their reports of the convention.

A special resolution of thanks was tendered by the Association to the retiring President, John W. Cook, of Illinois; and to the retiring Treasurer, McHenry Rhoads, of Kentucky, for their year of skillful and effective services.

President Cook then read a telegram from President-elect W. H. Maxwell, of New York city, accepting his election as President of the Association for the ensuing year, and expressing his gratitude for the honor conferred.

President Cook then briefly addressed the Association, and declared the Forty-third Annual Convention of the National Educational Association adjourned.

IRWIN SHEPARD, Secretary.

MINUTES OF THE MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS FOR 1903-1904

ST. LOUIS, MO., JUNE 27, 1904

The annual meeting of the Board of Directors was called to order in the Model Library of the Missouri State Building, Louisiana Purchase Exposition grounds, St. Louis, Mo., at 5:30 P. M., June 27, 1904, by President John W. Cook.

The following directors answered to roll-call:

John W. Cook, Illinois; McHenry Rhoads, Kentucky; Albert G. Lane, Illinois; Nicholas Murray Butler, New York; James H. Canfield, New York; Newton C. Dougherty, Illinois; Aaron Gove, Colorado; J. M. Green, New Jersey; J. M. Greenwood, Missouri; W. T. Harris, District of Columbia; F. Louis Soldan, Missouri; John S. Locke, Maine; Augustus S. Downing, New York; John Enright, New Jersey; M. Bates Stephens, Maryland; Miss Lydia A. Yates, North Carolina; S. L. Frogge, Kentucky; D. J. Johns, Jr., Tennessee; W. F. Slaton, Georgia; E. E. Bass, Mississippi; A. Caswell Ellis, Texas; David R. Boyd, Oklahoma; John R. Benedict, Indian Territory; W. H. Kirk, Ohio; T. A. Mott, Indiana; Miss Catherine Goggin, Illinois; D. W. Springer, Michigan; L. D. Harvey, Wisconsin; A. V. Storm, Iowa; W. L. Kunze, Minnesota; Ben Blewett, Missouri; George W. Nash, South Dakota; E. J. Bodwell, Nebraska; Oscar J. Craig, Montana; Miss Estelle Reel, Wyoming; Lewis C. Greenlee, Colorado; A. J. Matthews, Arizona; W. J. Kerr, Utah; Miss May L. Scott, Idaho; Frank B. Cooper, Washington.

Present, forty directors.

On motion, the reading of the minutes of the last meeting, held in Boston, Mass., July 9, 1903, was dispensed with, and the minutes were approved as printed in the volume of Proceedings of the Boston meeting.

The Secretary read communications from several absent directors, tendering their resignations, and nominating their successors for appointment to membership by the board, as follows:

Director John W. Lansinger, of Pennsylvania, nominating Nathan C. Schaeffer.

Director Warren Easton, of Louisiana, nominating Miss Eveline A. Waldo.

Director W. K. Tate, of South Carolina, nominating Leonard T. Baker.

Director Louis P. Nash, of Massachusetts, nominating Albert E. Winship.

On motion, these resignations of the several directors were accepted, and the secretary was instructed to cast the ballot of the directors for the election of the respective nominees.

The Secretary reported the ballot as so cast, and the president announced the nominees elected as members of the Board of Directors.

The annual report of the Treasurer of the Association, Mr. McHenry Rhoads, of Kentucky, was then read.

Director A. G. Lane, chairman of the Board of Trustees, stated that the report of the Treasurer had been examined by the Board of Trustees and compared with the record of accounts as kept by the Secretary, and that said Board had attached their certificate that the Treasurer's report was found in all particulars correct.

On motion of Director J. M. Green, of New Jersey, duly seconded, the report of the Treasurer was received and approved, and ordered printed in the annual volume of Proceedings.

Director A. G. Lane, chairman, submitted the eighteenth annual report of the Board of Trustees. The detailed report was distributed to the members of the Board of Directors in printed form.

DIRECTOR A. G. LANE: You will note, by turning to the last page of the report, that quite a number of Kansas county and municipal school bonds, which we have held for a good many years, are in default. This condition was brought about by the drought which existed in western Kansas some years ago, and which led to the abandonment of farms and the breaking up of some communities. But the country has been improving in recent years. The lands have been resold, and the taxable value has gradually increased. From information received by the Board of Trustees, we have felt that it is not advisable to accept offers of compromise for the settlement of these bonds that have been made from time to time. The market value of these bonds has gradually increased from twenty-five cents on the dollar to fifty cents, and in some cases to a little more.

At the meeting of the Board of Trustees last year it was deemed advisable to adopt a conservative policy in making investments, and it was recommended that such investments be made in approved bonds, rather than in real-estate mortgages. You will therefore notice that the investments in bonds have increased from $18,000 last year to $53,500 this year. Of the expense account, which appears on the second page of the report, you will note that $650 was for premiums on the bonds, and $698.63 was for the accrued interest and loans. Eight hundred dollars of this amount has been returned in interest received, as appears in the next to the last item of the "Income Statement."

On motion, the report of the Board of Trustees was received and adopted, and ordered printed in the annual volume of Proceedings.

THE SECRETARY: I am in receipt of a letter from Hon. Carroll D. Wright, of Washington, D. C., chairman of the Committee on the Economic Status of Teachers, transmitting a preliminary report of the committee. The report is of some length and refers to the work of the committee up to the present time, including certain statistics which have been tabulated. The entire report is, however, preliminary, and is submitted as a report of progress.

On motion of Director Nicholas Murray Butler, of New York, duly seconded, the report was received, and the Secretary was instructed to transmit it to the National Council with recommendation that it be printed in the annual volume of Proceedings.

The Secretary reported the receipt of a communication from Eliakim H. Moore, head of the Department of Mathematics of the University of Chicago, transmitting a petition to the Board of Directors for the establishment of a Department of Mathematical Education, said petition being in due form and signed by twenty-five or more active members particularly interested in mathematical education.

On motion, the application was read and received for consideration by the board.

Director J. M. Green moved that the petition for the proposed new department be not granted; seconded by A. S. Downing, of New York.

DIRECTOR J. M. GREEN: I think it would be a mistake to increase the number of departments that we already have. I have never been quite able to understand why we should have a Department of Higher Education, and then have other departments covering all the subjects that would naturally be discussed in the Department of Higher Education. I think that the increasing number of special departments draws interest away from the others.

DIRECTOR J. M. GREENWOOD: The proposed new department may draw something of interest away from the Department of Higher Education, but it seems to me that the request is one that ought to be granted. When you take into consideration the rather chaotic condition of the teaching of mathematics in this country, I think it would be entirely appropriate to establish a special department for the consideration of this subject. I, for one, am willing to vote for the creation of a Department of Mathematical Education.

After further general discussion, the motion of Director Green, that the petition be not granted, was put to vote and carried.

Under the order of new business, Edwin B. Cox, of Ohio, was recognized by the chair, and, being granted the privilege of the floor, he presented an application from the Committee on Simplification of Spelling appointed by the Department of Superintendence of the National Educational Association at its meeting February 25, 1904. Said application was in the form of a communication to the Board of Directors, as follows:

To the Board of Directors of the National Educational Association and to the National Council:

GENTLEMEN: The acceptable duty was laid upon us by the Department of Superintendence, February 24, 1904, of formally apprising you of its adoption of the two following resolutions, and of respectfully asking your concurrence in them:

Resolved, (1) That the Department of Superintendence approves the first of the resolutions addressed to it by the State Teachers' Associations of Illinois, Wisconsin, and Minnesota, and respectfully requests the Board of Directors to appoint a permanent, self-perpetuating committee of thirty prominent citizens in different walks of life, particularly scholars and educators, and representing the various sections of the country, to head the movement for simplifying our spelling, and to promote its interests in all ways which they find feasible and deem wise.

Resolved, (2) That the Department of Superintendence approves the second of the resolutions addressed to it by the State Associations of Illinois, Wisconsin, and Minnesota, and respectfully requests the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations of the National Council to recommend to the Board of Directors, and the department respectfully asks said board to make, the appropriation of $2,000 a year for five years, for the use of the above committee, to be paid to it semi-annually, each payment to equal such a total sum as shall have been paid for the same purpose, within the preceding six months, to the treasurer of said committee by any individuals, teachers' associations, or other organizations, the amount paid by the National Educational Association never to exceed $2,000 in any one year, and never to exceed the sum contributed from outside sources during the previous six months.

Permit us to call your attention to the significance of the decisive vote of the department on each of the resolutions, and also to the significance of the decisive similar action by the State Teachers' Associations of Illinois, Wisconsin, and Minnesota, and by the principals' associations in over seventy-five of our largest cities and towns, as Chicago, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Syracuse, Toledo, Detroit, Columbus, Indianapolis, Springfield (Ill.), Minneapolis, etc.

It gives us pleasure to present to you herewith a petition signed by 1,545 of our active members, asking you to comply with the requests of the Department of Superintendence. We also present, in parallel column, the names of the 171 active members who oppose your taking such action. The vote thus stands over nine to one in favor of your complying with the requests of the department.

You will notice that, while your petitioners pay into the National Educational Association treasury directly, every year, about $3,000, they indirectly put in much more, as a large proportion of them are superintendents, who are the chief agents in securing the large attendance of grade teachers which we have every year.

To facilitate your action in this matter we submit (on the following pages) two different plans which have been suggested and carefully considered for organizing the proposed commission or committees. We submit them in a purely tentative way, merely as a working basis for your deliberations. While we hope to be heard fully when the matter is before you for action, we deem it proper to say here that, in our judgment, the interests of the National Educational Association will be best conserved by a working organization fashioned in the main in accordance with Plan A. But we are not strenuous on this point, and we are sure that whichever plan you adopt will prove acceptable to the Department of Superintendence and to all your other petitioners.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. ELSON, Chairman (Superintendent, Grand Rapids, Mich.);

EDWIN B. COX (Superintendent, Xenia, O.);

C. N. KENDALL (Superintendent, Indianapolis, Ind.);

F. T. OLDT (Superintendent, Dubuque, Ia.);

A. W. RANKIN (State Inspector of Schools, Minneapolis, Minn.);

Special Committee of the Department of Superintendence.

On behalf of our respective State Associations, we heartily avail ourselves of the privilege kindly accorded to us of indorsing the above letter.

DAVID FLEMLEY (President State Normal, Normal, Ill.)

Chairman Illinois Committee on Simplification of Spelling.

R. H. HALSEY (President State Normal, Oshkosh, Wis.),

Chairman Wisconsin Committee on Simplification of Spelling.

J. F. MILLSPAUGH (formerly President State Normal, Winona, Minn., and Chairman Minnesota Committee on Simplification of Spelling; now President State Normal, Los Angeles, Cal.).

C. W. G. HYDE (Editor School Education, Minneapolis),

Chairman Minnesota Committee on Simplification of Spelling.

RESOLUTIONS TO BE SUBMITTED FOR CONSIDERATION BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION

REGULAR MEETING 5:30 P. M., MONDAY, JUNE 27, 1904, LIBRARY HALL, MISSOURI BUILDING, EXPOSITION GROUNDS, ST. LOUIS

WHEREAS, The Department of Superintendence of the National Educational Association, the State Teachers' Associations of Illinois, Wisconsin, and Minnesota, together with many other educational bodies and a large number of our active members and of other prominent persons, have memorialized this board to create a permanent committee, and to provide it with a limited contingent fund, for the purpose of promoting and directing the movement to simplify our English spelling; therefore

PLAN A

Resolved, (1) That this Board hereby invites and constitutes the persons hereinafter named to be a Commission on the Simplification of Our English Spelling, under the following terms and conditions:

1. This commission is established to labor, directly or indirectly, with discretion and patience, and with persistence lasting thru generations, if need be, to induce our people gradually, but as rapidly as wise and scholarly leadership may render possible, to adopt such changes in our spelling as shall ultimately reduce it to a simple, regular, phonetic basis, so that all our words shall be spelled as they are pronounced, with one sound for each sign and one sign for each sound.

2. This commission shall consist of the following persons, or of so many of them as shall accept their appointment within thirty days after receiving notice thereof:

(A list of thirty or more persons, prominent as educators, writers, scholars, business men, etc., and representing different sections of the country, will be nominated for consideration by the board as soon as this resolution and its constituent sections are adopted.)

3. The commission shall organize by electing a president, a vice-president, and an executive board from its membership, and also a secretary and a treasurer, who may be members of the commission or not.

4. The commission shall be free to make its own rules for the conduct of its business; to determine its policy and methods; to increase or decrease the number of its members; to elect honorary members; to fill all vacancies that may arise in its membership; to affiliate other organizations with it in its efforts and work; to become a corporate body, and to hold and administer bequests or other funds for the best interests of the cause which it is created to serve; and to do any and all other acts which its judgment may approve as tending to promote the simplifying of our spelling.

5. The commission shall keep a record of all receipts and disbursements, which shall be open to inspection at all suitable times by any officer of the National Educational Association or by any regular contributor to its funds. It shall make an annual report to the Secretary of the National Educational Association covering the general features of its work for the year ending June 30, which report shall be published, at the discretion of the Executive Committee of the National Educational Association, in the volume of Proceedings.

6. The members of the commission shall serve without compensation, excepting the one who may be chosen to act as secretary or agent, who shall receive an appropriate salary. The actual expense incurred by any member in performance of any service to which he was duly appointed may be reimbursed to him.

Resolved, (2) That beginning July 1, 1904, there is hereby appropriated from the current revenues of this Association, for the use of said commission, the sum of $10,000, or so much thereof as shall be available after the regular expenses of this meeting are paid, and as shall never exceed the amount contributed from other sources for the use of the commission, said $10,000 or portion of it to be paid to the commission in ten semi-annual installments, each equal to, but never exceeding, the amount contributed during the same period, as above indicated.

PLAN B

Resolved, (1) That a permanent Committee on the Simplification of Our English Spelling is hereby established as one of the activities of the National Educational Association, under the following terms and conditions:

1. This committee is established to labor, etc. (same as in Plan A).

2. This committee shall consist of the following persons, or so many of them as shall accept their appointment and become active members of the National Educational Association, if not already such, within thirty days after receiving notice of said appointment.

(A list, etc. [same as in Plan A].)

3. The committee shall organize by electing a chairman, a vice-chairman, a secretary, and an executive board. The secretary need not be a member of the committee, but he must be or become, within thirty days after his election, an active member of the National Educational Association. The Treasurer of the National Educational Association shall act as treasurer of the committee, and as such he shall account for all money placed in his hands for the use of said committee.

4. The committee shall be free to make its own rules for the conduct of its business; to determine its policy and methods; to invite, in the name of the National Educational Association, scientific, literary and other organizations to join with it in its work; to increase or decrease the number of its members; and to fill all vacancies that may arise in its membership, providing that any person elected as a member shall be an active member of the National Educational Association or become such within thirty days after notice of his election. The committee shall make an annual report to the secretary of the National Educational Association covering the general features of its work for the year ending June 30, which shall be printed in the annual volume of Proceedings.

5. The trustees of the National Educational Association are hereby authorized and requested to act as trustees for the Committee on Simplification of Spelling, and to receive and administer gifts and bequests made in its behalf.

6. The members of the committee shall serve without compensation, excepting the one who may be chosen to act as secretary or agent, who shall receive an appropriate salary, to be fixed by the committee and paid from its fund. The actual expense incurred by any member of the committee in the performance of any service to which he was duly appointed may be reimbursed to him from the funds of the committee.

Resolved, (2) That beginning July 1, 1904, there is hereby appropriated from the current revenues of this Association for the use of said committee the sum of, etc. (as in Plan A).

Mr. Cox stated that he was authorized to present this communication in behalf of the committee in the absence of the chairman, Mr. W. H. Elson, of Michigan, who was unable to be present. He further supported the communication and application with an argument for its favorable consideration and disposition, making reference to the expression of a large number of the active members of the Association which had been made strongly favoring the application of the committee.

An informal discussion followed, in which attention was called to the custom of the Board of Directors of referring applications for appropriations to the National Council for investigation and recommendation.

Director F. B. Cooper, of Washington, moved that the application be referred to the National Council of Education, with the request that it be considered, and recommendation thereon be made by its Committee on Investigations and Appropriations; seconded by Director A. S. Downing, of New York.

EDWIN B. COX: With your permission, Mr. President, and the permission of the Board of Directors, I wish simply to make inquiry with regard to the particular functions and duties, under the constitution of the Association, of this Committee on Appropriations of the Council, or of the Council itself, with reference to a question of this nature.

DIRECTOR NICHOLAS MURRAY BUTLER: Mr. President, may I be permitted to answer that question? At the Washington meeting, in 1898, this board adopted a resolution covering this matter which it may at any time repeal if it so desires. This resolution provided that, in view of the large number of applications for appropriations which were annually coming before the board, all such applications should be referred to the National Council of Education for an expression of opinion as to the wisdom of such appropriations. The National Council thereupon constituted a standing committee, consisting of nine members, whose duty it should be to consider and report to that body on all applications for appropriations. Last year the business of the Council became so heavy, and the number of important requests to be considered and reported upon in a very short time so large, that the Council adopted a rule requiring a certain notice of application to be given in advance of the annual meeting. My understanding is that the rule has been complied with in the present case; so, to answer the question of my friend from Ohio, the pending motion to refer the application to the Council for recommendation is simply in accord with the procedure adopted by the board to govern the consideration of all requests for appropriations.

DIRECTOR J. M. GREENWOOD: Supplementing what Director Butler has stated, permit me to say that under the pending motion (if passed) the application of the Committee on Amended Spelling will go to the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations of the Council, which will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, in the lecture-room of the Education Building; that all papers referring to this question will come up for consideration and discussion before this committee; and that the application presented by Mr. Cox will be then considered, in accordance with the usual form. On page 16 of the Official Program of this convention will be found the rule of the Council governing such business. As chairman of the Committee of the Council on Investigations and Appropriations, I wish at this time to invite Mr. Cox, and all others interested in these matters, to be present at the meeting of the committee.

Mr. EDWIN B. COX: The explanations given by Directors Butler and Greenwood are entirely satisfactory. As a member of the committee of the Department of Superintendence having this matter in charge, and as the representative of the chairman of that committee, I desire to say that I am perfectly willing, on behalf of the committee, to submit the application of the Department of Superintendence to the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations of the National Council, as provided in the pending motion.

Action was then taken on the motion, and the same was adopted without dissent.

Following this action, in answer to a question by Mr. Cox, explanation was made by President Cook, as follows: In accordance with the usual order, the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations will report its action to the National Council. The National Council will then report to the new Board of Directors, which will meet in this room on Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, and this new Board of Directors will take action on the recommendation of the Council.

The Secretary reported the receipt of a communication from Mr. H. Delmar French, an active member of the Association, on the subject of spelling reform, which he desired to have referred to whatever committee should be appointed to consider that subject. The letter of Mr. French and the accompanying documents were, on motion of Director A. S. Downing, of New York, referred to the Council to be considered with the application of the committee of the Department of Superintendence.

After various announcements by the Secretary, the meeting adjourned.

IRWIN SHEPARD, Secretary.

MINUTES OF THE MEETING OF THE NEW BOARD OF DIRECTORS FOR 1904-1905

ST. LOUIS, MO., JUNE 30, 1904

The new Board of Directors of the National Educational Association met in the Model Library Room of the Missouri Building, Exposition grounds, at 4:30 P. M., June 30, 1904.

The meeting was called to order by First Vice-President John W. Cook, who presided in the absence of the president-elect.

John W. Cook, Illinois; Albert G. Lane, Illinois; Irwin Shepard, Minnesota; Nicholas Murray Butler, New York; James H. Canfield, New York; Aaron Gove, Colorado; J. M. Green, New Jersey; J. M. Greenwood, Missouri; W. T. Harris, District of Columbia; T. Marcellus Marshall, West Virginia; Joshua Pike, Illinois; F. Louis Soldan, Missouri; A. R. Taylor, Illinois; A. H. Chamberlain, California; Miss Clem Hampton, Florida; W. F. Slaton, Georgia; May L. Scott, Idaho; J. A. Mercer, Illinois; T. A. Mott, Indiana; J. D. Benedict, Indian Territory; A. V. Storm, Iowa; J. W. Spindler, Kansas; S. L. Frogge, Kentucky; John S. Locke, Maine; M. Bates Stephens, Maryland; W. F. Kunze, Minnesota; R. B. Fulton, Mississippi; Ben Blewett, Missouri; R. G. Young, Montana; George L. Towne, Nebraska; A. S. Downing, New York; Lydia Yates, North Carolina; E. D. Lyon, Ohio; A. R. Hickam, Oklahoma; E. J. Johns, Jr., Tennessee; Alex. Hogg, Texas; A. C. Nelson, Utah; L. D. Harvey, Wisconsin; Estelle Reel, Wyoming.

Number of directors present, thirty-nine.

On motion of Director J. M. Green, of New Jersey, it was ordered that the reading of the minutes of the last meeting be dispensed with, and that they be printed in the volume of Proceedings.

The next order of business being the election of a member of the Board of Trustees to fill the vacancy occasioned by the expiration of the term of service of Newton C. Dougherty, of Illinois, a motion was made and unanimously carried that Trustee Dougherty be elected to succeed himself for the term of four years.

On motion, Director W. T. Harris, United States Commissioner of Education, was elected to succeed himself as a member of the Executive Committee for the term of one year.

The Secretary reported the receipt of a communication from the National Council, accompanied by a copy of a detailed report to the Council by the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations of that body.

At the request of the president, the communication was read, as follows:

ROOM OF THE NATIONAL COUNCIL, N. E. A.,
St. Louis, Mo., June 30, 1904.

Irwin Shepard, Secretary of the Board of Directors of the National Educational Association:

DEAR SIR: By direction of the National Council of Education, I herewith transmit a series of resolutions numbered 1, 2, and 3, for the consideration of the Board of Directors. The resolutions Nos. 2 and 3 embody the recommendations of the Council on a general plan and policy proposed for governing all matters of appropriations of money for committees of investigation, and for other purposes; and also the recommendations of the Council of certain appropriations to committees of investigations for the ensuing year.

Accompanying these resolutions and for the information of the Board of Directors is a copy of the full report of the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations of the Council, and a copy of a resolution (No. 4) which is submitted as a report of progress on the application for an appropriation by the Committee of the Department of Superintendence on the subject of Reformed Spelling, which was referred to the Council for recommendation by the old Board of Directors at its meeting held Monday, June 27, of the present week.

Respectfully yours,

(Signed) JAMES H. VAN SICKLE,
Secretary of the National Council.

RESOLUTIONS NOS. 1, 2, AND 3, TRANSMITTED BY THE COUNCIL

[NOS. 2 AND 3 BEING RECOMMENDED FOR ADOPTION BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS]

1. Resolved, That the report of the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations made under date of June 29, 1904, be accepted and its recommendations adopted.

2. Resolved, That the Board of Directors of the National Educational Association be requested to adopt the following rules of procedure to govern all appropriations:

(a) All appropriations for whatever purpose are chargeable against the current income of the Association for the year in which they are made. Unexpended balances will be covered into the treasury at the close of the fiscal year.

(b) When circumstances require, unexpended balances will be re-appropriated either in whole or in part, for the purposes for which they were originally made.

(c) All appropriations for special purposes shall be made subject to the requirements of the conduct of the ordinary business of the Association, including the salary of the Secretary and the expenses of his office, the expenses of the Executive Committee, the publication and distribution of the volume of Proceedings, and the usual miscellaneous and incidental expenses.

(d) When the current income of the fiscal year is more than sufficient to meet the cost of the conduct of the ordinary business of the Association, then appropriations for special purposes shall become available in the order in which they are voted by the Board of Directors.

3. Resolved, That the Board of Directors of the National Educational Association be requested to make the following appropriations for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1904:

(a) The unexpended balance of the appropriation of $1,500 made July 9, 1903—namely, $1 109.29—and additional appropriation of $1,500, for the committee to inquire and report to the Council upon the Salaries, Tenure of Office, and Pension Provisions of Public-School Teachers of the United States.

(b) The unexpended balance of the appropriation of $1,000 made July 10, 1902—namely, $709.25—for the committee to inquire and report to the Council upon Taxation for School Purposes in the United States.

(c) The unexpended balance of the appropriation of $500 made July 9, 1903—namely, $312.05—and an additional appropriation of $500, for the committee to inquire and report to the Council upon Industrial Education in Schools in Rural Communities.

(d) The sum of $900 as a contribution toward the expenses of the Committee of Five authorized by the Department of Superintendence, February 25, 1903, to confer with the committees of other associations in regard to a Universal System of Key Notation for Indicating Pronunciation and to recommend a Phonetic Alphabet.

RESOLUTION NO. 4

SUBMITTED BY THE COUNCIL FOR THE INFORMATION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Resolved, That the president of the Council be authorized and instructed to invite Calvin Thomas, of New York; George Hempl, of Michigan; Homer H. Seerley, of Iowa; and Charles M. Jordan, of Minnesota, together with the President of the National Educational Association for 1904-5, when elected, to advise the Council and their Committee on Investigations and Appropriations, not later than June 1, 1905, upon the questions stated in paragraph 7 of the report (the report of the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations. See minutes of the National Council for copy of the report).

Director A. V. Storm, of Iowa, moved that resolutions Nos. 2 and 3 be adopted as recommended by the Council of Education; seconded.

In answer to questions, Director J. M. Greenwood, chairman of the Committee of the Council on Investigations and Appropriations, explained that the effect of the resolutions, if adopted, would be that all future appropriations would be made for the current year only, and that they would become available only after the fixed expenses of the Association had been provided for.

A discussion followed on the subject of resolution No. 4, which was ruled out of order, since only resolutions Nos. 2 and 3 were included in the pending motion for adoption.

On motion of Director W. F. Kunze, of Minnesota, it was ordered that action on the two resolutions before the directors be taken separately.

Resolution No. 2 was then stated as before the directors for consideration.

After brief discussion, the vote was taken on resolution No. 2 and carried unanimously.

At this point President Cook withdrew to take charge of the vesper meeting at Festival Hall, appointing Director L. D. Harvey, of Wisconsin, to preside in his absence.

Resolution No. 3 was then stated as before the directors for consideration.

A discussion followed as to the scope of the work of the Committee on the Economic Status of the Teacher, in the course of which explanations were made by Director J. M.

Greenwood as to the scope and importance of the work of the committee in question, and by Director W. T. Harris as to the relations of that work to the work of the National Bureau of Education at Washington, in which both Directors Harris and Greenwood urged that the appropriation for the committee be continued and increased. The motion on the adoption of resolution No. 3, being put to the board, was carried without dissent.

Inquiry was then made as to the meaning of resolution No. 4, which was transmitted to the Council as a report of progress on the question referred to it by the former Board of Directors at its meeting June 27; viz., an application by a committee from the Department of Superintendence for the appointment of a Commission on the Simplification of Our English Spelling, and an appropriation for its expenses. After explanations had been made, resolution No. 4 was, on motion, received as a report of progress on the matter under consideration by the Council.

Directors A. G. Lane, of Illinois, Aaron Gove, of Colorado, and T. A. Mott, of Indiana, were appointed a Committee on the Nomination of Members of the National Council to fill vacancies occasioned by expiration of term of office and for other reasons. This committee was excused to prepare its report.

On motion of Director W. F. Kunze, of Minnesota, the sum of $400 was appropriated for the special expenses of the Department of Superintendence for its meeting to be held in Milwaukee, Wis., in February, 1905.

The next order of business was the consideration of invitations for the place of meeting for the forty-fourth convention in 1905. The chair requested the Secretary to call the roll of states in alphabetical order with the direction that invitations be presented in the order of the roll-call.

Under the call a communication was read by the secretary from W. C. Radcliffe, secretary of the Convention Bureau of the city of Detroit, Mich., affiliated with the Detroit Board of Commerce, inviting the Association to hold its convention for 1905 in the city of Detroit.

Director John Enright, of New Jersey, presented a formal invitation from the mayor and council of the city of Asbury Park, N. J., supported by the Board of Education, the Board of Trade, the Hotel-Keepers' Association, and other organizations, that the convention for 1905 be held in that city.

The Secretary read an invitation from C. P. Thomas, president of the Business Men's Association at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., inviting the Association to meet in that city in 1905.

An invitation was presented by the city of Portland, Ore., and the authorities of the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition Company, supported by the educational and business organizations of Portland and the state of Oregon, to hold the next convention in that city in connection with the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition, with relations to the Exposition similar to those under which the forty-third convention is held in St. Louis in connection with the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

This invitation was supported by Colonel Henry E. Dosch, commissioner-general and director of exhibits, representing the city of Portland and the exposition authorities, and Mr. A. L. Craig, general passenger agent of the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company, in behalf of the transcontinental railway companies.

At the close of the roll-call, on a motion by Director A. S. Downing, of New York, it was carried by unanimous vote that all invitations be referred to the Executive Committee with full power to select the next place of meeting, and to make all necessary arrangements with local and transportation authorities for the next convention.

The Committee on Nominations to fill vacancies in the Council reported as follows:

To the Board of Directors of the National Educational Association:

Your committee respectfully nominates the following to fill vacancies in the membership of the National Council to be elected by the Association, viz.:

F. Louis Soldan of Missouri, to succeed himself, term to expire 1910.

L. D. Harvey of Wisconsin, to succeed himself, term to expire 1910.

R. H. Halsey of Wisconsin, to succeed himself, term to expire 1910.

C. G. Pearse of Wisconsin, to succeed himself, term to expire 1910.

John W. Cook of Illinois, to succeed R. G. Boone, term to expire 1910.

Your committee finds a vacancy, by reason of the absence from two successive meetings, of James A. Foshay, of California, and recommends that Mr. Foshay be transferred to the honorary list, and that the vacancy be filled by the appointment of C. N. Kendall, of Indiana, for the remainder of the term to expire 1906.

Respectfully submitted,

A. G. LANE,

AARON GOVE,

T. A. MOTT,

Committee.

On motion, the report of the committee was received, and the secretary was instructed, by unanimous vote to cast the ballot of the directors for the nominees named in the report.

The Secretary reported the ballot as so cast, and the chairman declared the nominees elected to membership in the Council.

There being no further business, on motion, the board adjourned.

IRWIN SHEPARD, Secretary.

NATIONAL COUNCIL OF EDUCATION

CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

The National Council of Education shall have for its object the consideration and discussion of educational questions of general interest and public importance, and the presentation, thru printed reports, of the substance of the discussions and the conclusions formulated. It shall be its object to reach and disseminate correct thinking on educational questions; and, for this purpose, it shall be the aim of the Council, in conducting its discussions, to define and state with accuracy the different views and theories on the subject under consideration, and, secondly, to discover and represent fairly the grounds and reasons for each theory or view, so far as to show, as completely as possible, the genesis of opinion on the subject. It shall be the duty of the Council, in pursuance of this object, to encourage from all its members the most careful statement of differences in opinion, together with the completest statement of grounds for the same. It shall further require the careful preservation and presentation of the individual differences of opinion, whenever grounds have been furnished for the same by members of the Council. It shall invite the freest discussion and embody the new suggestions developed by such discussions. Any member making such suggestion or objection may put in writing his view, and the grounds therefor, and furnish the same to the secretary for the records of the Council. It shall prepare, thru its president, an annual report to the National Educational Association, setting forth the questions considered by the Council during the previous year, and placing before the Association, in succinct form, the work accomplished. It shall embody in this report a survey of those educational topics which seem to call for any action on the part of the Association. The Council shall appoint, out of its own number, committees representing the several departments of education, and thereby facilitate the exchange of opinion among its members on such special topics as demand the attention of the profession or of the public.

ARTICLE I—MEMBERSHIP

1. The National Council of Education shall consist of sixty members, selected from the membership of the National Educational Association. Any member of the Association identified with educational work is eligible to membership in the Council, and, after the first election, such membership shall continue for six years, except as hereinafter provided.

2. In the year 1885 the Board of Directors shall elect eight members—four members for six years, two for four years, and two for two years, and the Council shall elect eight members—five members for six years, two for four years, and one for two years; and annually thereafter the Board of Directors shall elect five members and the Council five members, each member, with the exception hereinafter provided for (sec. 5), to serve six years, or until his successor is elected.

3. The annual election of members of the Council shall be held in connection with the annual meetings of the Association. If the Board of Directors shall fail, for any reason, to fill its quota of members annually, the vacancy or vacancies shall be filled by the Council.

4. The term of service of the several members of the Council chosen at the first election shall be arranged by the Executive Committee of the Council.

5. The absence of a member from two consecutive annual meetings of the Council shall be considered equivalent to resignation of membership, and the Council shall fill vacancies caused by absence from the Council as herein defined, as well as vacancies caused by death or resignation, for the unexpired term. All persons who have belonged to the Council shall, on the expiration of their membership, become honorary members, with the privilege of attending its regular sessions and participating in its discussions. No state shall be represented in the Council by more than eight members.

ARTICLE II—QUALIFICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

All members of the Council shall be either life or active members of the National Educational Association.

ARTICLE III—MEETINGS

There shall be a regular annual meeting of the Council held at the same place as the meeting of the National Educational Association, and at least two days previous to this meeting. There may be special meetings of the Council, subject to the call of the Executive Committee, but the attendance at these meetings shall be entirely voluntary. A majority of the Council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting, whether regular or called; but any less number, exceeding eight members, may constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the regular annual meeting, as defined in this article.

ARTICLE IV—THE WORK OF THE COUNCIL

The Council shall, from time to time, undertake to initiate, conduct, and guide the thoro investigation of important educational questions originating in the Council; also to conduct like investigations originating in the National Educational Association, or any of its departments, and requiring the expenditure of funds.

ARTICLE V—THE APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEES AND EXPERTS

In the appointment of special committees, and in the selection of writers and speakers, it shall be the privilege of the Council to appoint such experts, whether members of the Council or not, as are deemed best qualified to conduct investigations.

ARTICLE VI—OFFICERS¹

At the annual election of officers in 1904 the president of the Council shall be elected for a term of three years, the vice-president for a term of two years, and the secretary for a term of one year; and thereafter annually the vacancy caused by the outgoing officers shall be filled by the election of one person for a term of three years.

It shall be the duty of the president of the Council to prepare, with the assistance and approval of the Executive Committee, such a program for the annual meeting as shall realize as fully as practicable the purposes for which the Council was organized and exists.

ARTICLE VII—STANDING COMMITTEES

1. There shall be four standing committees: an Executive Committee, a Committee on Membership, a Committee on Educational Progress, and a Committee on Investigations and Appropriations.

2. The Executive Committee shall be composed of the president of the Council and of three others members, whose terms of office shall be so arranged that one new member may be chosen each year, beginning with the year 1899.

¹As amended July 1, 1904. (See Minutes.)

3. It shall be the duty of the Executive Committee to provide an annual program by selecting, whenever feasible, subjects for investigation, and appointing committees to conduct such investigations. It shall be the duty of the Executive Committee to carry out the provisions contained in this constitution referring to volunteer and invited papers. It shall be the duty of the Executive Committee to provide a place on the program for the report on any investigation which may be ordered by the National Educational Association or its departments.

4. The Committee on Membership shall be composed of the president of the Council and six other members, whose terms of office shall be so arranged that two vacancies may be filled every year, beginning with 1899.

5. There shall be appointed annually a committee of one to submit, at the next meeting, a report on "Educational Progress During the Past Year," in which a survey of the important movements and events in education during the preceding year is given. This committee need not be selected from the members of the Council.

6. The Committee on Investigations and Appropriations shall be composed of nine members, whose terms of office shall be so arranged that three vacancies may be filled each year, beginning with 1903. No proposal to appoint a committee to undertake an educational investigation of any kind, and no proposal to ask the Board of Directors of the Association for an appropriation for any purpose, shall be acted upon until such proposal has been referred to this Committee on Investigations and Appropriations for report.

ARTICLE VIII—THE DUTIES OF THE COUNCIL

1. It shall be the duty of the Council to further the objects of the National Educational Association, and to use its best efforts to promote the cause of education in general.

2. The meetings of the Council shall be, for the most part, of a "round table" character.

ARTICLE IX—AMENDMENTS

This constitution may be altered or amended at a regular meeting of the Council, by a two-thirds vote of the members present, and any provision may be waived at any regular meeting by unanimous consent.

By-laws not in violation of the constitution may be adopted by a two-thirds vote of the Council.

SECRETARY'S MINUTES

FIRST SESSION.—MONDAY, JUNE 27, 1904, 2:30 P. M.

The Council met in the Lecture Room of the Court of the Education Building, and was called to order by the president, Frank A. Fitzpatrick.

The first paper of the session was presented by Howard J. Rogers, chief of the Department of Education, and director of the Congresses of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, on the subject "The Lessons of the Exposition." This paper was discussed briefly by F. Louis Soldan and Calvin M. Woodward.

N. G. W. Lagerstedt, Swedish commissioner to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, read a paper on "The Swedish Educational Exhibit and its Relation to the Schools of Sweden."

He was followed by M. Matsumura, councilor of the Imperial Department of Japan, with a paper on "The Japanese Exhibit and its Relation to Education in Japan."

On motion of William R. Harper, a committee was appointed to consider what changes, if any, ought to be made in the order of the work of the Council.

The president named as members of the committee William R. Harper, Aaron Gove, and R. H. Halsey.

The president appointed a Committee on Nominations, as follows: F. Louis Soldan, N. C. Dougherty, L. C. Greenlee.

SECOND SESSION.—WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 2:30 P. M.

The Council was called to order at the appointed hour by the President.

J. M. Greenwood submitted the report of the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations, as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON INVESTIGATIONS AND APPROPRIATIONS

(SUBMITTED JUNE 29, 1904)

To the National Council:

The Committee on Investigations and Appropriations beg leave to submit the following report upon matters which have been before them for consideration:

1. The committee desire to call the attention of the Council and that of the Board of Directors to the necessity of formulating careful rules of procedure to govern the making of all appropriations, in order that the conduct of the business of the Association may not be embarrassed or confused. The fiscal year of the Association ends on June 30, and it is important, in the judgment of the committee, that all appropriations made for any purpose should be chargeable against current income only, and that unexpended balances should be covered into the treasury on June 30 of each year. Where circumstances require, these unexpended balances may be reappropriated, and so made a charge upon the current income of the succeeding year without confusing the Treasurer's accounts.

The committee recommend that the Council ask the Board of Directors to adopt the following rules of procedure to govern all appropriations:

I. All appropriations for whatever purpose are chargeable against the current income of the Association for the year in which they are made; current income to be held to include any cash balance in the Treasurer's hands. Unexpended balances will be covered into the treasury at the close of the fiscal year.

II. When circumstances require, unexpended balances may be reappropriated either in whole or in part for the purpose for which the original appropriation was made.

III. All appropriations for special purposes shall be made subject to the requirements of the conduct of the ordinary business of the Association, including the salary of the Secretary and the expenses of his office, the expenses of the Executive Committee, the publication and distribution of the volume of Proceedings, and the usual miscellaneous and incidental expenses.

IV. When the current income of any fiscal year is more than sufficient to meet the cost of the conduct of the ordinary business of the Association, then appropriations for special purposes shall become available in the order in which they are voted by the Board of Directors.

2. The investigation undertaken to determine the economic condition of public-school teachers thruout the United States has been successfully begun during the year by the committee of which Carroll D. Wright, United States Commissioner of Labor, is chairman, and a preliminary report has been made. Only a small portion of the appropriation of $1,500 made for the use of this committee has been drawn upon during the year, as the elaborate task of tabulating and interpreting the statistics which are being gathered is yet to be entered upon. The committee hope to be able to submit a final report within the next few months. We recommend that the unexpended balance of the appropriation made one year ago for the use of this committee—namely, $1,109.29—be reappropriated for its use during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1904, and that in addition thereto the further sum of $1,500 be appropriated to enable this committee to complete their investigation and report.

3. At the meeting of the Association held at Minneapolis in 1902 a committee was appointed to make a report on taxation for school purposes, and the sum of $1,000 was appropriated to meet the cost of this inquiry. (See volume of Proceedings, pp. 313 and 34.) Of this amount but $290.75 has been expended. The committee are still at work and hope to report at the next annual meeting of the Council. We recommend that the unexpended balance of the appropriation made at Minneapolis—namely, $709.25—be reappropriated for the use of this committee.

4. At the meeting of the Association held at Boston in 1903 a committee was appointed to make a report upon the subject of industrial education in schools in rural communities. The sum of $500 was appropriated for the use of this committee. (See volume of Proceedings, pp. 36 and 37.) It is expected that this committee will report at the next annual meeting of the Council. Of the original appropriation but $187.95 has been expended. We recommend that the unexpended balance of the appropriation made one year ago for the use of this committee—namely, $312.05—be reappropriated for its use during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1904, and that, in addition thereto, the further sum of $500 be appropriated to enable this committee to complete its investigation and report.

5. At the meeting of the Department of Superintendence held at Cincinnati in 1903 a committee of five was authorized to seek the co-operation of like committees from the Modern Language Association and the American Philological Association "to consider the need and possibility of a universal system of key notation for indicating pronunciation, and to recommend for the indorsement of the societies such a system, or at least a simple, practical phonetic alphabet as the universal basis of such a system." The co-operation sought for was obtained, and the joint conference of scholars and teachers has completed its work and has prepared a report which is now in the press. Expenses have been incurred which amount in all to, approximately, $400. Of this amount it is expected that the National Educational Association will contribute one-half, on the understanding that the remainder will be contributed by the two societies of scholars whose co-operation was sought. We recommend that the sum of $200 be appropriated by the National Educational Association to meet one-half of the cost of the work undertaken by the conference named.

6. We do not deem it advisable to recommend at this time that investigations be undertaken in regard to any one of the following matters, all of which have been urged upon the favorable attention of the committee:

I. Work in physics done in classes not preparing for college and work of a second year in physics, recommended by the Natural Science Department, June 28, 1904.

II. The courses of study in art schools offering applied-art training and allied topics, recommended by the Department of Art Education, July 10, 1903. (See volume of Proceedings, p. 666.)

III. "The Waywardness of children and their treatment in the juvenile court, institutes of charity and correction, at home and in school," as recommended by a committee of the Department of Child Study under authority of a resolution adopted July 9, 1903. (See volume of Proceedings, p. 754.)

IV. The formulation of contemporary educational doctrine by an existing committee of eleven which has submitted to the committee a report upon the specific topics named in a supplementary report of the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations, submitted July 9, 1903. (See volume of Proceedings, p. 309.)

7. There was referred to the Council, for the consideration of this committee, by the Board of Directors, a communication from a special committee from the Department of Superintendence, authorized at the meeting held at Atlanta, Ga., February 24, 1904, asking for favorable action upon one of two alternative plans to promote by the influence and the funds of the National Educational Association the simplified spelling of the English language. The communication bore the formal indorsement of representatives of the Illinois, Wisconsin, and Minnesota commissions on simplification of spelling, and was supported by a petition signed by 1,545 active members of the Association, as well as by numerous associations of principals and others. (See accompanying Exhibit B.)

Because of the manifest importance of this communication, and because of the number and authority of those who have signed and indorsed it, the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations have given to it careful and detailed consideration. As the result of this consideration we are unanimously of the opinion that, assuming the importance of simplified spelling and the cogency of the arguments advanced in its support, neither of the plans proposed would be an adequate, wise, or practicable method of promoting the cause of simplified spelling. Nevertheless, because of the interest manifested in this subject by so many active members of the Association, we are of opinion that the Council and your committee should seek expert advice upon the subject; and to that end we recommend that Calvin Thomas, Gebhard professor of the Germanic languages and literatures in Columbia University; George Hempl, professor of English philology in the University of Michigan—both of whom are past presidents of the Modern Language Association of America and scholars of distinction; Homer H. Seerley, president of the State Normal School, Cedar Falls Ia.; and Charles M. Jordan, superintendent of schools, Minneapolis, Minn.—both of whom are active members of the Association of long service, who have signed the petition which accompanies the communication referred to us; together with the President of the National Educational Association for 1904-5 when elected, as chairman, be invited to examine the communication, the petition, and accompanying documents, and to report to the chairman of the Council not later than June 1, 1905, upon the following points:

I. Is either Plan A or Plan B as submitted in the communication an adequate, wise, or practicable method of promoting the cause of simplified spelling?

II. If so, which of the alternative plans is preferable?

III. If not, will this Committee of Five outline some other mode of procedure which commends itself to their judgment?

IV. Does the Committee of Five advise the National Educational Association to lend its moral support or to contribute from its funds to any one of the plans suggested for the promotion of simplified spelling?

8. In view of the fact that the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations was instituted not only to advise the Council upon projects submitted to it by other bodies, but also to initiate plans for educational investigations and report them to the Council, we take pleasure in reporting that we have constituted a subcommittee, consisting of Messrs. Fitzpatrick, Harper, and Brown, to report to the full Committee on Investigations and Appropriations at their early convenience a plan or plans for suitable and worthy educational investigations to be favorably reported to the Council.

Appropriate resolutions are attached to this report.

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. GREENWOOD, Chairman.

St. Louis, Mo., June 29, 1904.

The foregoing report was accepted, and the following resolutions were offered and adopted without objection, viz.:

1. Resolved, That the report of the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations made under date of June 29, 1904, be accepted and its recommendations adopted.

2. Resolved, That the Board of Directors of the National Educational Association be requested to adopt the following rules of procedure to govern all appropriations:

I. All appropriations for whatever purposes are chargeable against the current income of the Association for the year in which they are made. Unexpended balances will be covered into the treasury at the close of the fiscal year.

II. When circumstances require, unexpended balances may be reappropriated, either in whole or in part, for the purposes for which they were originally made.

III. All appropriations for special purposes shall be made subject to the requirements of the conduct of the ordinary business of the Association, including the salary of the Secretary and the expenses of his office, the expenses of the Executive Committee, the publication and distribution of the volume of Proceedings, and the usual miscellaneous and incidental expenses.

IV. When the current income of any fiscal year is more than sufficient to meet the cost of the conduct of the ordinary business of the Association, then appropriations for special purposes shall become available in the order in which they are voted by the Board of Directors.

3. Resolved, That the Board of Directors of the National Educational Association be requested to make the following appropriations for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1904:

The unexpended balance of the appropriation of $1,500 made July 9, 1903—namely, $1,109.29—and additional appropriation of $1,500, for the committee to inquire and report to the Council upon the salaries, tenure of office, and pension provisions of public-school teachers of the United States.

The unexpended balance of the appropriation of $1,000 made July 10, 1902—namely, $709.25—for the committee to inquire and report to the Council upon taxation for school purposes in the United States.

The unexpended balance of the appropriation of $500 made July 9, 1903—namely, $312.05—and an additional appropriation of $500, for the committee to inquire and report to the Council upon industrial education in schools in rural communities.

The sum of $200 as a contribution toward the expenses of the Committee of Five authorized by the Department of Superintendence, February 25, 1903, to confer with committees of other associations in regard to a universal system of key notation for indicating pronunciation and to recommend a phonetic alphabet.

4. Resolved, That the president of the Council be authorized and instructed to invite Calvin Thomas, of New York; George Hempl, of Michigan; Homer H. Seerley, of Iowa; and Charles M. Jordan, of Minnesota, together with the President of the National Educational Association for 1904-5, when elected, as chairman, to advise the Council and its Committee on Investigations and Appropriations, not later than June 1, 1905, upon the questions stated in paragraph 7 of the foregoing report.

Elmer E. Brown asked whether the action of the Council on the request of the Committee of Eleven would have the effect of preventing future consideration of that request. The chairman of the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations was of the opinion that it might come up at any time under the head of "new business."

The president announced that John H. Finley, president of the College of the City of New York, who was to have given the report on the "Educational Progress of the Year," had found it impossible to prepare the report, and that this part of the program would have to be omitted.

THIRD SESSION.—THURSDAY, JUNE 30, 2:30 P. M.

MEMORIAL SESSION

The Council was called to order at the appointed hour by the president. Memorial addresses were presented and ordered printed as follows:

William Bramwell Powell, by John W. Cook, De Kalb, Ill.

Frank A. Hill, by William E. Hatch, New Bedford, Mass.

Reuben S. Bingham, by Frank B. Cooper, Seattle, Wash.

FOURTH SESSION.—FRIDAY, JULY 1, 2:30 P. M.

The Council was called to order by the president at the appointed hour.

The preliminary report of the Committee on Salaries, Tenure, and Pensions of Teachers was received and ordered printed.

Nicholas Murray Butler made an oral report of progress on behalf of the Committee on the Bureau of Education.

On motion of James H. Baker, the committee was requested to continue its work, and to communicate with the members of the Council as to the ways in which the members may aid the work of the committee.

Mr. Baker further moved that the Board of Directors be requested to renew the appropriation of $1,000 made last year for the work of the Committee on the Bureau of Education.

On motion of F. Louis Soldan, Mr. Baker's resolution was referred to the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations.

On motion of Mr. Butler, Mr. Baker was requested by the Council to present to the Association of State University Presidents and to the Association of Agricultural Colleges and Experimental Stations the views of the Council regarding the Bureau of Education and the action taken by the Council in reference thereto, and to invite the co-operation of those associations in such a manner as they may deem wise to give it.

L. D. Harvey, chairman of the committee to inquire and report concerning Industrial Education in Rural Schools, made an oral report of progress. The committee was continued and asked to report to the Council at its next meeting.

In the absence of Charles W. Eliot, chairman of the committee to define and report upon questions proposed by President Baker, of Colorado, Mr. Baker presented a report signed by the two members of that committee present at the meeting.

The chair ruled that the document could not be received, since only a minority of the members of the committee had made the report.

On motion of William M. Davidson, the communication was referred back to the committee for further consideration and report.

The report of the Committee on Proposed Changes in the Working Plans of the Council was then read by Mr. Gove, the secretary of the committee.

Members of the National Council:

Your committee, after consultation, conclude that definite formal recommendations are impracticable owing to the short time for such preparation. They beg, however, to make one positive recommendation today, reserving further report for the meeting next year.

The committee recommend that Art. VI of the Constitution of the Council be amended so that the opening paragraph shall read as follows:

"At the annual election of officers in 1904 the president of the Council shall be elected for a term of three years, the vice-president for a term of two years, and the secretary for a term of one year; and thereafter annually the vacancy caused by the outgoing officers shall be filled by the election of one person for a term of three years."

Your committee have informally discussed the following named subjects, and ask that the members of the Council, between now and the superintendent's meeting at Milwaukee, by correspondence, intimate changes, suggestions, or improvements in the constitution and organization of the Council, such as may occur to them, in order that the members of the committee may be able at that time to formulate a report to be presented to the Council at the next meeting.

1. The membership of the Council is now limited to sixty active members; with the list of honorary members the roll includes 175 people. Each one of these is subject to the rules, regulations, and privileges of the Council, with the exception that honorary members are barred from voting. Whether or not this membership is large enough is a fair subject for consideration.

2. The original plan of the Council, whereby standing committees were elected for the purpose of covering that part of the field included within the compass of the title of the respective committees, has received some attention, and the committee ask for opinions with regard to that feature.

3. And more important, as your committee believe, than others, is a written code or by-law distinctly defining the relations which exist between the Council of Education and the National Educational Association. Practical and important financial measures connected with the Association are now referred to the Council of Education. This, however, is a temporary expedient, which can be revoked at any hour by the Board of Directors.

Committee.	{	WILLIAM R. HARPER, Chairman.
		AARON GOVE.
		R. H. HALSEY.

On motion of J. M. Green, the report was received, and the particular clause making recommendations was adopted as an amendment to the constitution.

The following report of the Committee on Nominations was presented by the chairman and adopted by the Council:

To the National Council of Education:

The Committee on Nominations for officers and committees of the Council begs leave to present the following names:

For President—Elmer E. Brown, of California, for three years.

For Vice-President—Nathan C. Schaeffer, of Pennsylvania, for two years.

For Secretary—J. W. Carr, of Indiana, for one year.

For Members of the Executive Committee—Howard J. Rogers, of New York, for three years, to succeed Richard G. Boone, whose term of office expires; J. M. Greenwood, of Missouri, for one year, to succeed Nicholas Murray Butler, resigned.

For Members of the Committee on Membership—Charles D. McIver, of North Carolina, for three years, to succeed Augustus S. Downing, whose term expires; Livingston C. Lord, of Illinois, for three years, to succeed L. D. Harvey, whose term expires.

For Members of the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations—Edwin A. Alderman, of Virginia, for three years, to succeed himself; Augustus S. Downing, of New York, for three years, to succeed himself; Lorenzo D. Harvey, of Wisconsin, for three years, to succeed himself.

Respectfully submitted,

F. LOUIS SOLDAN, Chairman.

William T. Harris, chairman of the Committee on Membership, presented the following report, which was adopted:

To the National Council of Education:

Your Committee on Nominations of new members begs leave to report as follows: The following named members, whose terms of office expire with the present meeting, are recommended for reappointment for six years:

Anna Tolman Smith, of the District of Columbia.

Josephine Heermans, of Missouri.

J. H. Van Sickle, of Maryland.

N. C. Dougherty, of Illinois.

The following persons are recommended for appointment to fill vacancies for the balance of the terms of office of the following named members who have been, by the provisions of the constitution, transferred to the list of honorary members by reason of their absence for two consecutive annual meetings of the Council:

1. W. K. Fowler, of Nebraska, to fill the place of W. F. King, of Iowa, whose term expires in 1907.
 2. William E. Hatch, of New Bedford, Massachusetts, to fill the place of J. L. Spalding, of Illinois, whose term of office expires in 1907.
 3. George H. Martin, of Massachusetts, to fill the place of Frank A. Hill, late of the same state, deceased, his term to expire in 1906.
 4. To fill the place of Irwin Shepard, who resigns his active membership in the Council, his term expiring in 1906, they recommend J. N. Wilkinson, of Kansas.
 5. They recommend A. Ross Hill, of Missouri, for six years, to fill the place of John Dewey, absent for two years, and whose term expires the present year.
 6. They recommend to fill the place of Alexander Graham Bell, absent for two years, his term expiring in 1909, H. B. Frissell, of Virginia.
 7. L. E. Wolfe, of Texas, in place of O. T. Corson, of Ohio, whose term expires in 1908.
- All of which is respectfully submitted.

W. T. HARRIS.
ALBERT G. LANE.
AUGUSTUS S. DOWNING.
J. M. GREENWOOD.

On motion of Nicholas Murray Butler, the resolutions governing the order of business of the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations adopted by the Council at its meeting July 9, 1903, was amended to read as follows:

Resolved, That all applications for appropriations requiring the attention and consideration of the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations shall be placed in the hands of the Secretary of the National Educational Association at least sixty days prior to the regular meeting of the Council, with a full and detailed statement of the reasons for requesting the appropriation; and the Secretary of the National Educational Association shall forward a copy of such application to the president and secretary of the Council, and to each member of the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations; and be it further

Resolved, That the names of the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations, and notice of an hour set for the meeting thereof for hearing arguments, be printed as a part of the official program, and that the rule be printed in connection with such notice.

Mr. Butler made a statement of the work of the Committee on the Bureau of Education, and then tendered his resignation of the chairmanship of the committee.

On motion of Joseph Swain, Chairman Butler's resignation was accepted. The president then appointed William R. Harper as chairman of the committee.

Wm. T. Harris requested the Council to relieve him from service on the Committee on the Bureau of Education. The request was granted, and the president appointed L. D. Harvey to serve in his place.

The Committee on Resolutions presented the following report, which was adopted and ordered spread upon the minutes.

RESOLUTION COMMEMORATIVE

Be it resolved by the Council of the National Educational Association that in the death of William Bramwell Powell, Frank Alpine Hill, and Reuben S. Bingham this Council has lost three of its most highly esteemed and efficient members; the cause of education in the United States, three of its most active and loyal supporters; and the individual members of the Council mourn the earthly departure of friends and associates long tried and true.

J. H. PHILLIPS.
W. H. BARTHOLOMEW.
I. C. McNEILL.

Elmer E. Brown, the president-elect, was introduced by the retiring president.

A roll-call of members showed an attendance at the various sessions of the Council of forty.

JAMES H. VAN SICKLE, Secretary.

MINUTES OF DEPARTMENT MEETINGS

DEPARTMENT OF SUPERINTENDENCE

ATLANTA MEETING. 1904

FIRST DAY

MORNING SESSION.—TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1904

The department met in the Grand Opera House, and was called to order at 9:30 o'clock A. M. by President Henry P. Emerson, superintendent of schools, Buffalo, N. Y. Prayer was offered by Rev. Theron Rice, D.D.

Hon. Joseph M. Terrell, governor of Georgia, extended a cordial welcome on behalf of the people of the state. The secretary read a letter of greeting from Hon. Hoke Smith, chairman of the Local Committee, who was prevented by ill health from being present. Hon. William B. Merritt, state school commissioner of Georgia, extended greetings on behalf of the teachers of the state.

A response on behalf of the department was made by President Emerson.

"Education at the Universal Exposition, 1904," was discussed as follows:

1. "From the View-Point of the Chief of the Department": Howard J. Rogers, chief of the Department of Education, St. Louis, Mo.
2. "Exhibit of the United States Bureau of Education": W. T. Harris, United States Commissioner of Education, Washington, D. C.
3. "Some City Exhibits—Their Purpose and Plan": F. Louis Soldan, superintendent of instruction, public schools, St. Louis, Mo.; Andrew W. Edson, associate superintendent of schools, New York city.

The president announced a reception to the department by the governor of Georgia at the executive mansion, and another by the Federation of Women's Clubs at the Capital City Club.

The department then adjourned until 2 o'clock P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.—TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 23

At the opening of the session, W. F. Slaton, superintendent of schools, Atlanta, Ga., formally presented President Emerson with a gavel made by a little boy in the manual-training department of the Atlanta schools.

Two papers on "The Course of Study in Elementary and Secondary Schools" were read, the subtitles being as follows:

1. "The Superintendent's Influence on the Course of Study": William H. Elson, superintendent of schools, Grand Rapids, Mich.
2. "What Omissions Are Advisable in the Present Course of Study, and What Should Be the Basis for the Same?": Frank M. McMurtry, Teachers College, Columbia University, New York city.

The discussion which followed was based chiefly on Mr. McMurtry's paper, the speakers being E. H. Mark, superintendent of schools, Louisville, Ky.; J. H. Phillips, superintendent of schools, Birmingham, Ala.; Clinton S. Marsh, superintendent of schools, Auburn, N. Y.; Charles H. Keyes, superintendent of schools, Hartford, Conn.; Charles DeGarmo, Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.; Charles F. Carroll, superintendent of schools, Rochester, N. Y.; W. C. Martindale, superintendent of schools, Detroit, Mich.

F. D. Boynton, superintendent of schools, Ithaca, N. Y.; read a paper on "Athletics and Collateral Activities in Secondary Schools."

The president announced the following committees:

N. C. Dougherty, Peoria, Ill.	William H. Maxwell, New York, N. Y.
W. H. Small, Providence, R. I.	J. H. Phillips, Birmingham, Ala.
W. K. Fowler, Lincoln, Neb.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

J. W. Carr, Anderson, Ind.	S. A. Mynders, Nashville, Tenn.
G. R. Glenn, Atlanta, Ga.	C. G. Pearse, Omaha, Neb.
W. S. Parker, Boston, Mass.

EVENING SESSION.—TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 23

The evening was given to a "Symposium on the Educational Theories and Work of Herbert Spencer." Addresses were delivered by—

Hon. W. T. Harris, Commissioner of Education of the United States

John W. Cook, President of the National Educational Association

W. S. Sutton, professor of pedagogy, University of Texas, Austin, Tex.

A. E. Winship, editor of the Journal of Education, Boston, Mass.

W. Rose, professor of history and philosophy of education, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Tenn.

SECOND DAY

MORNING SESSION.—WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 24

The department convened at 9:30 A. M. with President Emerson in the chair.

"Educational Principles for the South," was discussed by—

1. Charles W. Dabney, president of University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Tenn.

2. Charles D. McIver, president of State Normal and Industrial College, Greensboro, N. C.

Lawton B. Evans, superintendent of schools, Augusta, Ga., read a paper on "The Factory Child." This paper was discussed by W. H. Maxwell, superintendent of schools, of the city of New York, and N. C. Schaeffer, state superintendent of schools of Pennsylvania.

BUSINESS SESSION

The following report of the special committee appointed last year to report what action the department can wisely take to co-operate with the State Teachers' Associations of Illinois and Wisconsin to promote the cause of simplified spelling, was submitted by W. H. Elson, chairman of the committee.

To the Department of Superintendence of the National Educational Association:

Your committee finds the philological scholarship of the world in perfect accord with the experience of teachers as to the need and desirability of rationalizing our spelling. The memorials addressed to this department by the state Associations of Illinois, Wisconsin, and Minnesota propose a plan which, it seems to us, the National Educational Association can most wisely adopt with a view to permanently placing this movement under auspices which, while effectively fostering it, will as effectively guard it against all radical and unwise steps. Therefore we recommend the adoption of the following resolutions by a separate vote on each:

Resolved:

1. That the Department of Superintendence approves the first of the resolutions addressed to it by the State Teachers' Associations of Illinois, Wisconsin, and Minnesota, and respectfully requests the Board of Directors to appoint a permanent, self-perpetuating committee of thirty prominent citizens in different walks of life, particularly scholars and educators, and representing the various sections of the country, to lead the movement for simplifying our spelling, and to promote its interests in all ways which they find feasible and deem wise.

2. That the Department of Superintendence approves the second of the resolutions addressed to it by the state associations of Illinois, Wisconsin, and Minnesota, and respectfully requests the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations of the National Council to recommend to the Board of Directors, and the department respectfully asks said board to make, the appropriation of $2,000 per year for five years, for the use of the above committee, to be paid to it semiannually, each payment to equal such a total sum as shall have been paid for the same purpose, within the preceding six months, to the treasurer of said committee by any individuals, teachers' associations, or any organizations, the amount paid by the National Educational Association never to exceed $2,000 in any one year, and never to exceed the sum contributed from outside sources during the previous six months.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. ELSON, Chairman, superintendent of schools, Grand Rapids, Mich.

EDWIN B. COX, superintendent of schools, Xenia, O.

C. N. KENDALL, superintendent of schools, Indianapolis, Ind.

F. T. OLDT, superintendent of schools, Dubuque, Iowa.

A. W. RANKIN, state inspector of graded schools, Minneapolis, Minn.

The adoption of the report was opposed by John MacDonald, of Kansas, and R. P. Halleck, of Kentucky; and was supported by W. H. Elson, of Michigan; E. O. Vaile, of Chicago, Ill.; Edwin B. Cox, of Ohio; and Thomas M. Balliett, of Springfield, Mass. A division of the question was called for. The first section was adopted by a vote of 116 to 28; the second, by a vote of 94 to 38.

The Committee on Nominations made the following report:

For President—E. G. Cooley, superintendent of schools, Chicago, Ill.

For First Vice-President—Lawton B. Evans, superintendent of schools, Augusta, Ga.

For Second Vice-President—J. W. Carr, superintendent of schools, Anderson, Ind.

For Secretary—Miss Evangeline E. Whitney, district superintendent of schools, New York city.

The nominees were elected by unanimous vote of the department.

The selection of a place of meeting for the next session was declared the next order of business. Milwaukee, Wis., and Columbus, Ohio, were proposed. The decision was made in favor of Milwaukee.

Carroll G. Pearce, superintendent of schools, Omaha, Neb., offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That in 1905 this department meet in Milwaukee, and each fourth year thereafter in such place as may be chosen by the department, or by its Executive Committee, if for any reason the department fails to make a choice.

That in 1906, and each second year thereafter, this department meet in Chicago.

That in 1907, and each fourth year thereafter, this department meet in Washington, D. C.

The department voted that the resolution be laid on the table.

The following motion, offered by J. M. Frost, of Michigan, was adopted:

That the special committee on the promotion of the cause of spelling reform be continued for one year, and that it be charged with the duty of presenting the action of this department to the Board of Directors of the National Educational Association, and to the committee in charge of investigations and appropriations.

E. O. Vaile, of Illinois, presented the following report which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON A UNIFORM SYSTEM OF KEY-NOTATION FOR INDICATING PRONUNCIATION

To the Department of Superintendence of the National Educational Association:

Your committee reports that the two other committees of conference contemplated in your resolutions were duly appointed, as follows:

COMMITTEE OF THE MODERN LANGUAGE ASSOCIATION

O. F. Emerson, professor of rhetoric and English philology, Western Reserve University.

Calvin Thomas, professor of Germanic languages, Columbia University.

George Hempl, professor of English philology and general linguistics, University of Michigan.

Edward S. Sheldon, professor of Romance languages, Harvard University.

C. G. Child, professor of English, University of Pennsylvania.

COMMITTEE OF THE AMERICAN PHILOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION

F. A. March, professor of the English language and of comparative philology, LaFayette College, Pennsylvania.

George Hempl, president of the Modern Language Association, and also of the American Philological Association.

Charles P. G. Scott, etymological editor of the Century Dictionary.

B. Perrin, professor of Greek, Yale University.

Benjamin Ide Wheeler, president of the University of California.

A joint meeting was held at Boston during the forty-third annual convention of the National Educational Association. Professor Thomas was elected chairman of the joint committee. A subcommittee of three was appointed to prepare and submit for consideration in the full committee, during the session of the National Educational Association at St. Louis, a system of key-notation which will meet the needs of the lexicographer and philologist, but based upon a simple, phonetic alphabet thoroly available for the every-day use of the common people.

This subcommittee has been at work for some time, and its tentative alphabet is about ready to be submitted to the full committee.

After the alphabet has passed the committee, it will be sent out for the criticism or approval of all persons interested, to the end that the scheme having the largest amount of scholarly, expert indorsement may ultimately be submitted for adoption by each of the bodies represented in the joint committee, in the hope that their approval and recommendation of it will bring it into universal use in our dictionaries, spelling-books, and their manuals, as a substitute for our present various and confusing diacritical systems.

By a misunderstanding, the appropriation of $100 recommended by this department at its last meeting was not brought to the consideration of the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations. So far there has been very little expense. But some printing will have to be done, and a few new types may have to be cut, and other expenses incurred. Your committee asks that the department recommend to the proper authorities the appropriation of $100, or as such thereof as may be necessary to carry out the plans of the joint committee.

EVENING SESSION

An address on "The Ethical Element in Education" was delivered by Walter B. Hill, chancellor of the University of Georgia, Athens, Ga.

THIRD DAY

MORNING SESSION.—THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 25

The topic, "School Administration and School Supervision" was discussed as follows:

1. "The Superintendent as a Man of Affairs": William H. Maxwell, superintendent of schools, New York city; Seymour A. Mynders, state superintendent of public instruction, Nashville, Tenn.
2. "The Assistant to the Superintendent—His Functions and Methods of Work": Miss Alice E. Reynolds, supervisor of schools, Hew Haven, Conn.
3. "The Management of Special Departments, Such as Manual Training": C. N. Kendall, superintendent of schools, Indianapolis, Ind. The discussion was led by E. E. Bass, superintendent of schools, Greenville, Miss.
4. "The Teacher—Beneficiary or Victim?" Miss Celestia S. Parrish, Athens Ga.

The following resolution was offered by Edward Rynearson, of Pittsburg, Pa.:

Resolved, That a committee of eleven be appointed, with Professor Halleck, of Louisville, Ky., as chairman, to formulate a code of regulation for the control of athletics in our secondary schools.

The resolution was referred to the committee on resolutions.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The topic, "Extension of Public School Privileges," was discussed in the following order:

1. "The organization of a System of Evening Schools": Thomas M. Balliet, superintendent of schools, Springfield, Mass.
2. "Adult Education as Illustrated by the Free Lecture System of New York City": Henry M. Leipziger, supervisor of lectures, Board of Education, New York city.
3. "University Extension for Teachers in Service": R. H. Halsey, president of State Normal School Oshkosh, Wis.
4. "Vacation Schools, Playgrounds, and Recreation Centers": Miss Evangeline E. Whitney, district superintendent of schools, New York city; B. E. Nelson, superintendent of schools, Lincoln, Ill.

The Committee on Resolutions returned the resolution offered by Edward Rynearson at the morning session without recommendation. On motion, the resolution was tabled.

The department unanimously adopted the report of the Committee on Resolutions, as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

Resolved:

1. That we, as members of the Department of Superintendence, reaffirm our unswerving loyalty to our national system of state-conducted free public schools, consisting of elementary and high schools; and that we express our unqualified conviction that the demonstrated influence of these schools upon individual character and ideals, upon the quality of citizenship, and upon our country's industrial and commercial development amply warrants their continued liberal support, and their encouragement to greater efficiency, by every American citizen of whatever race or religion.

2. That we reaffirm our confidence in the other educational institutions of the state, such as normal schools, technical schools, and universities, wherein the pupils of the public schools may find the stimulus and incentive to seek higher educational opportunities and higher fields of usefulness, whereby, under the direction of the state, more efficient teachers may be trained for the public schools, as well as more effective citizens for the nation.

3. That we recognize the justice of the claims of efficient teachers for better salaries, to the end that they may prepare themselves still better for their work, and that they may make proper provision for the support of themselves and their families; and we pledge ourselves to assist them in every honorable way.

4. That we recognize in the skilled supervision and direction of teachers in rural as well as graded schools, a most potent agency for the improvement of teachers, and the organization and direction of educational thought in the community. We therefore urge upon school authorities and educational philanthropists the importance of adjusting salaries so as to insure in the office of county superintendent of schools high quality of leadership and educational skill.

5. That the greatest needs of the rural schools are better teachers, longer school terms, and better graduation. In order to obtain these, it is necessary to have more money to pay teachers, and better roads so as to facilitate the consolidation of rural schools. We therefore urge the necessity not only of increased state appropriations, but also of an adequate local tax, voted by the people for the schools, and we heartily approve of state and national efforts for the improvement of our country roads.

6. That we appreciate the loyal support of the American people to the public schools, as shown by their expressions of confidence, their zealous solicitude for the improvement of the schools, and the increased treasures that they voluntarily pay for their support. We pledge the people in return that, so far as it is within our power, the schools shall be economically administered, and that the children shall receive the best training of head, hand, and heart that it is possible for us and our colleagues to give them.

7. That it is desirable that the appropriate state authority in the different states shall be empowered by law to recognize teachers' certificates and diplomas of high grade issued or recognized by other states.

8. That we extend our sincere thanks to Governor Terrell, to the citizens of Atlanta and the state of Georgia, to the school officers and teachers of the city and the state, to the women's clubs, the Local Committee, and the press of this city, and to the Passenger Association, for the courtesies accorded the members of the department.

JOHN W. CARR, of Indiana, Chairman.
CARROLL G. PEARSE, of Nebraska.
GUSTAVUS R. GLENN, of Georgia.
WALTER S. PARKER, of Massachusetts.
SEYMOUR A. MYNDERS, of Tennessee.

The department then adjourned.

JOHN H. HINEMON, Secretary.

For Secretary—Miss Lida B. Earhart, Whitewater, Wis.

The persons nominated were unanimously elected officers of the department for the ensuing year.

The following resolutions were reported by the committee and adopted.

The members of the Department of Elementary Education, assembled at the forty-third convention of the National Educational Association, unite in the following:

RESOLUTIONS

1. That the close sympathy and co-operation existing between this department and the Department of Kindergarten Education is of distinct common advantage to the two departments, and should be continued and strengthened.

2. That means should be taken to enlist the active interest of a greater number of superintendents, supervisors, and students of elementary education than are now associated with this department.

3. That this department recommend to the general officers of the National Educational Association that steps be taken looking toward a closer co-ordination of the educational forces of the United States by means of definitely established relations between the National Educational Association, the United States Bureau of Education, the teachers' associations of the several states, and other societies and associations having as their purpose the study and discussion of educational problems.

4. That the thanks of the department be heartily extended to those who have presented the papers constituting a program of unusual interest and profit; to the officers of the departments for this effective service; to the officers of the National Educational Association for their support and for the excellent program of the general sessions; to the teachers and citizens of St. Louis for their charming hospitality; and to the management of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition for the generous courtesy and recognition accorded to members of the Association.

JESSE D. BURKS, Chairman.

NETTIE A. SAWYER.

SECOND SESSION.—THURSDAY, JUNE 30

The meeting was called to order in the library of the Hall of Congresses at 2:30 P. M., by President Smiley.

Gilbert B. Morrison, principal of the McKinley High School, St. Louis, read a paper on "High-School Secret Fraternities." This was discussed by William Schuyler, W. E. Johnson, E. W. Lyttle, W. H. Smiley, J. D. Curtis, John M. Downen, and J. Perry Worden. At the close of the discussion, on the motion of E. W. Lyttle, a committee of three was appointed by the president to draw up a resolution upon the matter of secret fraternities and to report at the business meeting. The president subsequently appointed E. W. Lyttle, of New York; Gilbert B. Morrison, of Missouri; and John M. Downen, of Colorado, as such committee.

The next topic for discussion was, "In What Respects Should the High School be Modified to Meet Twentieth-Century Demands?" Papers were read by J. Stanley Brown, principal of High School, Joliet, Ill.; William L. Bryan, president of Indiana University; and B. F. Buck, principal of Lake View High School, Chicago. The general discussion was participated in by J. T. Buchanan, J. S. Brown, W. E. Crosby, and J. Perry Worden.

In the business meeting the Committee on Nominations reported the following:

For President—William Schuyler, St. Louis, Mo.

For First Vice-President—James H. Van Sickle, Baltimore, Md.

For Second Vice-President—James Sullivan, New York, N. Y.

For Secretary—Wilson Farrand, Newark, N. J.

The report was adopted, and the above-named gentlemen were declared officers for the ensuing year.

The Committee on Secret Fraternities reported the following resolution:

WHEREAS, It is the sense of the teachers of the secondary schools represented in the National Educational Association that the influence of secret fraternities in high schools is detrimental to the best interests of the schools;

Resolved, That, in view of the great and increasing importance of this subject, a committee be appointed by the president to investigate the question in all its bearings and to report with recommendations at the next meeting of this department.

This report was unanimously adopted, and the president appointed the following gentlemen as the committee:

Gilbert B. Morrison, St. Louis, Mo.

J. M. Downen, Pueblo, Colo.

B. F. Buck, Chicago, Ill.

E. W. Lytle, Albany, N. Y.

Edwin Twitmyer, Seattle, Wash.

On motion of J. Stanley Brown, a resolution indorsing the "American Curfew Ordinance" was passed.

The meeting then adjourned.

WILLIAM SCHUYLER, Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF HIGHER EDUCATION

FIRST SESSION.—WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 1904

The Department of Higher Education met at 2:30 P. M. in the library of the Hall of Congresses. In the absence of the president and vice-president of the department, the secretary called the meeting to order. W. S. Chaplin, chancellor of Washington University, was made chairman of the meeting. About two hundred and fifty persons were present.

The topic for the afternoon discussion was: "Coeducation in Relation to the Other Types of College Education for Women: (a) The Separate College; (b) The Annex; (c) Coeducation; (d) The Modification Known as Segregation."

The department adjourned to Friday, July 1, at 2:30 P. M.

SECOND SESSION.—FRIDAY, JULY 1

The meeting was called to order at 2:45 by President Chamberlain in the assembly hall of the Missouri State Building. A paper was presented on "The Manual-Training High School versus Optional Work in the Regular School," by Charles B. Gilbert, New York city.

This paper was discussed by C. M. Woodward, director of Manual Training School, Washington University, St. Louis, Mo.; and a brief reply was made by Mr. Gilbert.

At this point the following resolution was offered:

Resolved, That the following resolution be presented to the National Educational Association thru its Committee on Resolutions:

Inasmuch as many teachers and artists have so enthusiastically indorsed the statuary and decorative sculpture work of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, and inasmuch as we believe that the preservation of much of this art would conserve the highest interests of the art side of our educational efforts, be it resolved:

1. That the National Educational Association hereby petition the management of the Exposition to preserve the said works of art, and to donate them to the schools of this country.
2. That the President of this Association appoint a committee of five of its members to confer with the management of the Exposition regarding this matter, to plan and execute all details, such as receiving whatever may be donated, the distributions of such donations, etc.
3. That said committee be, and is hereby, authorized to draw upon the treasury of this Association for such sums as may be previously approved by the Board of Trustees, for the purpose of defraying necessary expenses in the preservation of said art.

O. A. Hanszen, director of manual training, public schools, Dallas, Tex., explained and advocated the adoption of the resolution.

The resolution was adopted.

The remaining papers of the program were then presented as follows:

"What May Be Done in the Country Schools?" by Alfred Bayliss, state superintendent of public instruction, Springfield, Ill.

"Progress in the South, as Shown by Exhibits," by Brown Ayres, dean of the Academic Colleges, Tulane University, New Orleans, La.

The Committee on Resolutions presented the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Manual Training Department of the National Educational Association hereby expresses its appreciation of the opportunity afforded by the management of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition and of the National Educational Association for observing the extensive foreign and domestic exhibits of manual training and industrial work; that these exhibits are to be approved for their scope, their arrangement, and the skill and progress they display; and that the exhibitors be, and are hereby, commended for their efforts in thus adding greatly to the effectiveness of the educational display at the Exposition.

The Committee on Nominations presented the following report:

For President—Arthur H. Chamberlain, Pasadena, Cal.

For Vice-President—Chas. L. Kirschner, New Haven, Conn.

For Secretary—Frank M. Leavitt, Boston, Mass.

Upon motion of Charles A. Bennett, it was voted to adopt the report and to instruct the secretary to cast one ballot for the nominees. The ballot was so cast, and the candidates were declared elected.

The department then adjourned sine die.

DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC EDUCATION

FIRST SESSION.—WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 1904

The department met in Recital Hall, adjoining Festival Hall, on the grounds of the Universal Exposition.

Vice-President William A. Wetzell opened the meeting at 1:30 P. M. with a brief memorial of Sterrie A. Weaver, president of the department, who died in April, 1904.

A piano solo by Ernest R. Kroeger was heard with much pleasure.

Vice-President Wetzell then delivered the annual address, and was followed by a paper by Mrs. Marie Burt Parr, supervisor of music of primary grades, Cleveland, O., on "Primary Music Methods."

P. C. Hayden, of Iowa, moved that the chairman appoint a nominating committee of three. The motion was seconded and carried, and the chair appointed as such committee Miss Anna M. Allen, of Peoria, Ill.; Mrs. F. E. Clark, of Milwaukee, Wis.; and Herbert Griggs, of Denver, Colo.

P. C. Hayden stated that there were a number of important committee reports to be heard at this session, and moved that when adjournment was taken it be to meet at 1:30 Thursday afternoon. The motion was seconded and carried.

Papers were read as follows:

"Rote-Singing and its Proper Place in Public Schools—Practice versus Theory," by W. A. Hodgdon, Supervisor of Music, St. Louis, Mo.

"Music in Public Schools a Means of Culture in the Community," by Miss Lucy Robinson, supervisor of music, Wheeling, W. Va.

Adjournment was taken as previously voted.

SECOND SESSION.—THURSDAY, JUNE 30

The department was called to order in Recital Hall at 1:30 P. M.; Vice-President Wetzell in the chair.

The report of the Committee of Three appointed at the last annual session to co-operate with the committee of the New England Educational League, consisting of Benjamin Jepson, of New Haven, Conn., C. A. Fullerton, of Cedar Falls, Ia., and Miss Julia E. Crane, of Potsdam, N. Y., was distributed.

P. C. Hayden moved that the report be adopted by this meeting. The motion was seconded, and, after some discussion in regard to the manner of giving credits, was adopted.

Mr. Wetzell then called on Mr. Tapper, chairman of the committee appointed at Minneapolis, and continued at Boston, on the "proper literary and musical training of the supervisor and of the musical training grade teacher." The report was read by him, as also a letter from Samuel W. Cole, of Brookline, Mass., a member of the committee. George E. Krinbill, of Dixon, Ill., and Arnold J. Gantvoort, of Cincinnati, O., members of the committee, also presented their views on the question.

Mr. Hayden moved that the report be approved by this department, as a report of progress, and that the committee, as named above, be continued for another year to complete the same.

Mrs. F. E. Clark moved to amend by adding a clause that the committee be requested to embody in its completed report next year a plan for providing for a board of examiners and for carrying out in detail the suggestions of the report. The amendment was agreed to. A. J. Gantvoort, of Cincinnati, O., moved, as a further amendment to Mr. Hayden's motion, that the report include high-school or normal-school music education or its equivalent. Carried.

The motion of Mr. Hayden as amended was then carried.

Thomas Tapper, Boston, Mass.
O. T. Corson, Columbus, O.

A. J. Gantvoort, Cincinnati, O.
Samuel W. Cole, Brookline, Mass.

George E. Krinbill, Dixon, Ill.

Chairman Wetzell called for the report of the Committee of Ten, and Mr. Hayden, the chairman, appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Sterrie A. Weaver, made a partial report covering the first, second, and third grades only.

W. A. Hodgdon, of St. Louis, Mo., moved that the committee be continued to next year in order to complete its report. The motion was seconded and carried. This committee is composed as follows:

P. C. Hayden, Keokuk, Ia.
Miss Anna M. Allen, Peoria, Ill.
Miss Estelle Carpenter, San Francisco, Cal.
A. J. Gantvoort, Cincinnati, O.

B. C. Davis, Atlanta, Ga.
E. B. Birge, Indianapolis, Ind.
F. E. Howard, Bridgeport, Conn.
C. A. Fullerton, Cedar Falls, Ia.

Miss Julia E. Crane, Potsdam, N. Y.

As these committee reports were incomplete, it was ordered that they be not printed.

A. J. Gantvoort moved that a committee of three, of which P. C. Hayden should be chairman, be appointed by the chair to prepare a memorial of the late Sterrie A. Weaver and of his work in this department, and that the same be published in the School Music Monthly. The motion was seconded and carried, and the chair appointed as members of such committee Mr. Gantvoort and Miss Hughes.

The meeting adjourned to Friday afternoon at 1:30 P. M.

THIRD SESSION.—FRIDAY, JULY 1

The program was opened in Recital Hall at 1:30 P. M. by a violin solo by Master Frederick Heizer, of Sioux City, Ia.

Mr. John Towers spoke briefly on the care of boys' voices.

Master Harrison Brown, of Sioux City, Ia., rendered a vocal solo, with violin obligato, by Master Heizer.

The following papers were read:

"Methods versus Results," by W. H. Pommer, supervisor of music, St. Louis, Mo.

"Public-School Music in its Relation to the Community and the Church," by N. Coe Stewart, of New York city.

"The Public-School Music Supervisor in His Relations to the Professional Musicians and the Professional Educators," by Frank Nagel, Highland Park College, Des Moines, Ia.

Mr. Hayden read a letter from W. Scott, secretary of the New England Education League, and moved that the co-operative committee which was appointed last year be continued for another year. The motion was seconded and carried. Following is the committee:

Benjamin Jepson, New Haven, Conn.

C. A. Fullerton, Cedar Falls, Ia.

Miss Julia E. Crane, Potsdam, N. Y.

B. C. Davis, of Atlanta, Ga., moved that this department request the Secretary of the National Educational Association to publish in the volume of Proceedings the report of said committee. The motion was seconded and carried. An abstract of the report will be found among the papers and discussions of the department.

Mr. Hayden called up a motion which was last year referred to this convention, having been presented by Benjamin Jepson, of New Haven, Conn., seconded by T. L. Roberts, of Utica, N. Y., making the School Music Monthly the official organ of this department.

A motion by Mr. Davis to take said motion from the table for discussion was seconded and carried, and thereupon, upon Mr. Davis' motion, duly seconded, the School Music Monthly was adopted as the official organ of this department of the National Educational Association.

Mr. Hayden, as chairman of the committee on memorial of the late Sterrie A. Weaver, then presented a report, which was, upon motion, adopted, as follows:

Resolved, That this department adopt the tribute paid to Mr. Sterrie A. Weaver, our deceased president, by President William A. Wetzell, as an expression of our feelings of regard and esteem.

Resolved, That the tribute referred to, be printed in our minutes, and a copy of the same be sent to Mr. Weaver's family.

The report of the Committee on Nominations was presented by Mrs. Clark, as follows:

For President—William A. Wetzell, Salt Lake City, Utah.

For Vice-President—Mrs. Marie Burt Parr, Cleveland, O.

For Secretary—P. C. Hayden, Keokuk, Ia.

Upon motion of Mr. Gantvoort, duly seconded, the report of the committee was adopted, and the secretary was instructed to cast the ballot of this section for said officers. The ballot being so cast, the nominees were declared elected.

B. C. Davis, of Atlanta, Ga., suggested the desirability of so arranging the program in the future as to give opportunity for discussion upon the papers presented.

President Wetzell then declared the department adjourned until the next annual meeting.

P. C. HAYDEN, Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS EDUCATION

FIRST SESSION.—TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 1904

The session was opened in the auditorium of the Mines and Metallurgy Building, Universal Exposition, at 2:30 P. M., by the president, Cheesman A. Herrick, of Philadelphia, with an address on "Old Wine in New Bottles."

This was followed by a description of the commercial exhibits at the Exposition by Carl C. Marshall, author and publisher, of Cedar Rapids, Ia., under the title "The Work of the Private Commercial Schools as Illustrated in the Exhibits at the St. Louis Exposition."

The topic was discussed by Robert C. Spencer, president of Spencerian Business College, Milwaukee, Wis.; George W. Brown, Jacksonville, Ill.; Peleg R. Walker, superintendent of schools, Rockford, Ill.; and President Edmund J. James of the Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill.

The last speaker of the session was Miss Minnie Bronson, superintendent of elementary and secondary education, Department of Education, Louisiana Purchase Exposition, who read a paper on "The Resources of the United States as Illustrated by the Louisiana Purchase Exposition."

The president then appointed the following Committee on Resolutions:

William C. Stevenson, of Maryland.

R. A. Grant, of Illinois.

Enos Spencer, of Kentucky.

The department adjourned to Thursday, June 30.

SECOND SESSION.—THURSDAY, JUNE 30

The second meeting of the department was called to order at 2:30 P. M. by Vice-President H. B. Brown.

The topic for the session, "The Report of the Committee of Nine," was taken up as follows:

1. "From the Standpoint of the Independent School of Commerce," by James J. Sheppard, principal of the New York High School of Commerce, New York city.

2. "From the Standpoint of the General High School," by Bertrand DeR. Parker, principal of high school, Rockford, Ill.

General discussion, led by J. Remsen Bishop, principal of Walnut Hills High School, Cincinnati, O.

Discussion followed, led by D. W. Springer, of Ann Arbor, Mich., chairman of the Committee of Nine.

Mr. Springer then presented the following:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF NINE

Your committee was requested at the last meeting to complete the contemplated monograph so that it might be available for this session. We would respectfully report that during this month the same has been issued as a publication by the University of the State of New York, being Bulletin 23 in Series K, the price of which is 20 cents.

We desire to express our thanks to the regents of the university for affording the means of placing the same before the commercial teachers of this country.

D. W. SPRINGER, Chairman.

It was voted that the report be accepted and the committee discharged.

The Committee on Resolutions presented a report which was adopted.

The officers elected for the ensuing year are:

President—W. C. Stevenson, Decatur, Ill.

Vice-President—H. B. Brown, Valparaiso, Ind.

Secretary—John A. White, Moline, Ill.

The department then adjourned.

THOMAS H. H. KNIGHT, Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF CHILD STUDY

FIRST SESSION.—THURSDAY, JUNE 30, 1904

The meeting of the Department of Child Study was called to order at Convention Hall in the Administration Building by the president, E. A. Kirkpatrick, at 2:30 P. M.

In the absence of Secretary Yoder, Miss Jessie Davis was appointed secretary.

The following communication from the British Child Study Association was read:

To the President of the Child Study Conference of the National Educational Association in Convention at St. Louis

DEAR SIR:—The Council of the British Child Study Association sends heartiest greetings to friends and fellow-students in America now assembled in conference at St. Louis.

The members of our association regard with the keenest appreciation the constant and extraordinary efforts, the high scientific ability, and the successful enterprise employed by the leaders of the child-study movement in America, who are engaged in laying the foundations of true biological and evolutionary conceptions.

The work of such men as President G. Stanley Hall, Professor Earl Barnes, Professor W. S. Monroe, and others of your great leaders in developing a new philosophy of childhood is most keenly known and honored among us here in Great Britain, and forms an additional bond of union, sympathy, and indebtedness between us and our American kinsmen.

Accept our heartiest good wishes for complete success in every department of your conference held in the exhibition buildings. Such efforts are certain to conduce to a great and permanent increase in the interest and numbers of those consciously and systematically studying child nature in order to ascertain what are the latest possibilities and capacities of the growing child, and how he can be best provided with the means and environment wherewith and wherein to shape himself.

(Signed) J. C. HUDSON,
General Secretary.

The following program was then carried out:

Topic: "Individual and Practical Child Study."

1. "The Diagnosis of the Capabilities of Children," by D. P. MacMillan, director of child-study department of the Chicago public schools, Chicago, Ill.
2. "Some Laboratory Investigations of Subnormal Children," by Miss Mary R. Campbell, dean of the Chicago Hospital School for Nervous and Delicate Children, and educational adviser for the School of Special Education, Chicago, Ill.
3. "To What Extent May Atypical Children be Successfully Educated in our Public Schools?" by Maximilian P. E. Grossmann, director of the Grossmann School for Atypical and Nervous Children, Plainfield, N. J.

The Child Study Department then divided into two sections for round-table discussions.

I. ROUND TABLE ON CHILD STUDY IN THE KINDERGARTEN AND PRIMARY GRADES

(Chairman, Miss Myra M. Winchester, Fort Worth Kindergarten College, Fort Worth, Tex.)

Topic: "Comparison of Methods and Results in Child Study"

1. "Handwork as an Indication of the Mental Condition of Children," by Elizabeth Harrison, Chicago Kindergarten College, Chicago, Ill.
2. "Method of Child Study in the Kindergarten," by Luella Palmer, New York city.
3. "Child Study in the Grades," by P. W. Horn, superintendent of schools, Houston, Tex.

II. ROUND TABLE ON CHILD STUDY IN GRAMMAR AND SECONDARY GRADES

Topic: "Waywardness in Children of Ten to Eighteen Years."

1. "Criminal Tendencies and the Juvenile Court," by Charles W. Waddle, fellow in Clark University, Worcester, Mass.
2. "Relation of the Home and Parents to the Wayward Child," by Oscar Chrisman, professor of paidology, Ohio University, Athens, O.

Under the order of business the following Committee on Nominations was appointed by President Kirkpatrick:

Oscar Chrisman, of Ohio.

A. Caswell Ellis, of Texas.

Miss Elizabeth Harrison, of Illinois.

SECOND SESSION.—FRIDAY, JULY 1

The department was called to order at 2:30 P. M. The Committee on Nominations reported the following nominees for officers, who were elected:

For President.—E. G. Lancaster, Olivet, Mich.

For Vice-President.—D. P. MacMillan, Chicago, Ill.

For Secretary.—Miss Theodate Smith, Clark University, Worcester, Mass.

The following program was presented in full:

A paper by Will S. Monroe, State Normal School, Westfield, Mass., was distributed, describing the various types of child study, and indicating where exhibits of the same could be found.

General topic: "Methods in Scientific Child Study."

1. "Questionnaire Methods of Child Study," by Will Grant Chambers, State Normal School, Moorhead, Minn.
 2. "Laboratory Tests as a Means of Child Study," by Miss Mabel Clarke Williams, department of philosophy, Iowa State University.
 3. "Contribution of Zoological Psychology to Child Study," by Linus W. Kline, State Normal School, Duluth, Minn.
 4. "Unsolved Problems of Child Study and Modes of Attack," by G. Stanley Hall, president of Clark University, Worcester, Mass.
 5. "Child Study in Normal Schools," by Miss Anna Buckbee, State Normal School, California, Pa.
- The meeting then adjourned.

JESSIE DAVIS, Acting Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION

FIRST SESSION.—TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 1904

The meeting was called to order in Physical Culture Hall of Washington University at 2:30 P. M., by E. Hermann Arnold, of New Haven, Conn., president of the department. After words of welcome to those present, the president read a paper on "The Importance of Walking in Physical Training."

The next topic was announced as "The Objects and Methods of Physical Training in Primary and Grammar Schools: (a) from the Standpoint of the General Teacher; (b) from the Standpoint of the Physical Training Teacher." The first speaker was W. W. Chalmers, superintendent of schools, Toledo, O. He was followed by William A. Stecher, director of physical training, public schools, Indianapolis, Ind. These papers were discussed by C. C. Miller, superintendent of schools, Lima, O.

Mrs. Mary H. Ludlum, instructor in physical training, Central High School, St. Louis, Mo., next read a paper on "The Objects and Methods of Physical Training in High Schools from the Standpoint of the Specialist."

She was followed by Miss Elsa Pohl, physical director of the Girls' Gymnasium, McKinley High School, St. Louis, on "Physical Training Exhibits in the Physical Training Department of the Exposition."

The meeting then adjourned until Wednesday at 2:30 P. M., at the same place, to attend an exhibition of gymnastics to be given under the direction of A. E. Kindervater, supervisor of physical training in the public schools and director of gymnastics in the St. Louis Turnverein.

SECOND SESSION.—THURSDAY, JUNE 30

The meeting was called to order at 2:30 P. M. by President Arnold.

A paper on the "Objects and Methods of Physical Training in Normal Schools, from the Standpoint of the Special Teacher," was read by G. B. Affleck, director of physical training, Iowa State Normal School, Cedar Falls, Ia.

"Objects and Methods of Physical Training in Colleges and Universities, from the Standpoint of the General Teacher," was presented by R. H. Jesse, president of the University of Missouri, Columbia, Mo.

"Physical Training Exhibits in the Educational Building of the Exposition," by Miss Mary Ida Mann, director of the Women's Gymnasium, University of Missouri, Columbia, Mo., was next presented.

On motion by Dr. Gulick, of New York, a resolution was passed thanking those who took part in the illustrative programs, especially as the drill was given after the schools had been closed for some time, when it was especially difficult to keep pupils together for such exercises.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:

For President—E. Hermann Arnold, New Haven, Conn.
 For Vice-President—Miss Rebecca Stoneroad, Washington, D. C.
 For Secretary—G. B. Affleck, Cedar Falls, Ia.

The department then adjourned.

MARY H. LUDLUM,
Secretary pro tempore.

DEPARTMENT OF SCIENCE EDUCATION

FIRST SESSION.—TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 1904

The department met in the reading-room, east gallery, Transportation Building, and was called to order at 2:30 P. M., by the president, Wilbur A. Fiske.

A report of the committee appointed at the 1903 meeting, "to request the National Council to consider the advisability of appointing a committee to discuss the subject of physics teaching in high schools which prepare few pupils for college, and to formulate a course of physics for such schools," was made, in the absence of the chairman, by Frank M. Gilley, of Chelsea, Mass. He reported progress, and was instructed by the president to present the matter of the necessary appropriation to the National Council then in session, and to report at the meeting tomorrow.

The following program was then presented:

Topic: "Discussion of Louisiana Purchase Exhibits."

1. "A Comparative Study of the Methods of Science Instruction of the Various Countries as Shown by Their Exhibits," by William J. S. Bryan, principal of Central High School, St. Louis, Mo.
2. "The Nature and Educational Value of the Scientific Exhibits of High Schools and Colleges of the United States," by George Platt Knox, principal of Garfield School, St. Louis, Mo.
3. "Applied Geography, Illustrated from the Louisiana Purchase," by Arthur G. Clement University of the State of New York, Albany, N. Y.

The discussion of these papers was opened by Chester B. Curtis, Central High School, St. Louis, Mo., and was followed by a number of questions which were answered by the speakers.

The following Committee on Nominations was appointed by the president:

E. R. Whitney, of New York.

Hubert J. Schmitz, of New York.

Chester B. Curtis, of Missouri.

The department adjourned at 4:15 P. M. to meet Wednesday, June 29, 1904, at 2 P. M.

SECOND SESSION.—WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29

The meeting was called to order at 2:20 P. M. by President Fiske, and the following papers on biological and physical science were presented:

1. "The Microscope in the Biological Laboratory of the High School," by John F. Thompson, instructor in botany, High School, Richmond, Ind.
Discussion led by S. M. Coulter, professor of botany, Washington University, St. Louis, Mo.
2. "The Subject-Matter of High-School Physics," by Arthur L. Foley, professor of physics, State University, Bloomington, Ind.
3. "The Value of Chemistry in Secondary Education," by W. M. Blanchard, professor of chemistry, De Pauw University Greencastle, Ind.

Discussion was led by August F. Foerste, instructor in physics, Steele High School, Dayton, O., and H. A. Senter, head of Chemical Department, Omaha High School, Omaha, Neb., who were followed by E. R. von Nordroff, head of Science Department, Erasmus Hall High School, Brooklyn, N. Y., and several others.

The following papers on science-teaching in general were then read:

1. "The Teaching of the Scientific Method," by S. A. Forbes, dean of University of Illinois, Urbana, Ill.
2. "Nature Study as an Aid to Advanced Work in Science," by E. R. Whitney, instructor in science, High School, Binghamton, New York.

These papers were discussed by Otis Caldwell, professor of biology, Eastern Illinois State Normal School, Charleston, Ill.

The president then called for the report of the Committee on a Physics Course, after which the following motion was made by E. R. von Nordroff that a committee be appointed to investigate the courses in physics, and to report upon any desirable changes in the elementary course, and to suggest a second-year course. The motion was carried, and the president appointed the following committee:

Frank M. Gilley, of Massachusetts.

Willis E. Tower, of Illinois.

E. R. von Nordroff, of New York.

The report of the Committee on Nominations was read and adopted, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

For President—Frank M. Gilley, Chelsea, Mass.

For Vice-President—Arthur G. Clement, Albany, N. Y.

For Secretary—H. A. Senter, Omaha, Neb.

The department adjourned at 5:15 P. M.

H. A. SENTER, Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION

FIRST SESSION.—WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 1904

The department was called to order in the Hall of Congresses of the Universal Exposition at 2:30 P. M., by B. F. Hunsicker, president of the department, who read a paper on "Retrospective and Prospective School Administration."

William B. Ittner, commissioner and superintendent of school buildings, St. Louis, Mo., next read a paper on "School Architecture." Stereopticon views of floor plans, elevations, and perspectives, showing the later school architecture of St. Louis, were used in illustration by Mr. Ittner.

A paper was then read by Professor Calvin M. Woodward, president of the St. Louis Board of Education, on the "Lessons in School Administration Afforded by the World's Fair."

While the attendance at the meeting was fair, it was apparent that there was not a sufficient number of Association members present to warrant the election of officers. It was therefore decided that the present officers of the department hold over for another year, unless otherwise ordered by the Executive Committee of the Association. These officers were as follows:

President—B. F. Hunsicker, Reading, Pa.

Vice-President—Grafton D. Cushing, Boston, Mass.

Secretary—William George Bruce, Milwaukee, Wis.

Executive Committee—Harlan P. French, Albany, N. Y.; Albert Gehring, Cleveland, O.; Israel H. Peres, Memphis, Tenn.

A final adjournment was then taken in accordance with the plan to hold but one session of the department.

WILLIAM GEORGE BRUCE, Secretary.

LIBRARY DEPARTMENT

FIRST SESSION.—TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 1904

The Library Department met in the Model Library Hall in the Missouri Building, and was called to order by the president, Nathan C. Schaeffer, of Pennsylvania.

The meeting was opened by an address on "Library Work in the Normal School," by Theodore B. Noss, president of the State Normal School, California, Pa.

The discussion of the paper was opened by Miss Grace Salisbury, librarian of the State Normal School, Whitewater, Wis., followed by President Albert Salisbury, of the same institution.

The second paper was presented by President J. N. Wilkinson, of the State Normal School, Emporia, Kan., on "The Duty of the Normal School in Relation to District School Libraries."

The discussion of this paper was opened by Miss Mabel M. Reynolds, librarian of the State Normal School, Cheney, Wash., followed by James H. Canfield, librarian of the Columbia University, New York city.

The following committees were appointed:

J. N. Wilkinson, of Kansas.

R. T. Adams, of Pennsylvania.

Miss Anna Buckbee, of Pennsylvania.

COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS

James H. Canfield, of New York.

Albert Salisbury of Wisconsin.

David A. Harman, of Pennsylvania.

The session then adjourned.

SECOND SESSION.—THURSDAY, JUNE 30

The department met in the Model Library Hall in the Missouri Building, and was called to order at 2:30 P. M. by President Schaeffer.

The Committee on Nominations reported the following nominees thru its chairman, Dr. Canfield, and the secretary was instructed by unanimous vote to cast a ballot for their election, viz.:

For President—C. P. Cary, state superintendent of public instruction, of Wisconsin.

For Vice-President—J. N. Wilkinson, president of State Normal School, Emporia Kan.

For Secretary—Miss Mary Eileen Ahern, editor of Public Libraries, Chicago.

The first paper, on "The Place of the Library in Class Instruction," was presented by Clarence E. Meleney, associate superintendent of city schools, New York city.

The discussion was opened by Superintendent F. Louis Soldan, of St. Louis, followed by Miss Ange. V. Milner, of Normal, Ill.

The theme for general discussion was "The Value of the Library in Education," opened by President N. C. Schaeffer, followed by Principal Frank Cook, of St. Louis, F. M. Crunden, librarian of the Public Library, St. Louis, Mo., and M. E. Ahern, of Chicago.

The Committee on Resolutions, thru its chairman, President Wilkinson, reported as follows:

RESOLUTIONS OF THE LIBRARY DEPARTMENT

The Library Department of the National Educational Association urges teachers to study the best methods of using libraries in the subjects that are taught in the schools and, especially, to train pupils to choose widely and to read effectively the books that are to occupy their time.

This department, believing that teachers will appreciate the need of trained librarians, addresses to the teachers, of whose great national convention this section is a constituent part, an earnest appeal that they stand for the special training of librarians for all classes of library work.

We believe that the efficiency of library work is unnecessarily hindered by the present postal rate on books, and we therefore urge upon the Congress the passage of the bill, No. 4870, which provides for a pound rate on all books sent out from a public library for library use.

It is the sense of this department that greater uniformity in library methods would be effective in bringing the benefit of library work to all classes of schools, and it is therefore recommended that the Library Department be authorized to prepare a manual of library methods, to be printed and distributed in the same manner as was, in 1897, "The Report on the Relations of the Public Libraries to Public Schools."

The department then adjourned.

MARY EILEEN AHERN, Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF SPECIAL EDUCATION

FIRST SESSION.—WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 1904

The sessions of the department were held in the Assembly Hall of the Mines and Metallurgy Building of the Universal Exposition. The department was called to order by President J. W. Jones, superintendent of the Ohio State Institution for the Deaf, Columbus, O.

The following program was carried out:

- I. President's address, by J. W. Jones, superintendent of the Ohio Institution for the Deaf, Columbus, Ohio.
- II. "What Teachers May Learn from the Model Schools of the Deaf and Blind and Their Exhibits," by S. M. Green, superintendent of the Missouri School for the Blind, St. Louis, Mo.
- III. "Sight and Hearing in Relation to Education," by Oscar Chrisman, professor of paidology, Ohio University, Athens, O.

Informal discussion followed by Dr. D. P. MacMillan, director of the Child Study Department of Chicago Public Schools, and R. C. Spencer, president of the Wisconsin Phonological Institute, Milwaukee, Wis.

The president appointed as Committee on Nominations:

Mary R. Campbell, Chicago, Ill. Percival Hall, Washington, D. C.
S. M. Green, St. Louis, Mo.

SECOND SESSION.—FRIDAY, JULY 30

The department met at 2:30 P. M., and was called to order by President Jones. The following was the program of the session:

- I. Report of the Committee on Statistics of Defective Sight and Hearing of Public-School Children, by Percival Hall, professor of applied mathematics and pedagogy, Gallaudet College, Washington, D. C.
- II. "The Chicago Hospital School for Nervous and Delicate Children—Its Educational and Scientific Methods," by Miss Mary R. Campbell, secretary of board of trustees and educational advisor for the Chicago School of Special Education, Chicago, Ill.
- III. "The Teacher and the Defective Child," by Dr. M. A. Goldstein, editor of The Laryngoscope St. Louis, Mo.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

For President—Miss Margaret Bancroft, head of Haddonfield Training School, New Jersey.
For Vice-President—J. H. Freeman, superintendent of the Illinois School for the Blind, Jacksonville, Ill.
For Secretary—Miss Anna E. Schaffer, state supervisor of schools for the deaf Wisconsin.

The department then adjourned.

ELIZABETH VAN ADESTINE, Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF INDIAN EDUCATION

The opening meeting of the Department of Indian Education was called to order in the Hall of Congresses, Administration Building, at 9:30 A. M., by the president, R. A. Cochran, superintendent of the Rice Station Indian School, Arizona.

The Oklahoma Indian school band furnished the music.

The opening prayer was offered by Most Rev. John J. Glennon, archbishop of St. Louis, after which was sung a song entitled "This is the Indian's Home," written by Mr. A. O. Wright, supervisor of Indian schools.

Addresses of welcome were delivered by Hon. A. M. Dockery, governor of Missouri; Hon. D. R. Francis, president of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition; Dr. Howard J. Rogers, chief of the Department of Education and director of congresses, Louisiana Purchase Exposition; Dr. Calvin M. Woodward, director of Manual Training School, Washington University, St. Louis, Mo.; Dr. F. Louis Soldan, superintendent of instruction, St. Louis, Mo.; Miss Amelia C. Fruchte, of the City Normal and High School, St. Louis, Mo.; and Most Rev. John J. Glennon, archbishop of St. Louis.

Addresses in response, and touching upon matters of interest to Indian teachers and workers, were made by Dr. W. J. McGee, chief of the Department of Anthropology, Louisiana Purchase Exposition; Dr. John T. Doyle, secretary of the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.; Hon. Levi Chubbuck, special inspector, Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C.; Superintendent S. M. McCowan, Chilocco Indian Agricultural School, Chilocco, Okla.; Superintendent R. A. Cochran, Rice Station Indian School, Talklai, Ariz.; and Superintendent of Indian Schools, Miss Estelle Reel, Washington, D. C.

MONDAY, JUNE 27, 7:30 P. M.

An entertainment was given in Festival Hall by the Indian students, under the direction of S. M. McCowan, superintendent of the Chilocco Agricultural School, Chilocco, Okla.

TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 2:30 P. M.

The department was called to order in the Indian Building by Superintendent R. A. Cochran, president of the department.

Dr. John T. Doyle, secretary of the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C., delivered an address on "Efficiency in the Indian Service."

Miss Natalie Curtis, New York city, delivered an address on "Indian Music and Indian Education."

TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 8 P. M.

A reception was given to Indian teachers and workers in the Indian Building.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29, 2:30 P. M.

The department met in Agricultural Hall in joint session with the Department of Manual Training.

For the program of this session see Minutes of the Department of Manual Training

THURSDAY, JUNE 30, 2:30 P. M.

The department met in the Hall of Congresses in joint session with the Department of Elementary Education.

For the program of this session see Minutes of the Elementary Department.

FRIDAY, JULY 1, 2:30 P. M.

The department was called to order in the Indian Building by President R. A. Cochran.

A Round Table Conference of Indian Workers was held, led by Mr. A. O. Wright, supervisor of Indian schools. The subject for discussion was: "Review of Educational Points Acquired from the Study of the Various Exhibits and Model Schools, and from the Joint Sessions with the Manual Training and Elementary Departments of the National Educational Association." A general discussion followed of the best methods to adopt in applying the knowledge gained to Indian school work.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we heartily commend the president's attitude in connection with matters relating to Indian affairs.

Resolved, That we thank the secretary of the interior for the unflinching support given to all efforts looking to the advancement of the Indian and improving his condition; that we are in hearty sympathy with the practical, businesslike administration of the commissioner of Indian affairs, and commend his broad-minded and disinterested course in the conduct of the Indian school service. We also commend the superintendent of Indian schools for her untiring zeal and energy in the cause of Indian education, and especially for the practical reforms introduced in school work. Our thanks are tendered to Mr. R. A. Cochran, the president of the department, for the able and impartial manner in which he has presided over our meetings.

Resolved, That we tender our heartfelt thanks to Superintendent S. M. McCowan for the manner in which he has entertained our teachers, and extend to him our warm congratulations upon the great success he has made of the model Indian school and exhibit.

Resolved, That we are especially gratified at the substantial progress made by the schools during the year and the general betterment of conditions affecting the Indian.

Resolved, That we commend the efforts of the Civil Service Commission to better the industrial service of the schools.

Resolved, That we gratefully tender our acknowledgment of courtesies extended and hospitality shown by the people of St. Louis, and offer our hearty thanks to the archbishop and other clergy, to the officials of the state and city, and to the members of the Universal Exposition management for their kind words of welcome, and for their assistance in making our meeting a success. We also sincerely thank the local press for its reports of our proceedings and helpful notices.

The department then adjourned.

ESTELLE REEL, Secretary.

OF

To the Executive Committee:

The preparations for the Forty-Third Annual Convention of the Association, to be held in 1904, at St. Louis, Mo., in connection with the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, began with the calling together of the presidents of the departments. These officials assembled at the Southern Hotel, in St. Louis, near the close of December. Only two were absent. One day was spent in working out the general plan proposed by the President of the Association. It was unanimously decided to make the Educational Exhibit of the Universal Exposition the theme for the department meetings. A study of national systems, with the needs and conditions in the various parts of our own country, was in substance the plan for the general meetings. It was hoped that arrangements might be made by which certain features of the educational exhibit could be quite carefully studied by a representative of each department in advance of the meeting, and that at the first session, two being provided, directions should be given for a profitable study of the most interesting exhibits, with especial reference to the work of the departments. In a few cases it was possible to follow this general plan, and the second sessions were correspondingly enriched thereby. In pursuance of this general plan, it was decided to hold all meetings of the convention on the Exposition grounds.

It was thought advisable, so far as possible, to avoid the appearance of the same speakers in several departments. To this end, tentative programs were prepared by the presidents and submitted to the president of the Association for his approval. In consequence there was no objectionable duplication of papers by the same person. An attempt was made also to widen the working membership by choosing as speakers quite a generous proportion of members not on former programs. Especial stress was laid also upon the importance of making the volume of Proceedings as valuable as possible. It is too early to pass judgment upon the success of this feature of our plan. Each of the active members can determine that for himself after he has had an opportunity to make a personal examination of the volume.

It will thus be seen that there was a unity of plan which included all of the departments. Six months remained to work it out. The time was barely sufficient. The meeting of the department presidents seems to me quite indispensable if anything approaching unity in the program of the annual convention is to be secured. It should be held at least a month earlier, however; the middle of November is none too soon, and the first is preferable. Those who are to present papers should have not less than four or five months for their preparation.

The location was thought to make the time of meeting a matter of no small importance. St. Louis is generally well settled down to her summer habit by the first of July. To test the wishes of those most likely to be present, more than two hundred letters seeking preferences were sent to prominent active members. Three dates were proposed: the week beginning June 27, one week later, and two weeks later. A small plurality, perhaps a majority, preferred the first. It was thought the wiser plan, however, to hold the meeting as near to the usual time as possible. In consequence, the week beginning July 4 was selected. When the Democratic Central Committee chose the same time and the same city for their quadrennial convention, it was thought inexpedient to adhere to our original plan; hence the earlier date was selected. Unfortunately, some of the eastern people were unable to attend, as their schools had not closed. The latest date would have been equally objectionable to the large contingent who participate in summer schools.

One would not be far afield if he should characterize the National Educational Association as an institution for the promotion of summer travel. For many years it has been able to make very advantageous rates with the railroads and to secure for each ticket sold a two-dollar membership coupon as one of its features. But there could be no special railroad rates and no membership coupons in the transportation arrangements for the St. Louis meeting. Further, the competition of the splendid Exposition threatened us from another quarter. Then there was no little talk of what might be expected in the way of weather. Altogether the outlook was gloomy. Those who had matters in charge were full of anxieties. Their gratification can be imagined when it became a certainty that the meetings were quite up to the average in numbers. It was a test case and determined who constitute the reliable membership. Many could not come, because of the early date, who would have been present if that obstacle had not intervened. It was demonstrated at St. Louis that there is a National Educational Association that is quite independent of the solicitations of special railway excursion rates.

Not only did the members come to St. Louis, but they attended the meetings. They came at the beginning and remained to the close of each session. The official meeting of the active members was the largest in the history of the Association. Their loyalty was shown in a most unmistakable way. For all of these interesting facts the officials are extremely grateful.

The interest manifested by other countries was especially pleasing. Fourteen foreign delegates were present, some of whom participated in the exercises. The eminent Cardinal Satolli visited one of the general sessions and made a short address, as did also one of his associates. It was an interesting commentary on the spirit of the times to see Professor Cassio, of the University of Madrid, an interested visitor and an honored delegate from a nation with which we were so recently at war.

It is not probable that the National Educational Association will soon be confronted with so grave problems as it was obliged to face in 1904. They are all happily settled; the volume will hold our increasing active membership; the treasury has not been raided; the usual railroad arrangements, which were necessarily waived, will be restored in 1905, and in that year we shall repeat the record-breaker of 1903.

JOHN W. COOK.

President of the St. Louis Convention.

DE KALB, ILL., October 22, 1904.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, Winona, Minn., Nov. 1, 1904.

To the Board of Trustees of the National Educational Association:

GENTLEMEN: I beg leave to submit, herewith, report of the leading features of the business of the Secretary's office since November 1, 1903.

MEMBERSHIP

The growth of the active membership of the Association since its organization is shown by the following table:

TABLE SHOWING ACTIVE MEMBERSHIP ENROLLMENT SINCE 1895

RECEIPTS AND EXPENSES OF SECRETARY'S OFFICE

While it is intended that all revenues of the Association shall be paid direct to the Treasurer, the Secretary is charged with the collection of annual dues of active members not attending the annual conventions; of new members enrolled at other times than during the annual convention; of receipts from the sale of back volumes, reprints, committee reports, etc. The revenue from these sources is reported by the Secretary to the Treasurer monthly. The increase in these receipts since 1895 is shown in the following table. Previous to 1895 there were no receipts from these sources excepting about $100 annually from the sale of back volumes. While the collection of these receipts is but a small part of the work of the Secretary's office, it will be seen by a comparison of the two following tables that the amount collected is nearly sufficient to pay the entire expenses of the office including the salary of the Secretary:

THE PERMANENT FUND

The following table shows the growth of the permanent fund, provided for by the constitution, and the interest receipts from this fund since its foundation in 1886, as shown by the annual reports of the Board of Trustees.

The surplus from the meetings of 1884 and 1885 and from other sources was turned over to the Board of Trustees at the time of the incorporation of the Association as the first installment ($3,400) of the permanent fund.

ANALYSIS OF TREASURER'S REPORT

An analysis and tabulation of the receipts and expenditures shows that the Denver meeting in 1895 introduced a new era in the financial history of the association, and that the receipts and additions to the permanent fund for the five years from 1895 to 1899, inclusive, were almost identical with the eleven years from 1884 to 1894, inclusive. The record for the past four years—Charleston, 1900; Detroit, 1901; Minneapolis, 1902; Boston, 1903—are added for comparison.

RECEIPTS FROM THE BOSTON CONVENTION

The gross receipts from the Boston meeting and the ensuing year, including interest on the permanent fund ($6,573.98) and receipts from the Secretary's office ($5,421.41), were $81,470.75. The total expenses for the year were $38,956.46, while $39,000 was transferred to the permanent fund, leaving in the treasury a balance of $3,514.30 to be carried forward to the year 1904-5, as against the balance of $346.36 brought forward from 1902-3.

RECEIPTS FROM THE ST. LOUIS CONVENTION

The reasons which led the Executive Committee to hold the convention for 1904 at St. Louis, Mo., in connection with the Louisiana Purchase Exposition and the gratifying success of the meetings are stated elsewhere in the report of the President of the Association.

The decision of the railway passenger associations that no special rates would be granted for any conventions held in connection with the Louisiana Purchase Exposition rendered it impossible to secure the advantages of the usual National Educational Association railway membership coupons. It was necessary, therefore, to rely solely on the voluntary enrollment of members, in advance, and at the time of the convention.

The Local Executive Committee at St. Louis secured advance members and paid over receipts for memberships, as follows:

From former active members (dues for 1904-5)	- - - - -	$88.00
From new active members	- - - - -	580.00
From 1,890 advance associate members	- - - - -	3,780.00 — $4,448.00

The Registration Bureau at the time of the convention collected as follows:

From former active members (dues for 1904-5)	- - - - -	$908.00
From new active members	- - - - -	850.00
From 1,544 associate members	- - - - -	3,088.00 — $4,846.00

There was received at the Secretary's office before the convention for 1904-5 (not reported in the receipts of the Boston fiscal year) as follows:

From former active members (dues for 1904-5)	- - - - -	$984.00
From new active members (1904-5)	- - - - -	102.65 — $1,086.65

To the above should be added $3,514.20 carried forward from the preceeding year; thus making the receipts, up to the close of the St. Louis convention, $13,894.85. To this may be added the following estimated receipts for the remainder of the year:

From delayed receipts from railroads, account of Boston convention ($1,772.00 already received)	- - - - -	$2,500.00
From Secretary's office	- - - - -	6,000.00
From interest on permanent fund	- - - - -	7,000.00 — $15,500.00

making total (partly estimated) receipts for the current year $29,394.85.

An agreement was entered into with the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company by which members could purchase at the time of payment of dues, either in advance or at the time of the convention, a ten-admission-coupon ticket to the exposition for $3.00 additional; or $5.00 for membership and ten-admission tickets, which was the regular price of the admission tickets alone. It was expected that this would largely increase the enrollment, but this expectation was not realized to any considerable extent since the coupon-admission-tickets were sold largely to those who would have joined the Association without that inducement.

The number of members of all classes present at the St. Louis convention was,

Former active	- - - - -	813
New active	- - - - -	502
Associate	- - - - -	3,558 — 4,873

The statistical table published elsewhere shows the entire enrollment for the year, including active members not present at the St. Louis convention, to be (4,542).

SPECIAL COMMITTEES

At the meeting of the Board of Directors held June 30, 1904, new rules were adopted governing appropriations made for the expenses of special committees of investigation, and for other purposes, by which unexpended balances are covered into the treasury at the close of each fiscal year unless reappropriated in whole or in part (see minutes of meeting of Board of Directors, p. 39, volume of Proceedings, St. Louis meeting).

COMMITTEE ON TAXATION AS RELATED TO PUBLIC EDUCATION

James M. Greenwood, superintendent of schools, Kansas City, Mo., chairman.
 Aaron Gove, ex-superintendent of schools, Denver, Colo.
 W. T. Harris, Commissioner of Education of the United States, Washington, D. C.
 J. W. Carr, superintendent of schools, Anderson, Ind.
 Newton C. Dougherty, superintendent of schools, Peoria, Ill.
 Nathan C. Schaeffer, state superintendent of public instruction, Harrisburg, Pa.
 William H. Maxwell, superintendent of schools, New York, N. Y.
 Carroll G. Pearce, superintendent of schools, Milwaukee, Wis.
 Charles D. McIver, president of the Normal and Industrial College, Greensboro, N. C.
 Frank A. Fitzpatrick, 93 Summer St., Boston, Mass.

This committee was appointed at the Minneapolis meeting in 1902 (see Minutes, Minneapolis volume of Proceedings, pp. 34, 311-13). The committee is under instructions to make a printed report to the National Council not later than 1904, unless otherwise directed, and the sum of $1,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, was appropriated for the expenses of the committee.

The committee expended last year $390.75 of the $1,000 appropriated for its expenses, leaving an unexpended balance of $709.25 which was reappropriated for the same purpose by the Board of Directors at its meeting held June 30, 1904 (see Minutes of Board of Directors, pp. 39, 40, St. Louis volume of Proceedings).

The report of this committee, ordered for 1904, was not made at the St. Louis meeting, but the committee was continued with the expectation that its report would be presented to the Council at the annual convention in 1905.

COMMITTEE ON THE NATIONAL BUREAU OF EDUCATION

*William R. Harper, president of the University of Chicago, chairman.
 Newton C. Dougherty, superintendent of schools, Peoria, Ill.
 Andrew S. Draper, commissioner of education for the state of New York, Albany, N. Y.
 Aaron Gove, ex-superintendent of schools, Denver, Colo.
 G. R. Glenn, ex-state school commissioner of Georgia, Atlanta, Ga.
 E. Oram Lyte, principal of the State Normal School, Millersville, Pa.
 ‡Lorenzo D. Harvey, superintendent of schools, Menomonie, Wis.

This committee was first appointed by the Department of Superintendence at its annual meeting in Chicago in 1900, "to aid the Bureau of Education, in whatever way they find it practicable, to accomplish its work" (see Minutes of Department of Superintendence, Charleston volume of Proceedings, p. 185).

At a meeting of the National Council July 6, 1903, the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations reported at length on the desirability of strengthening the Bureau of Education, and of enlarging its organization and facilities with the view of securing its erection into a separate administrative department, and its adequate equipment and financial support (see Minutes of Council, Boston volume of Proceedings, pp. 306, 309).

The committee already appointed by the Department of Superintendence, as above stated, was approved and continued by the Council; and an appropriation of $1,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the expenses of the committee, was authorized by the Board of Directors at its meeting July 9, 1900 (see Minutes of Board of Directors, Boston volume of Proceedings, pp. 36, 37, 38).

At the meeting of the National Council at St. Louis, Mo., July 1, 1904, the chairman, President Nicholas Murray Butler, made an oral report of progress on behalf of the committee and tendered his resignation. The resignation of Chairman Butler was accepted and President William R. Harper, of the University of Chicago, appointed to fill the vacancy.

*Appointed July 1, 1904, to succeed Nicholas Murray Butler, resigned.

‡Appointed July 1, 1904, to succeed W. T. Harris, U. S. Commissioner of Education, resigned.

Dr. W. T. Harris, United States Commissioner of Education, also resigned as a member of the committee and Lorenzo D. Harvey, superintendent of schools, Menominee, Wis., was appointed to fill the vacancy.

In the absence of any action by the Board of Directors at the St. Louis convention re-appropriating the $1,000 for the expenses of this committee (no part of which had been used), the same is covered into the treasury under the new rules governing appropriations, referred to above.

COMMITTEE ON CONTEMPORARY EDUCATION DOCTRINE

Paul H. Hanus, Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass., chairman.

*Frank A. Hill, secretary of state board of education, Boston, Mass.

Lewis H. Jones, president of State Normal College, Ypsilanti, Mich.

Charles B. Gilbert, educational editor, New York, N. Y.

Charles H. Keyes, superintendent of schools, south district, Hartford, Conn.

George S. Locke, assistant professor of education, University of Chicago, Chicago, Ill.

D. L. Kiehle, ex-professor of pedagogy, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minn.

Calvin N. Kendall, superintendent of schools, Indianapolis, Ind.

James H. Van Sickle, superintendent of schools, Baltimore, Md.

Elmer E. Brown, professor of theory and practice of education, University of California, Berkeley, Cal.

W. T. Harris, Commissioner of Education of the United States, Washington, D. C.

This committee was originally appointed as a committee of nine by the Department of Superintendence at its meeting in Chicago in 1902 (see Minutes of Department of Superintendence, Minneapolis volume of Proceedings, pp. 156, 157). At the meeting of the Department of Superintendence in Cincinnati in 1903 it was increased to eleven members (see Minutes of Department of Superintendence, Boston volume of Proceedings, p. 140).

At the meeting of the National Council July 9, 1903, the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations recommended that this committee designate a subcommittee of three of their own number to report to the Council in 1904 (a) a detailed and specific statement of the field of proposed investigation, (b) a precise indication of the method or methods to be pursued, (c) a careful estimate of the cost of the proposed investigation and the time it will probably consume; and also recommended that an appropriation of $750 be asked for the expenses of the subcommittee and to meet the expense of the work already done by the full committee (see Minutes of the National Council, Boston volume of Proceedings, p. 309).

The Board of Directors at its meeting July 9, 1903, authorized the appropriation of $750 for the use of said committee (see Minutes of Board of Directors, Boston volume of Proceedings, pp. 37, 38).

The committee expended $493.65 during the fiscal year ending June 30; and in addition a bill for $5.70 for expenses during the year, but not paid before the close of the year, was allowed by the Executive Committee and paid from the funds of the year 1904-5, leaving an unexpended balance of $250.65.

In the absence of any action by the Board of Directors reappropriating the balance, the same is covered into the treasury.

COMMITTEE ON SALARIES, TENURE OF OFFICE AND PENSIONS OF TEACHERS

Carroll D. Wright, U. S. Commissioner of Labor, Washington, D. C., chairman.

Edwin C. Cooley, superintendent of schools, Chicago, Ill.

Franklin H. Giddings, professor of sociology, Columbia University, New York, N. Y.

Miss Catherine Goggin, teacher in city schools, Chicago, Ill.

R. H. Halsey, principal of State Normal School, Oshkosh, Wis.

William McAndrew, principal of Girls' Technical High School, New York, N. Y.

Miss Anna Tolman Smith, U. S. Bureau of Education, Washington, D. C.

This committee was appointed by the National Council on recommendation of the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations, at its meeting July 6, 1903 (see Minutes of the Council, Boston volume of Proceedings, pp. 307, 308).

*Deceased.

The Board of Directors at its meeting July 9, 1903, appropriated $1,500 for the use of the committee (see Minutes of the Board of Directors, Boston volume of Proceedings, pp. 36, 37).

A preliminary report of this committee was submitted to the Board of Directors June 27, 1904, by the chairman, Carroll D. Wright, and referred to the National Council with recommendation that it be printed in the annual volume of Proceedings (see minutes of Board of Directors, June 27, 1904, p. 33, St. Louis volume of Proceedings).

This report will be found among the papers of the Council published in the St. Louis volume of Proceedings, pp. 370-377. The committee had expended but $390.71 of the appropriation for its expenses. The balance, $1,109.29, was reappropriated, together with an additional $1,500 making a total of $2,609.29 available for the expenses of the committee for the year 1904-5 and for the preparation of its report to be made to the Council at the annual convention in 1905 (see minutes of the Board of Directors, June 30, 1904, St. Louis volume of Proceedings, p. 39).

COMMITTEE ON INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION IN RURAL SCHOOLS

L. D. Harvey, superintendent of schools, Menomonie, Wis., chairman.

L. H. Bailey, director of College of Agriculture, Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.

Alfred Bayliss, state superintendent of public instruction, Springfield, Ill.

W. T. Carrington, state superintendent of public instruction, Jefferson City, Mo.

Willett M. Hays, agriculturist at Experiment Station, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minn.

This committee was appointed by the National Council, on recommendation of the Committee on Investigation and Appropriations, at its meeting July 6, 1903 (see Minutes of the Council, Boston volume of Proceedings, pp. 307, 308, 309).

The Board of Directors at its meeting July 9, 1903, appropriated $500, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the use of the committee (see Minutes of the Board of Directors, Boston volume of Proceedings, pp. 36, 37).

At the meeting of the Council at the St. Louis meeting, L. D. Harvey, chairman, made an oral report of progress and was asked to make a complete report to the Council at its annual meeting in 1904. The committee had expended but $187.95 of its appropriation of $500, leaving an unexpended balance of $312.05 which was reappropriated, and an additional appropriation of $500 was made, making a total of $812.05 available for the expenses of the committee for the year 1904-5 and for the preparation of its report (see minutes of the Board of Directors, St. Louis volume of Proceedings, p. 39).

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTION PRESENTED BY PRESIDENT BAKER, OF COLORADO

Charles W. Eliot, president of Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass., chairman.

Edwin A. Alderman, president of Tulane University, New Orleans, La.

James H. Baker, president of the University of Colorado, Boulder, Colo.

Edward J. Goodwin, principal of Morris High School, New York, N. Y.

James M. Greenwood, superintendent of schools, Kansas City, Mo.

This committee was appointed by the National Council, on the recommendation of the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations, to report on certain requests for inquiry into the contemporary judgment as to the culture element in education, and as to the time that should be devoted to the combined school and college courses, the report to be printed in advance of the next meeting of the Council and its discussion made a special order for that meeting.

The appointment of this committee was approved by the Board of Directors, but no appropriation was made for its expenses.

At the meeting of the Council, July 1, 1904, in the absence of Charles W. Eliot, chairman of the committee, James H. Baker presented a report signed by two members of the committee present at the meeting. The report was not received, since it was not signed by a majority of the committee, but was referred back to the committee for further consideration and report (see minutes of the Council, St. Louis volume of Proceedings, p. 342).

COMMITTEE ON UNIVERSAL SYSTEM OF KEY NOTATION

E. O. Vaile, editor of Intelligence, Oak Park, Ill.

F. Louis Soldan, superintendent of instruction, public schools, St. Louis, Mo.

Thomas M. Balliet, dean of School of Pedagogy, New York University, New York city.

William R. Harper, president of the University of Chicago.

Aaron Gove, ex-superintendent of schools, Denver, Colo.

This committee was appointed by the Department of Superintendence at its meeting in Cincinnati, O., in 1893 (see minutes of Department of Superintendence, Boston volume of Proceedings, p. 140). A report was made to the same department at its meeting at Atlanta, Ga., in 1904 (see minutes of Department of Superintendence, St. Louis volume of Proceedings, p. 175).

The Board of Directors, at its meeting June 30, 1904, granted an appropriation of $200 as a contribution toward the expenses of this committee in conference with committees of the Modern Language Association and of the American Philological Association in regard to a universal system of key notation for indicating pronunciation and to recommend a Phonetic Alphabet (see minutes of the Board of Directors, St. Louis volume of Proceedings, p. 39).

ADVISORY BOARD OF THE LOUISIANA PURCHASE EXPOSITION

At the meeting of the Board of Directors July 9, 1901, in response to an invitation from the Committee on Education of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, and on motion of W. T. Harris, United States Commissioner of Education, an advisory board of twenty-one was appointed to act in co-operation with the education committee of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, as that committee may request; this advisory board to have power to fill vacancies and to add to their number (see minutes of Board of Directors, Detroit volume of Proceedings, pp. 37, 39).

The membership of the committee is as follows:

W. T. Harris, Commissioner of Education of the United States, Washington, D. C., chairman.

Edwin A. Alderman, president of Tulane University, New Orleans, La.

Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, New York, N. Y.

William H. Maxwell, superintendent of schools, New York, N. Y.

James MacAlister, president of Drexel Institute, Philadelphia, Pa.

Calvin M. Woodward, director of manual training, Washington University, St. Louis, Mo.

Halsey C. Ives, director of Museum of Fine Arts, St. Louis, Mo.

Aaron Gove, ex-superintendent of schools, district No. 1, Denver, Colo.

Andrew S. Draper, commissioner of education for the state of New York, Albany, N. Y.

William R. Harper, president of University of Chicago, Chicago, Ill.

Arthur T. Hadley, president of Yale University, New Haven, Conn.

David Starr Jordan, president of Leland Stanford, Jr., University, Stanford University, Cal.

J. G. Schurman, president of Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.

Daniel C. Gilman, president of The Carnegie Institution, Washington, D. C.

James M. Greenwood, superintendent of schools, Kansas City, Mo.

Charles M. Jordan, superintendent of schools, Minneapolis, Minn.

Lewis H. Jones, president of State Normal College, Ypsilanti, Mich.

W. T. Carrington, state superintendent of public instruction, Jefferson City, Mo.

F. Louis Soldan, superintendent of schools, St. Louis, Mo.

Carroll G. Pearce, superintendent of schools, Omaha, Neb.

Since the work of this committee will be finished at the close of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition it is expected that a report will be presented at the meeting of the Board of Directors in 1905.

Respectfully submitted,

IRWIN SHEPARD, Secretary.

ARTHUR ALLIN, Ph.D., professor of psychology and education, University of Colorado died at his home in Boulder, Colo., November 17, 1903.

Dr. Allin was born in Utica, Ontario, Canada, in 1869, where he received his early education. In 1884 he was graduated from the Teachers' Professional and Training School of Port Perry, Ontario. After three years' service in the public schools as teacher and principal, he entered Victorian University, Toronto, from which he was graduated with high honors in classics, philosophy, and civil polity. He was subsequently a student at Heidelberg, Breslau, and Berlin, Germany, receiving the degree of doctor of philosophy. Being tendered a fellowship at Clark University, he remained there one year, when he was appointed to a position in the department of philosophy and education of Ohio University. In the fall of 1897 he was appointed to the chair of philosophy and education in the University of Colorado. Dr. Allin was a frequent contributor to educational journals and the author of a number of valuable monographs. He originated and carried to successful issue the University of Colorado Studies and Investigations of the Department of Psychology and Education of the University of Colorado. At the time of his death he was preparing a work on the Principles of Education.

He became an active member of the National Educational Association in 1899.

EDWARD S. AVIS, Ph.D., captain in the United States Army (retired) and president of the North Georgia Agricultural College, died at his home in Dahlonega, Ga., April 2, 1904.

Captain Avis was born at Harpers Ferry, W. Va., May 18, 1857. He entered West Point Military Academy at the age of eighteen years and was graduated in 1880 with high honors. On graduation he joined the Fifth Regiment of United States Infantry, commanded by Colonel Nelson A. Miles, and with his regiment saw much active field service against hostile Indians on the western plains. From 1888 to 1891 he was, by detail of the War Department, commandant of cadets and professor of mathematics at the West Virginia University, and received his degree of doctor of philosophy from that institution in 1890. In 1891 he was transferred to the Eighteenth United States Infantry as first lieutenant and saw service with his regiment in Texas. In 1898 he was promoted to rank of captain and was retired from service by reason of injuries received while on duty with his regiment. After retirement from active service in the army he resumed his work as a teacher, and at the time of his death was president of the North Georgia Agricultural College, at Dahlonega, Ga., having been elected in June, 1904.

He became an active member of the National Educational Association in 1903, soon after the Boston convention.

ANNICE E. BRADFORD BUTTS, principal of Kenwood Institute, died in Chicago, January 1, 1904.

Miss Butts was born in Rome, N. Y., September 22, 1844. Her education was obtained at Stanwix Academy, from which she graduated in 1867, and at Washington University, from which she took the degree of master of arts in 1898. During her career as a teacher she was successively principal of the Joliet Illinois High School and of the Fifty-fourth Street School, Chicago, Ill.; a teacher in Dearborn Seminary; and proprietor and principal of the Kenwood Institute for Girls.

She became an active member of the National Educational Association in 1896.

NEWELL COOK, assistant professor of chemistry and physics in Albion College, died at Albion, Mich., April 17, 1904.

Mr. Cook was born near Hanover, Mich., November 2, 1870. He was graduated from Hanover High School in 1889, and after teaching for a year entered Albion College, Mich., from which institution he was graduated with the degree of bachelor of science in 1894. During his course he had specialized in mathematics, and the following fall became professor of that department in Carleton College, Farmington, Mo., remaining there for four years. Later he traveled for an educational specialty company, spending some time in California. In the spring of 1901, after a year of special work in chemistry at the University of Michigan, he returned to Albion College as assistant professor of chemistry and physics, and in addition was associated in laboratory work with State Superintendent of Public Instruction Delos Fall.

He became an active member of the National Educational Association in 1901.

FREDERICK ALBERT CURTISS, superintendent of schools, Westport, Conn., died at his home in that city June 23, 1904.

Superintendent Curtiss was born in the town of Trumbull, Conn., February 22, 1867. In early youth his parents removed to Bridgeport, Conn., where he attended the public schools, graduating from the high school in 1887. In September of that year he entered the New Britain Normal School, graduating in June of 1888.

He began teaching in a rural school of the town of Portland, Conn., in September, 1888; in 1890 he became principal of a graded school in Norwich Town; in 1902 he became principal of the high school at Saybrook, Conn., in which position and as supervisor of graded schools he served for eleven years. He resigned in June, 1903, to accept the position which he held at the time of his death.

He became an active member of the National Educational Association in 1894.

WILLIAM H. H. DUNN was born in Plainfield, N. J., August 8, 1837, and died in Williamsbridge, New York city, October 12, 1903. He attended the New Jersey public schools, and began to teach at the age of eighteen years. After about three years of teaching he entered Alfred University, Alfred Centre, N. Y., having the ministry in view. After leaving college he engaged in educational work again, and, at the same time, supplied different churches as a local preacher, having been ordained deacon and elder in regular order. He was principal of schools in Bronxdale, N. Y., and, for nineteen years, of Public School No. 13, Williamsbridge. He was a member of Bronx Council, No. 1416, Royal Arcanum, and chaplain of the Hebron Lodge, No. 813, F. & A. M. He was also a member of the New York Schoolmasters' Club, and of the Manhattan and Bronx Male Principals' Association.

He became an active member of the National Educational Association in 1903.

SIR JOSHUA FITCH, LL.D., corresponding member of the National Educational Association, died in London, England, August 15, 1903.

Sir Joshua Fitch was born in London, England, in 1824. He received his college education in the University of London and was granted the degree of master of arts in 1852; he was fellow in the same institution in 1875. The degree of doctor of laws was granted by St. Andrews University. He was principal of the training college of the British and Foreign School Society from 1852 to 1863. In 1863 he was appointed by Lord Granville as one of Her Majesty's inspectors of schools in Yorkshire and later in eastern counties. He had been fellow and member of the senate of the University of London, and examiner for many government departments, and also for the Society of Arts. He was knighted for public services on his retirement from office in 1896. He was author of Lectures on Teaching, delivered before the University of Cambridge in 1880, and also of many books and essays of superior merit on educational and literary topics.

He was elected corresponding member of the National Educational Association in 1898.

JOSEPH POTTS FUNK died at his home at New Albany, Ind., August 20, 1904.

Principal Funk was born March 28, 1837, near Elizabeth, Ind. His early training was received at James G. May's famous private school at Corydon, Ind., and at Anderson's Business College, New Albany, Ind. He attended the Indiana State University, and later the National Normal University, at Lebanon, O., from which he received the degree of master of arts. He began teaching in Harrison county and became principal of the Corydon schools; he was made superintendent of schools of Mitchell, Ind.; and later became the first county superintendent of Lawrence county. After one year's service he returned to Corydon as superintendent of schools, where he remained thirteen years. This position he resigned to become principal of the High School of New Albany, Ind., where he served until the spring of 1903, when he resigned on account of failing health.

He became an active member of the National Educational Association in 1899.

WILLIAM ROBERTSON GARRETT, LL.D, professor of American history in Peabody Normal College, Nashville, Tenn., died in that city February 12, 1904.

Dr. Garrett was born at Williamsburg, Va., April 12, 1839. At fifteen years of age he entered William and Mary College, from which he graduated with the degree of master of arts in 1857. He then studied law at the University of Virginia, and was engaged in the practice of his profession when the Civil War broke out. He enlisted as a private in the Confederate army in April, 1861, in a regiment commanded by Colonel Benjamin S. Ewell. Later he served as captain of the Lee Artillery of the First Regiment of Virginia Artillery; as commander of a battalion of partisan rangers in Tennessee; as adjutant of the Douglass battalion of partisan rangers; and as adjutant of the Eleventh Tennessee Cavalry in which he served, under General Forrest, until the surrender of the regiment at Gainesville, Ga., at the close of the war. Returning to his home at Williamsburg, Va., he accepted the position of master of the grammar school of William and Mary College, of which his old commander, Colonel Benjamin S. Ewell, had been elected president. In 1868 he removed to Tennessee, and successively held prominent educational positions in that state as president of Giles College, superintendent of schools for Giles county, principal of the Cornersville Academy, professor of mathematics in Montgomery Bell Academy of the University of Nashville, state superintendent of public instruction for Tennessee, principal of the Military Academy of Nashville, and the position which he held at the time of his death.

He became an active member of the National Educational Association in 1886, and was President of the Association for 1890-91 (Toronto meeting), after which he became ex-officio life director of the Association.

LOUIS A. GOODENOUGH, superintendent of schools, Paterson, N. J., died in Belleville, N. Y., August 5, 1905.

Superintendent Goodenough was born in Saratoga Springs, N. Y., November 25, 1864. In early life he attended school in Hamilton, N. Y., where his father, Professor M. M. Goodenough, and his mother, Mary Brigham Goodenough, conducted the old Hamilton Female Seminary for twenty-five years. He graduated from Colgate University in 1886. After graduation he taught at Ghent, N. Y., one year; at Nyack-on-the-Hudson, one year; at Scotch Plains, seven years; and then became principal of a grammar school in Jersey City, N. J. For three years before his death he had been superintendent of schools at Paterson, N. J.

He became an active member of the National Educational Association in 1903.

ALEXANDER CAMPBELL GOODWIN, Ph.D., superintendent of city schools, Jeffersonville, Ind., died at his home in Jeffersonville February 15, 1904.

Dr. Goodwin was born in Utica, Clark county, Ind., June 3, 1846. His early education was obtained in the public schools of New Albany, Ind. Later he became a student for three years in the Kentucky University, at Lexington, Ky. He returned to Utica, in 1886, where he began his life-work as a teacher. He taught in the intermediate department of the schools of Jeffersonville, and when the high school was organized became its first principal. From 1870 he served for several successive terms as county examiner and county superintendent of schools, until 1882, when he was elected superintendent of the city schools of Owensboro, Ky. After five years in this position he resigned to establish the Owensboro Female College, which he conducted for a number of years. In 1899 he returned to Jeffersonville, Ind., to accept the position of superintendent of schools, holding the same until the time of his death.

He became an active member of the National Educational Association in 1899.

GEORGE GRIFFITH, Ph.D., superintendent of schools of Utica, N. Y., was drowned in Honnedaga Lake, in the Adirondacks, N. Y., May 28, 1904.

Dr. Griffith was born in Trenton, N. Y., September 11, 1853. He attended the district schools, and at the age of seventeen began teaching in the town of Western, where he then lived. In 1867 he entered Whitestown Seminary, from which he graduated in 1872. He afterwards taught school in Western, in the village of Newport, and in Westernville.

In 1873 he entered Hamilton College and graduated in 1877 with Phi Beta Kappa rank. In September of the same year he became principal of a private academy in New Berlin, N. Y. The following year he returned to the town of Western and served for nearly three years as school commissioner for the Fourth Oneida district. Later he returned to New Berlin and became principal of the Union School for two years. In 1883 he was appointed superintendent of the public-school system of Lockport, N. Y., and served three years. In 1886 he was appointed teacher of psychology and methods, and superintendent of the practice school at the State Normal School of New Paltz, N. Y. Here he remained for six years. In 1892 he became superintendent of city schools at Utica, N. Y., which position he held at the time of his death. He received the degree of bachelor of arts from Hamilton College in 1877, and of doctor of philosophy from the Illinois Wesleyan University in 1893.

He became an active member of the National Educational Association in 1893.

JOHN I. JEGI, professor of psychology and pedagogy of the State Normal School at Milwaukee, Wis., died at his home in Milwaukee January 7, 1904.

Professor JEGI was born in Buffalo County, Wis., December 3, 1866. He began teaching at the age of sixteen, and taught from 1882 to 1888 at Courtland, Arcadia, and Osseo, Wis. He then attended Dixon College, Illinois, for one year. He was principal of schools at Blair, Wis., from 1889 to 1891, and at Arcadia, Wis., from 1891 to 1894. He attended the University of Chicago from 1894 to 1896, and received the degree of bachelor of science from that institution, and the degree of master of science from Dixon College. He was a member of the Wisconsin Academy of Science, Arts, and Letters from 1896, and, at the time of his death, president of the Wisconsin Association for Child Study. He was appointed in 1896 to the position which he held at the time of his death.

He became an active member of the National Educational Association in 1901.

CHARLES WILLARD LEWIS, D.D., president of the State University of Wyoming, died in Greeley, Colo., June 19, 1904.

Dr. Lewis was born August 30, 1860, at New Trenton, Ind. He graduated at Moores Hill College in 1890, receiving the degree of bachelor of science and of master of science in 1893. He was given the degree of doctor of divinity by Depauw University in 1899.

He was professor of mathematics at Moores Hill College from 1890-1893, and president of the same college from 1898 to 1903. He became president of the State University of Wyoming September 3, 1903. His death occurred in Greeley, Colo., on baccalaureate day, and the funeral services were held in the state university building at Laramie, Wyo., on commencement day.

He became an active member of the National Educational Association in 1902.

Mr. Murphy was born in St. Louis county, Mo., March 30, 1846. His early life was spent on the farm on which he was born. He entered the public schools of St. Louis about 1861 and remained several years. Later he entered Edward Wyman's City University and was graduated with honor in 1867. After graduation he became a teacher in a district now a part of the city of St. Louis, and continued in the work of teaching thirty-six years, until the time of his death. Soon after he began teaching he was elected county commissioner of schools of his native county, and served in this office for four years. When Mr. Murphy's district was taken into the city, he was taken with it. He served successively as principal of the Rock Spring school, the Carondelet school, the O'Fallon school, and the Clinton school. In 1890 he was elected as assistant superintendent of instruction, and continued in this office until the time of his death.

He became an active member of the National Educational Association in 1891, and had served for several years as state director.

EMMA A. NEWMAN died after an illness of three days at Halifax, N. S., August 27, 1904, while on a vacation tour of Nova Scotia with her father.

Miss Newman was born at Buffalo, N. Y., December 9, 1859. She received her early education in the schools of Buffalo, and her special training as a kindergartner at Madame Kraus-Boelte's Kindergarten Institute, of New York city, graduating in 1883. From 1883 to 1889 she held the position of kindergarten director at the Normal College of the City of New York. She continued her studies at the same time in the University of the City of New York, receiving the degree of master of pedagogy in 1894. She next taught private kindergartens in the city of Buffalo, having had charge of the Franklin Kindergarten and of the kindergarten at the Buffalo Seminary. She next taught for four years, 1897 to 1901, in the primary grades of the public schools of Buffalo, that she might study more closely the problem of the relations of the kindergarten to primary education. She accomplished much in this field, but was called from it to the care of her parents during the last two years of her life. She was the author of various articles of great value in current educational publications, especially on the relations of the kindergarten to primary education.

Miss Newman became an active member of the National Educational Association in 1900.

PREAMBLE

To elevate the character and advance the interests of the profession of teaching, and to promote the cause of popular education in the United States, we, whose names are subjoined, agree to adopt the following

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I—NAME

This Association shall be styled the NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

ARTICLE II—DEPARTMENTS

SECTION 1. It shall consist of eighteen departments: first, of Superintendence; second, of Normal Schools; third, of Elementary Education; fourth, of Higher Education; fifth, of Manual Training; sixth, of Art Education; seventh, of Kindergarten Education; eighth, of Music Education; ninth, of Secondary Education; tenth, of Business Education; eleventh, of Child Study; twelfth, of Physical Education; thirteenth, of Natural Science Instruction; fourteenth, of School Administration; fifteenth, the Library Department; sixteenth, of Special Education; seventeenth, of Indian Education; and eighteenth, the National Council of Education.

SEC. 2. Other departments may be organized in the manner prescribed in this constitution.

ARTICLE III—MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. There shall be three classes of members, namely, active, associate, and corresponding.

SEC. 2. Teachers and all who are actively associated with the management of educational institutions, including libraries and periodicals, may become active members. All others who pay an annual membership fee of two dollars may become associate members.

Eminent educators not residing in America may be elected by the Directory to be corresponding members. The number of corresponding members shall at no time exceed fifty.

SEC. 3. Any person eligible may become an active member upon application indorsed by two active members, and the payment of an enrollment fee of two dollars and the annual dues for the current year.

Active members only have the right to vote and to hold office in the general Association or in the several departments.

All active members must pay annual dues of two dollars, and will be entitled to the volume of Proceedings without "coupon" or other conditions. The annual membership fee shall be payable at the time of the annual convention, or by remittance to the Secretary before September 1 of each year. Any active member may discontinue membership by giving written notice to the Secretary before September 1, and may restore the same only on payment of the enrollment fee of two dollars and the annual dues for the current year.

All life members and life directors shall be denominated active members, and shall enjoy all the powers and privileges of such members without the payment of annual dues.

Associate members may receive the volume of Proceedings in accordance with the usual "coupon" conditions, as printed on the membership certificate.

Corresponding members will be entitled to the volume of Proceedings without the payment of fees or other conditions.

SEC. 4. The names of active and corresponding members only will be printed in the volume of Proceedings, with their respective educational titles, offices, and addresses, the list to be revised annually by the Secretary of the Association.

ARTICLE IV—OFFICERS

SECTION 1. The officers of this Association shall consist of a President, twelve Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Board of Directors, a Board of Trustees, and an Executive Committee, as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. The Board of Directors shall consist of the President of the National Educational Association, First Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, chairman of the Board of Trustees, and one additional member from each state, territory, or district, to be elected by the Association for the term of one year, or until their successors are chosen, and of all life directors elected previous to July 10, 1895.

All past Presidents of the Association now living (July 10, 1895), and all future Presidents at the close of their respective terms of office, and the United States Commissioner of Education, shall be life directors of the Association.

The President of the National Educational Association, First Vice-President, Treasurer, chairman of the Board of Trustees, and a member of the Association to be chosen annually by the Board of Directors, which member shall hold office for one year, shall constitute the Executive Committee.

SEC. 3. The elective officers of the Association, with the exception of the Secretary shall be chosen by the active members of the Association by ballot, unless otherwise ordered, on the third day of each session, a majority of the votes cast being necessary for choice. They shall continue in office until the close of the annual session subsequent to their election, and until their successors are chosen, except as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 4. Each department shall be administered by a president, vice-president, secretary, and such other officers as it shall deem necessary to conduct its affairs; but no person shall be elected to any office of the Association, or of any department, who is not, at the time of the election, an active member of the Association.

SEC. 5. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Association and of the Board of Directors, and shall perform the duties usually devolving upon a presiding officer. In his absence, the First Vice-President in order, who is present, shall preside; and in the absence of all Vice-Presidents, a pro-tempore chairman shall be appointed on nomination, the Secretary putting the question.

SEC. 6. The Secretary shall keep a full and accurate report of the proceedings of the general meetings of the Association and all meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall conduct such correspondence as the directors may assign, and shall have his records present at all meetings of the Association and of the Board of Directors. The secretary of each department shall, in addition to performing the duties usually pertaining to his office, keep a list of the members of his department.

SEC. 7. The Treasurer shall receive, and under the direction of the Board of Trustees hold in safe-keeping, all moneys paid to the Association; shall expend the same only upon the order of said board; shall keep an exact account of his receipts and expenditures, with vouchers for the latter, which accounts, ending the first day of July each year, he shall render to the Board of Trustees and, when approved by said board, he shall report the same to the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall give such bond for the faithful discharge of his duties as may be required by the Board of Trustees; and he shall continue in office until the first meeting of the Board of Directors held prior to the annual meeting of the Association next succeeding that for which he is elected.

SEC. 8. The Board of Directors shall have power to fill all vacancies in their own body; shall have in charge the general interests of the Association, excepting those herein intrusted to the Board of Trustees; shall make all necessary arrangements for its meetings, and shall do all in its power to make it a useful and honorable institution. Upon the written application of twenty active members of the Association for permission to establish a new department, it may grant such permission. Such new department shall in all respects be entitled to the same rights and privileges as the others. The formation of such department shall in effect be a sufficient amendment to this constitution for the insertion of its name in Art. II, and the Secretary shall make the necessary alterations.

SEC. 9. The Board of Trustees shall consist of four members, elected by the Board of Directors for the term of four years, and the President of the Association, who shall be a member ex officio during his term of office. At the election of the trustees in 1886, one trustee shall be elected for one year, one for two years, one for three years, and one for four years; and annually thereafter, at the first meeting of the Board of Directors held prior to the annual meeting of the Association, one trustee shall be elected for the term of four years. All vacancies occurring in said Board of Trustees, whether by resignation or otherwise, shall be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired term; and the absence of a trustee from two successive annual meetings of the board shall forfeit his membership therein. The Board of Trustees thus elected shall constitute the body corporate of the Association, as provided in the certificate of incorporation under the provisions of the Act of General Incorporation, Class Third, of the Revised Statutes of the District of Columbia, dated the 24th day of February, 1886, at Washington D. C., and recorded in Liber No. 4, "Acts of Incorporation for the District of Columbia."

SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the Board of Trustees to provide for safe-keeping and investment of all funds which the Association may receive from donations; and the income of such invested funds shall be used exclusively in paying the cost of publishing the annual volume of Proceedings of the Association, excepting when donors shall specify otherwise. It shall also be the duty of the board to issue orders on the Treasurer for the payment of all bills approved by the Board of Directors, or by the President and Secretary of the Association acting under the authority of the Board of Directors; and, when practicable, the trustees shall invest all surplus funds exceeding one hundred dollars that shall remain in the hands of the Treasurer after paying the expenses of the Association for the previous year.

SEC. 11. The Board of Trustees shall elect the Secretary of the Association, who shall also be secretary of the Executive Committee, and shall fix the compensation and the term of office for a period not to exceed four years.

ARTICLE V—MEETINGS

SECTION 1. The annual meeting of the Association shall be held at such time and place as shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

SEC. 2. Special meetings may be called by the President at the request of five directors.

SEC. 3. Any department of the Association may hold a special meeting at such time and place as by its own regulations it shall appoint.

SEC. 4. The Board of Directors shall hold its regular meetings at the place and not less than two hours before the assembling of the Association.

SEC. 5. Special meetings may be held at such other times and places as the board or the President shall determine.

SEC. 6. Each new board shall organize at the session of its election. At its first meeting a committee on publication shall be appointed, which shall consist of the President and the Secretary of the Association for the previous year, and one member from each department.

ARTICLE VI—BY-LAWS

By-laws not inconsistent with this constitution may be adopted by a two-thirds vote of the Association.

ARTICLE VII—AMENDMENTS

This constitution may be altered or amended at a regular meeting by the unanimous vote of the members present; or by a two-thirds vote of the members present, provided that the alteration or amendment has been substantially proposed in writing at a previous meeting.

BY-LAWS

1. At the first session of each annual meeting of the Association there shall be appointed by the President a committee on resolutions; and at the third session of such meeting there shall be appointed a committee on nominations, consisting of one member from each state and territory represented, the same to be appointed by the President on the nomination of a majority of the active members from such state or territory present at the meeting called for the purpose of making such nomination; provided, however, that such appointment shall be made by the President without such nomination, when the active members in attendance from any state or territory shall fail to make a nomination.

The meetings of active members to nominate members of the nominating committee shall be held at 5:30 P. M. on the first day of the annual meeting of the Association, at such place as shall be announced in the general program.

2. The President and Secretary shall certify to the Board of Trustees all bills approved by the Board of Directors.

3. Each paying member of the Association shall be entitled to a copy of its Proceedings.

4. No paper, lecture, or address shall be read before the Association or any of its departments in the absence of its author, nor shall any such paper, lecture, or address be published in the volume of Proceedings, without the consent of the Association, upon approval of the Executive Committee.

5. It shall be the duty of the President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the Association to appoint annually some competent person to examine the securities of the Permanent Fund held by the Board of Trustees, and his certificate, showing the condition of the said fund, shall be attached to the report of the Board of Trustees.

ACT OF INCORPORATION

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the National Educational Association, held at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., July 14, 1885, the following resolution was passed.

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to secure articles of incorporation for the National Educational Association, under United States or state laws, as speedily as may be.

N. A. Calkins, of New York; Thomas W. Bicknell, of Massachusetts, and Eli T. Tappan, of Ohio, were appointed such committee.

Under the authority of the resolution quoted above, and with the approval of the committee, and by competent legal advice, the chairman obtained a

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

We, the undersigned, Norman A. Calkins, John Eaton, and Zalmon Richards, citizens of the United States, and two of them citizens of the District of Columbia, do hereby associate ourselves together, pursuant to the provisions of the Act of General Incorporation, Class Third, of the Revised Statutes of the District of Columbia, under the name of the "National Educational Association," for the full period of twenty years, the purpose and objects of which are to elevate the character and advance the interests of the profession of teaching and to promote the cause of popular education in the United States. . . . To secure the full benefit of said act we do here execute this our certificate of incorporation as said act provides.

In witness whereof, we severally set our hands and seals this 24th day of February, 1886, at Washington, D. C.

JOHN EATON. [L. S.]

ZALMON RICHARDS. [L. S.]

Duly acknowledged before Michael P. Callan, Notary Public in and for the District of Columbia, and recorded in Liber No. 4, Acts of Incorporation for the District of Columbia.

CHICAGO, September 5, 1905.

Executive Committee, National Educational Association of the United States.

GENTLEMEN: In accordance with instructions received from Mr. A. G. Lane, chairman of the Board of Trustees, we have examined the books and accounts of the National Educational Association of the United States, as kept by the Secretary, Dr. Irwin Shepard, and the Treasurer, Mr. J. W. Crabtree.

We have verified the Treasurer's report, submitted at the meeting of the Association at Asbury Park and Ocean Grove, N. J., and we certify both reports to be in accordance with the books.

We are pleased to be able to report that the books are correctly kept, and are, in our opinion, well suited to the needs of the Association.

Yours respectfully,

THE INTERNATIONAL AUDIT COMPANY,
By JOHN McLAREN, President.

Morning service at 10:30 A. M.; Bishop James N. FitzGerald, D.D., conducting. Sermon by Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis, of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Evening service at 8 P. M.; Rev. A. E. Ballard, D.D., conducting. Sermon by Rev. Russell H. Conwell, of Baptist Temple, Philadelphia, Pa.

Music for both services was furnished by the Auditorium Choir and Ocean Grove Festival Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Tali Esen Morgan, director of music, Ocean Grove.

The exercises were arranged and the preachers secured by Dr. James M. Green, of Trenton, N. J., acting by request of President William H. Maxwell.

OPENING SESSION.—MONDAY, JULY 3

The forty-fourth annual convention of the National Educational Association was called to order by President William H. Maxwell, of New York city, at 8 P. M., in the Auditorium at Ocean Grove, N. J.

Various selections by the Ocean Grove Festival Orchestra had been rendered while the audience was assembling.

The music at all general sessions were under the direction of Mr. Tali Esen Morgan and was furnished by the Ocean Grove Festival Chorus and the Ocean Grove Festival Orchestra, and several eminent soloists under the leadership of Mr. Morgan. Mr. J. H. Von Nardroff presided at the Auditorium organ.

The exercises were opened with prayer by Bishop James N. FitzGerald, D.D., of Ocean Grove.

Dr. James M. Green, principal of the State Normal School at Trenton, N. J., delivered an address of welcome on behalf of Hon. Edward C. Stokes, governor of New Jersey, who was absent on account of illness.

A response to the address of welcome was made by Albert G. Lane, district superintendent of schools, Chicago, Ill., who was President of the National Educational Association at the Asbury Park convention in July, 1894.

A musical solo, "The Lord Worketh Wonders," by Handel, was sung by Julian Walker, accompanied by the Ocean Grove Festival Orchestra.

The annual address of the President of the Association was delivered by President William H. Maxwell, of New York city, on the subject, "Education for Efficiency."

A musical solo, "The Two Grenadiers," by Schumann, was sung by Julian Walker.

Dr. W. T. Harris, United States Commissioner of Education, presented an address on "The Future of Teachers' Salaries," which was followed by an address on "The Uses of Educational Museums," by Frederick J. V. Skiff, director of the Field Columbian Museum, Chicago, Ill. A discussion of the subject followed by J. W. Carr, superintendent of schools, Anderson, Ind.

The Committee on Resolutions was then announced, as follows:

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

Eliphalet Oram Lyte, Chairman, principal of State Normal School, Millersville, Pa.
 Charles J. Baxter, state superintendent of schools, Trenton, N. J.
 Edwin G. Cooley, superintendent of schools, Chicago, Ill.
 Frank B. Cooper, superintendent of schools, Seattle, Wash.
 Charles D. McIver, president of State Normal and Industrial College, Greensboro, N. C.
 Miss Anna Tolman Smith, Bureau of Education, Washington, D. C.
 Miss Harriet Emerson, principal of Central Grammar School, Springfield, Mass.
 O. J. Kern, county superintendent of schools, Rockford, Ill.
 Edward J. Goodwin, second assistant commissioner of education, Albany, N. Y.
 William L. Bryan, president of Indiana University, Bloomington, Ind.

The convention then adjourned to meet at 2:30 P. M., Tuesday, July 4.

SECOND SESSION.—TUESDAY, JULY 4

The convention was called to order at 2:30 P. M., in the Ocean Grove Auditorium, by President William H. Maxwell.

Prayer was offered by Rev. A. E. Ballard, D.D., of Ocean Grove, N. J.

An overture, "America," was rendered by the Ocean Grove Festival Orchestra.

The first address of the session was on "The Fundamentals in Education," by Hon. George B. McClellan, mayor of the city of New York.

An address on "The Nation's Educational Purpose" was delivered by Hon. Andrew S. Draper, state commissioner of education for New York, Albany, N. Y.

The Ocean Grove Festival Chorus and Orchestra rendered the musical selection "Great God of Nations," by Wagner.

In the absence of President Edwin A. Alderman, of the University of Virginia, who was appointed to speak on "American Idealism," Dr. James H. Canfield, of Columbia University, supplied President Alderman's place and addressed the convention on the same subject. Mr. Canfield was not willing to have the stenographer's report of his address published in the volume of Proceedings, since it was delivered without time for due preparation, and simply to fill out the program for the afternoon, at the request of President Maxwell, when it was known that President Alderman would not be present.

The national anthem, "America," was sung by the chorus and audience.

The convention adjourned to Wednesday evening, July 5, at 8 P. M.

THIRD SESSION—WEDNESDAY, JULY 5

The convention assembled in the Ocean Grove Auditorium at 8 P. M., and was called to order by President Maxwell.

Prayer was offered by Rev. John Leroy Taylor, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Asbury Park.

A musical solo, "The Serenade," by Berlioz, was sung by William Harper.

The topic "Child Labor and Compulsory Education" was discussed as follows:

a) "The School Aspect," by George H. Martin, secretary of State Board of Education for Massachusetts, Boston, Mass.

b) "The Legal Aspect," by Franklin H. Giddings, professor of sociology, Columbia University, New York city.

William Harper again sang a solo, "Honor and Arms," by Handel.

The second topic of the evening was "The Immigrant Child," presented by Miss Julia Richmond, district superintendent of schools, New York city.

The following Committee on Nominations was announced by the Secretary, having been appointed by the President in accordance with By-Law No. 1:

BUSINESS SESSION.—THURSDAY, JULY 6

MINUTES OF THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE ACTIVE MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION

The meeting was called to order by President William H. Maxwell, at 12 M., in the First Methodist Episcopal Church.

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: The first business is the reading of the minutes of the last annual meeting.

On motion, the reading of the minutes was dispensed with, and the same were approved as printed in the annual volume of Proceedings of the St. Louis meeting.

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: The next business is the annual report of the Treasurer of the Association.

Copies of the report were distributed to the members present.

On motion, the report of the Treasurer was accepted and approved, and ordered printed in the annual volume of Proceedings.

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: The next item of business is the report of the chairman of the Board of Trustees.

ALBERT G. LANE, chairman of the Board of Trustees: Printed copies of the report have been distributed to the members present. I wish to call your attention to the statement of securities at the end of the report. The permanent fund having been increased to approximately $150,000 required more time and attention than it was possible for the chairman of the Board of Trustees to give it; consequently, at the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees last year, they voted to make the First Trust and Savings Bank, which is a part of the First National Bank of Chicago, the trust company in charge of the fund.

You will see by this statement that only those delinquent bonds in Kansas which are in process of collection are in the possession of the chairman of the Board of Trustees, while the active securities are all in the hands of the First Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago. That bank transacts all the business for a commission of one-eighth of one per cent., and has the custody of the bonds. Superintendent Carroll G. Pearce, of Milwaukee, was appointed examiner of securities for the current year; his certificate follows the report.

I call attention to the footnote under "Mortgages on Chicago Real Estate." Steps were taken for foreclosure of the Hord note and the Wallace notes because the property had been sold to other parties. There were some second mortgages, and we thought best to protect our interests by foreclosure.

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: Does any member of the Association desire to ask Chairman Lane any question with regard to the report?

T. A. Mott, of Indiana, moved that the report be approved as printed, and that it be incorporated in the printed volume of Proceedings; seconded; carried without opposing vote.

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: The report of the Committee on Nominations is next in order.

James L. Hays, of New Jersey, chairman of the Committee on Nominations, read the report.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) { JAMES L. HAYS, Chairman.
E. H. MARK, Secretary.

Andrew S. Draper, of New York, moved that the report be received and that the Secretary be instructed to cast the ballot of the members present for the nominees named in the report; seconded by J. H. Phillips, of Alabama; carried by unanimous vote.

THE SECRETARY: The ballot is so cast.

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: I have pleasure in announcing that Superintendent Nathan C. Schaeffer, of Pennsylvania, has been elected your President for the ensuing year, and that the other ladies and gentlemen mentioned in this report have all been elected to the respective offices for which they were nominated.

MR. DRAPER: I feel disposed to say a word in this connection. I do not expect to express the feelings or the thought of anyone besides myself. I feel that the Association is to be congratulated upon electing to the presidency the distinguished, scholarly, long-experienced head of the public educational system of the state of Pennsylvania; but I do not mean by that remark to be understood as feeling otherwise than that I should be glad enough at any time in this Association to vote for that other distinguished man who has been mentioned in connection with the office of President, and who is so deserving of popular commendation and of public support, Mr. Charles D. McIver, of North Carolina. But time sets all things even.

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: Commissioner Draper has expressed what is in the hearts of everyone of us.

The next business in order is the report of the Board of Trustees and the Board of Directors on reincorporation, as provided by resolutions passed by the active members at the last annual meeting.

The Secretary announced that the report of the Board of Trustees to the Board of Directors, dated April 20, 1905 (for copy of report see minutes of Board of Directors), had been transmitted to the members of the latter body by mail, and that sixty-five directors responded, all voting to approve the report of the Board of Trustees, except two directors, who cast qualified affirmative votes; also that on May 25 a circular letter was sent to all active members, inclosing a copy of the adopted report of the Board of Trustees, a copy of the proposed bill of incorporation and of the proposed by-laws, and giving notice that the report would be presented for adoption at this meeting, in accordance with the directions in the resolutions passed at the meeting, June 30, 1904.

The Secretary also reported that the Board of Directors, at an adjourned meeting on July 4, had voted to recommend certain changes in sec. 7 of the proposed bill, and that this section had been printed on a separate slip in a form embodying the proposed amendments.

These slips, with copies of the original proposed bill, of the proposed by-laws, and of the report of the trustees, were distributed to the members present.

Dr. F. Louis Soldan was then recognized by the chair as the member authorized by the Board of Directors and the Board of Trustees to present the report and recommendations of those boards, and to explain the proposed bill for reincorporation, and the amendments to sec. 7 recommended by the Board of Directors, as well as all other matters connected with the subject. This he proceeded to do by reporting, as a matter of information, the adoption by the Board of Directors of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Board of Directors approve and adopt the recommendations of the Board of Trustees that application be made to Congress for a special act in the form herewith submitted, or in the amended form herewith submitted, to incorporate an association to be known as the "National Education Association of the United States," to succeed and continue the present association.

Resolved, That the Board of Directors recommend the following resolution to the Association for adoption:

He then moved the adoption of the resolutions offered by the Board of Directors, which motion was duly seconded, as follows:

Resolved, That this Association authorizes and requests the Board of Trustees to make application to Congress for a special act, in the following form, to incorporate an association to be known as the "National Education Association of the United States," to succeed and continue the National Educational Association.

A PROPOSED BILL TO INCORPORATE THE NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled:

SECTION 1. That the following named persons, who are now the officers and directors and trustees of the National Educational Association, a corporation organized in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, under the Act of General Incorporation of the Revised Statutes of the District of Columbia:

(Names of officers to be entered.)

and such other persons as now are or may hereafter be associated with them as officers or members of said association, are hereby incorporated and declared to be a body corporate by the name of the "National Education Association of the United States," and by that name shall be known and have perpetual succession with the powers, limitations, and restrictions herein contained.

SEC. 2. That the purpose and object of the said corporation shall be to elevate the character and advance the interests of the profession of teaching, and to promote the cause of education, in the United States. This corporation shall include the National Council of Education and the following departments, and such others as may hereafter be created by organization or consolidation, to wit: the Departments, first, of Superintendence; second, of Normal Schools; third, of Elementary Education; fourth, of Higher Education; fifth, of Manual Training; sixth, of Art Education; seventh, of Kindergarten Education; eighth, of Music Education; ninth, of Secondary Education; tenth, of Business Education; eleventh, of Child Study; twelfth, of Physical Education; thirteenth, of Natural Science Instruction; fourteenth, of School Administration; fifteenth, the Library Department; sixteenth, of Special Education; seventeenth, of Indian Education; and the number and names of these departments may be changed at the pleasure of the corporation, as provided in its By-Laws.

SEC. 3. That the said corporation shall further have power to have and to use a common seal, and to alter and change the same at its pleasure, to sue or be sued in any court of the United States, or other court of competent jurisdiction; to make by-laws not inconsistent with the provisions of this act or of the constitution of the United States; to take or receive, whether by gift, grant, devise, bequest, or purchase, any real or personal estate, and to hold, grant, convey, hire, or lease the same for the purposes of its incorporation; and to accept and administer any trust of real or personal estate for any educational purpose within the objects of the corporation.

SEC. 4. That all real property of the corporation within the District of Columbia, which shall be used by the corporation for the educational or other purposes of the corporation as aforesaid, other than the purposes of producing income, and all personal property and funds of the corporation held, used, or invested for educational purposes aforesaid, or to produce income to be used for such purposes, shall be exempt from taxation; provided, however, that this exemption shall not apply to any property of the corporation which shall not be used for, or the income of which shall not be applied to, the educational purposes of the corporation; and, provided further, that the corporation shall annually file, with the Commissioner of Education of the United States, a report in writing, stating in detail the property, real and personal, held by the corporation, and the expenditure or other use or disposition of the same, or the income thereof, during the preceding year.

SEC. 5. That the membership of the said corporation shall consist of three classes of members—viz., active, associate, and corresponding—whose qualifications, terms of membership, rights, and obligations shall be prescribed by the By-Laws of the corporation.

SEC. 6. That the officers of the said corporation shall be a President, twelve Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Board of Directors, an Executive Committee, and a Board of Trustees.

The Board of Directors shall consist of the President, the First Vice-President, the Secretary, the Treasurer, the chairman of the Board of Trustees, and one additional member from each state, territory, or district, to be elected by the active members for the term of one year, or until their successors are chosen, and of all life directors of the National Educational Association. The United States Commissioner of Education, and all former Presidents of the said Association now living, and all future Presidents of the Association hereby incorporated, at the close of their respective terms of office, shall be members of the Board of Directors for life. The Board of Directors shall have power to fill all vacancies in their own body; shall have in charge the general interests of the corporation, excepting those herein intrusted to the Board of Trustees; and shall possess such other powers as shall be conferred upon them by the By-Laws of the corporation.

The Executive Committee shall consist of five members, as follows: the President of the Association, the First Vice-President, the Treasurer, the Chairman of the Board of Trustees, and a member of the Association, to be chosen annually by the Board of Directors to serve one year. The said committee shall have authority to represent, and to act for, the Board of Directors in the intervals between the meetings of that body, to the extent of carrying out the legislation adopted by the Board of Directors under such general directions as may be given by said board.

The Board of Trustees shall consist of four members, elected by the Board of Directors for the term of four years, and the President of the Association, who shall be a member ex officio, during his term of office. At the first meeting of the Board of Directors, held during the annual meeting of the Association at which they were elected, they shall elect one trustee for the term of four years. All vacancies occurring in said Board of Trustees, whether by resignation or otherwise, shall be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired term; and the absence of a trustee from two successive annual meetings of the board shall forfeit his membership.

SEC. 7. That the funds of the corporation shall be in charge of the Board of Trustees, who shall provide for the safekeeping and investment of all funds and property of whatever kind, including that which the corporation may receive by donation, bequest, or devise; and the income of all such funds and property shall be used only to meet the cost of maintaining the organization of the Association and of publishing its annual volume of Proceedings, excepting when the donors shall specify otherwise, or the Board of Trustees shall otherwise direct. It shall also be the duty of the board to issue orders on the Treasurer for the payment of all bills approved by the Board of Directors, or by the President and Secretary of the Association acting under authority of the Board of Directors. When practicable, the Board of Trustees shall invest all surplus funds exceeding five hundred dollars that shall remain in the hands of the Treasurer after paying the expenses of the Association for the previous year, and providing for the fixed expenses and for all appropriations made by the Board of Directors for the ensuing year.

The Board of Trustees shall elect the Secretary of the Association, who shall also be secretary of the Executive Committee, and shall fix the compensation and the term of his office for a period not to exceed four years.

SEC. 8. That the principal office of the said corporation shall be in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, provided that the meetings of the corporation, its officers, committees, and departments, may be held, and that its business may be transacted, and an office or offices may be maintained, elsewhere, within the United States, as may be determined by the Board of Directors, or otherwise in accordance with the By-Laws.

SEC. 9. That the Charter, Constitution, and By-Laws of the National Educational Association shall continue in full force and effect until the next annual meeting of the Association appointed to be held thereunder, and until new By-Laws shall be adopted; and that the present officers, directors, and trustees of said Association shall continue to hold office and perform their respective duties as such, until the expiration of the terms for which they were severally elected or appointed, and until their successors are elected. That at such annual meeting the members of the National Educational Association, then present, shall organize and proceed to adopt By-Laws, to elect officers to succeed those whose terms have expired or are about to expire, and generally to organize the "National Education Association of the United States;" and that the Board of Trustees of the corporation hereby incorporated shall thereupon receive, take over, and enter into possession, custody, and management of all property, real and personal, of the corporation heretofore known as the National Educational Association, incorporated as aforesaid, under the Revised Statutes of the District of Columbia, and all its rights, contracts, claims, and property of every kind and nature whatsoever; and the several officers, directors and trustees of such last-named Association, or any other person having charge of any of the securities, funds, books, or property thereof, real or personal, shall on demand deliver the same to the proper officers, directors, or trustees of the corporation hereby created.

SEC. 10. That the rights of creditors of the said existing corporation, known as the National Educational Association, shall not in any manner be impaired by the passage of this act, or the transfer of the property heretofore mentioned, nor shall any liability or obligation, or the payment of any sum due or to become due, or any claim or demand, in any manner, or for any cause existing against the said existing corporation, be released or impaired; and the corporation hereby incorporated is declared to succeed to the obligations and liabilities, and to be held liable to pay and discharge all of the debts, liabilities, and contracts, of the said corporation so existing, to the same effect as if such new corporation had itself incurred the obligation or liability to pay such debt or damages, and no action or proceeding before any court or tribunal shall be deemed to have abated or been discontinued by reason of this act.

SEC. 11. That Congress may from time to time alter, repeal, or modify this act of incorporation, but no contract or individual right made or acquired shall thereby be divested or impaired.

Dr. Soldan then called attention to the amendment to Sec. 7 of the Proposed Bill, which had been distributed to the members on printed slips, as follows:

AMENDMENT TO SEC. 7 OF THE PROPOSED CHARTER RECOMMENDED BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION

SEC. 7. That the invested fund now known as the "Permanent Fund of the National Educational Association," when transferred to the corporation hereby created, shall be held by such corporation as a Permanent Fund and shall be in charge of the Board of Trustees, who shall provide for the safekeeping and investment of such fund, and of all other funds which the corporation may receive by donation, bequest, or devise. No part of the principal of such Permanent Fund or its accretions shall be expended, except by a two-thirds vote of the active members of the Association, upon the recommendation of the Board of Trustees, after such recommendation has been approved by vote of the Board of Directors, and after printed notice of the proposed expenditure has been mailed to all active members of the Association. The income of the Permanent Fund shall be used only to meet the cost of maintaining the organization of the Association and of publishing its annual volume of Proceedings, unless the terms of the donation, bequest, or devise shall otherwise specify, or the Board of Directors shall otherwise order. It shall also be the duty of the Board of Trustees to issue orders on the Treasurer for the payment of all bills approved by the Board of Directors, or by the President and Secretary of the Association acting under the authority of the Board of Directors. When practicable, the Board of Trustees shall invest as part of the Permanent Fund all surplus funds exceeding five hundred dollars that shall remain in the hands of the Treasurer after paying the expenses of the Association for the previous year, and providing for the fixed expenses and for all appropriations made by the Board of Directors for the ensuing year.

The Board of Trustees shall elect the Secretary of the Association, who shall also be secretary of the Executive Committee, and shall fix the compensation and the term of his office for a period not to exceed four years.

F. LOUIS SOLDAN, of St. Louis: I shall be as brief in the presentation of this matter as the importance of the subject permits. You all know the reasons which led to the presentation before the house of the matter of the reincorporation of the Association. You know that the present articles of incorporation of the National Educational Association expire by limitation in February next. This in itself shows the absolute necessity of definite action today, so that the corporate existence of this society may not lapse. The Board of Trustees, acting as a committee under resolutions passed at the last annual meeting, prepared articles of incorporation following closely the lines of the old constitution, embodying, with one exception to be mentioned later, nothing that was not contained in the constitution which has been in force for many years. The one exception, referred to in the disposition of the income of the Association: a disposition which, in the new draft, reserves the income from the permanent fund for two definite purposes, unless different purposes were indicated by the donors of the money for the permanent fund, or by a vote of certain of the bodies of the Association. Otherwise, the articles of incorporation—I refer now to the draft which was sent to your homes—is the same in substance as the old constitution. I beg to direct your attention to sec. 7 of the proposed bill of incorporation, because it is by all means the most important section in the document. The first draft of the articles of incorporation was adopted by vote, first by the Board of Trustees, then by the Board of Directors with but two dissenting qualified votes. When the matter, however, was discussed in the meeting of the Board of Directors on July 3, it seemed as if an improvement were possible in two directions—an improvement which, while it is advocated by the Board of Directors, is submitted to the members for their own consideration and approval. You have, therefore, two propositions before you, both backed by the recommendation of the Board of Directors. The first is the proposition to adopt the articles of incorporation as contained in the document sent to your homes, printed on the larger one of the two papers now before you. The second proposition, recommended by the Board of Directors unanimously, is to adopt the proposed amendment printed on the smaller paper now in your hands and make it a part, by substitution, of the original proposition for incorporation.

Now, in regard to the amendment, and the reasons which gave rise to its adoption in the Board of Directors: The amendment touches two points. It touches the so-called permanent fund; it touches the income from that permanent fund. It appeared in the discussion before the Board of Directors that the expression "permanent fund" was simply one that had become current by use in discussions, by headlines in the report of the Treasurer or Board of Trustees but which had absolutely no legal existence. There was in the hands of the Board of Directors, neither in the old constitution nor in the articles of incorporation as first prepared, any safeguard which made that fund permanent in law as it had been, or has been, permanent in name. And the clear-cut issue which the first part of the proposed amendment raises is: Does the Association desire to have this fund made a permanent fund by law or not?

The proposition to make the fund a permanent fund in law, then, is before you. If it is your preference that this fund should remain subject to drafts at any time, vote against the amendment. If your feeling is that the fund should remain a permanent fund, then the amendment should be adopted.

A word in regard to the form of the amendment: The form of the amendment, as first suggested, was to provide in express terms that this fund should never be drawn upon; that the income alone should be used. The attorney for the Association very properly stated to the Board of Directors that such a provision could not be legally made. You cannot tie up a fund for an indefinite number of years and indefinitely against all possible demands. Therefore, the form finally adopted and recommended to you by the Board of Directors is different from the first draft. The form adopted makes it possible to spend part of the permanent fund; but it places restrictions in the article which makes the fund absolutely safe. It can be spent only when there is a concurrence of the three governing bodies of the Association: the Board of Trustees, the Board of Directors, and the active members.

The second proposition refers to the income. The amendment differs from the original draft in one respect. It retains the two features that the income may be used for the purposes of maintaining the organization of the Association; a wise provision, which allows any reasonable purpose to be included in the maintenance of the organization of the Association. It also provides that this income shall be used, and the income only, for the expense of printing the annual volume. The second provision of the original was "except the Board of Trustees shall decide otherwise." In discussing this second provision before the Board of Directors, it seemed as if it placed an unwise limit on the expenditure of the income of the Association, and assigns, perhaps, too much responsibility and power to the Board of Trustees. It was thought that the Board of Directors, a body which is in more constant touch with the current and shifting sentiment of the Association should have a voice in the spending of the income; hence, instead of the phrase in the original draft "unless decided otherwise by the Board of Trustees," the amendment puts the words, "unless decided otherwise by the Board of Directors."

I want to put in a nutshell the two propositions: first, the proposition of the amendment is to tie up the permanent fund and make it permanent; second to allow a more liberal use, if necessary, of the income of the Association.

I should not have occupied your time if it had not been for the request of the Board of Directors that I should present this matter to the governing body of the Association.

ALBERT G. LANE, of Chicago: I think this body is perfectly clear in regard to the wisdom of the action proposed by the Board of Trustees and the Board of Directors for the reincorporation of the Association, as well as in regard to the amendments proposed to sec. 7; and I, therefore, move that the amended form of sec. 7 of the proposed bill as recommended by the Board of Directors, and as explained by Dr. Soldan, be substituted for sec. 7 in the original "Proposed Bill."

The motion was seconded as stated to the house by the chairman.

MISS MARGARET HALEY, of Chicago: I have a point of order to make. It is in writing and I will file it with the Secretary when I have read it. It is to the effect that the report of the Board of Trustees recommending an act to Congress providing for a new association to take over this Association at some time in the future is out of order. It is not within the powers of the Board of Trustees, as provided in the resolution. I do not understand how this matter came before the Association. For that reason I am unable to state whether it is a report of the Board of Trustees approved by the Board of Directors, or a report of the Board of Directors.

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: What is before us now is a motion adopting the report of the Board of Directors.

MISS HALEY: It is out of order for the following reasons: . . . (The statement of reasons was read at length, and a copy filed with the Secretary.)

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: The chair understands that a point of order is made by Miss Haley. It is the duty of the chair to rule upon points of order. You will not expect me to go into an argument in reply to this elaborate document at this time. I shall simply rule the point of order not well taken.

MISS HALEY: I appeal from the decision of the chair.

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: Miss Haley appeals from the decision of the chair. The question now before you is: Shall the chair be sustained? It should be remembered that only active members have a right to vote.

The question was put to vote and carried in the affirmative, and the chair was sustained.

S. Y. GILLAN, of Wisconsin: I rise to a point of information in respect to this proposed legislation. In case Congress, for any reason, should fail to pass this proposed bill, what would become of this Association at the date of the expiration of its present charter in February, 1906? I have several other questions that I want to ask; but I believe a question of information is in order at any time, and I call for a reply.

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: I shall ask the counsel of the Board of Directors and the Board of Trustees, Mr. John B. Pine, of New York, to answer the question.

MR. PINE: During the past winter the Board of Trustees secured the passage by Congress of an amendment to the General Act of Incorporation of the District of Columbia, which will make it possible, in case the special charter is not passed before February 24 next, to continue the existence of the corporation by filing a certificate, executed by the President and Secretary of the Association, with the consent of two-thirds of the Board of Directors. In case the charter should not be passed by the day named, it is the intention of the Board of Directors, as I understand it, to file such a certificate. By that means the present corporate existence will be continued, and opportunity will be given at a later session to secure the enactment of the bill for incorporation by Congress.

MR. GILLAN: I see no objection then to taking that step at the present time, and continue the present corporate existence of this body for another twenty years.

But another question, more important, is this: If Congress should amend this Proposed Bill so as to make it unsatisfactory to this Association, would not this Association then be obliged to reorganize, and to transfer its property and the rights which it now holds, to the new organization which will be created, and on the terms therein prescribed, however unsatisfactory they might be?

MR. PINE: The charter cannot become effective until it has been formally accepted by the Association, and should the bill passed by Congress be amended in any particular unsatisfactory to the Association, it will then be within your power to refuse to reorganize under it, and you can then proceed to adopt the other form of reorganization.

MR. GILLAN: The next point is this: Under the Proposed Act of incorporation all members are made members of the incorporation. That is, it will include associate members as well as active members.

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: To what clause do you refer?

MR. PINE: He refers to the first clause of the Proposed Bill. (Reads it.)

All members, under any title, are members of the corporation, but it does not follow that all members shall have a voice in its affairs. The Association is able to limit the control to active members only. There has been in the Association, I think, for a number of years a misapprehension as to what can constitute a corporate body. This is indicated by the peculiar phrase which appears in your constitution to the effect that the Board of Trustees shall constitute the body corporate. The corporation at the present moment consists of all persons who are included in its membership. The management, however, is in the hands of the active members, the Board of Directors, and the Board of Trustees. In that respect the new charter will effect no change. The management and control will still continue to be vested in the active members, the directors, and the trustees.

MR. GILLAN: Immediately the act is passed, the associate members would be members of the body corporate. Then they could not be disfranchised without a vote of the members of the body corporate, the members voting against themselves. Whether the franchise could be limited later or not, it certainly could not be immediately on the organization of this Association, and every member of a corporate body has a vote in that body, and he cannot be deprived of that vote unless by act of the body of which he is a member.

Another question for information: This Proposed Bill permits the Association to adopt by-laws, but it is silent in regard to amending the by-laws, and no mention is made of a constitution. Presumably it is assumed that this act itself would be the constitution. Would not the bill itself, if enacted by Congress, be the constitution of the Association, and thus be placed beyond the possibility of amendment except by a further act of Congress? It can adopt by-laws, but there is no mention of a power to amend them.

MR. PINE: The proposed charter, which embodies all the matter contained in your present constitution, will, if enacted, become the new constitution of the Association, and, therefore, no constitution is provided for in terms, the act itself being the constitution. The provision of the constitution as to the adoption of by-laws and the regulation of the affairs of the Association carries with it, as a matter of course, the right to amend the by-laws as may be desired from time to time. It is true, if this act is passed by Congress, it can, like any other act, be amended only by that body. It will be competent for the Association at any time to request such amendment; but it will not be in the power of the Association to make changes in the act. The very fact that such permanency will be secured is one of the reasons why it is recommended that the charter be placed in the form of an act of Congress, in order that the fundamental law of the Association may be placed upon the most lasting foundation possible, and that all the present members may have the assurance that the Association will be perpetuated in accordance with its present policy. This consideration of permanency has been one of the reasons which largely influenced the Board of Trustees in recommending this action. The passage of the act will also secure for the Association the recognition of its national character, which can be obtained in no other way. The course of procedure which has been pursued is precisely that which was adopted by the trustees of the Carnegie Institution. A similar method has been pursued by other educational bodies of a national character.

MISS HALEY: I rise to a question of privilege. I wish to ask the attorney to state to the house what provision, or section of existing provisions, of law as to the incorporation of the Association requires any change in the terms of the existing constitution and by-laws of the Association in order to continue the corporate existence of this Association. I should like further to ask the attorney, in case there is no change necessary in the existing constitution or the rules of this body, if the authority is extended to the trustees to recommend any change in these resolutions.

MR. PINE: I think the first question is answered by the terms of the first resolution, which not only authorized the Board of Trustees to recommend changes, but made it their duty to do so. They were charged with the solemn duty of protecting the interests of the Association to the best of their ability, and in that spirit they have endeavored to carry out the direct and expressed wishes of the resolutions adopted by the Association.

As to the provisions of the general law, I need only say that it was legally impossible to take the steps necessary to continue the existence of this Association at the time the resolutions were passed. That law was found to be so vague and defective, and so peculiar, as to render impossible the continuation in any form of the existence of the Association under that statute; and consequently, as I explained, the Board of Trustees applied to Congress, and secured the amendment to the general act which has now made it possible for your Board of Directors to continue the corporate existence of the Association. Both the second and third resolutions plainly contemplate the recommendation of any change in the constitution which the Board of Trustees may deem advisable, and the Secretary has strictly complied with the third resolution as to notice.

MISS HALEY: A point of order: The Board of Trustees was not authorized to take the action recommended; and if the attorney says they were, then I want to ask him if the amendment to the law which he proposed was not approved in March, 1905, and the recommendation of the Board of Trustees to the Board of Directors was not made April 20, and sent out to the active members on May 25. Therefore, the power was resident in the Board of Trustees at the time they made these recommendations to make the change under the law, even if the attorney's opinion is right that they could not have made the change under the law before its amendment.

MR. PINE: The lady is correct as to her dates.

MISS HALEY: I want to enter my protest on the records of the minutes of this meeting against the action of the Board of Trustees in recommending on April 20 to the Board of Directors. . . .

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: The chair must rule the protest at this time out of order. The question is on the discussion of Mr. Lane's motion, which is the only question before the house.

MR. GILLAN: I have one more question of information: What is meant by the National Council which sec. 2 proposes to include in this new corporation to be created by act of Congress? Does it mean the present sixty members, with their power practically to perpetuate themselves, as provided by their present constitution, and their power to amend their own constitution? Does it mean that sixty? If not, what does it mean? I have all these questions in writing, and expect to file them with the Secretary.

MR. PINE: The gentleman's question is already answered, so far as it can be answered now. It is impossible for me to foresee what by-laws this Association may adopt a year or two hence. It will be for this body to determine what the powers of the National Council shall be, and how its members shall be elected. It has been suggested and recommended by the trustees and Board of Directors, in the documents which they have laid before you, that the duties of the Council shall be as stated in the proposed by-laws. These by-laws do not come up for action now, and, with all due respect, it seems to me that the gentleman's question is out of order at this time.

MISS HALEY: Another question for information: It is on sec. 2 of the Proposed Bill, second sentence. The original constitution has the same seventeen departments, and the eighteenth department of this organization is the National Council. In our present constitution the National Council is a department of the National Educational Association, subject to the Association as any other department is subject to it. I should like to ask a ruling of the chair on this part of the report of the Board of Trustees, which says: "The restatement of the constitution in terms suitable for a charter such as is now proposed has necessarily involved changes in terms and phraseology . . . we ask you to note particularly that it has not been the intention of the Board of Trustees or their counsel to make any change in any part of a substantial character." I should like to ask a ruling of the chair as to whether the dropping of the National Council as a department, and the placing of the Council in the position it holds here, is a substantial change, or whether it comes under the heading of what the trustees have called "changes in terms and phraseology."

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: The chair will answer that no substantial change is intended or made. The National Council remains as it is at present, until changed by the by-laws of the National Educational Association.

MISS HALEY: Then I wish to protest against the intentions, if I have no power to protest against the language. If it was not the intention of the Board of Trustees to make this change, yet they have made it. This is a substantial change, as I am advised by counsel.

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: The question is upon Mr. Lane's motion. Will Mr. Lane please restate his motion?

MR. LANE: The motion was to substitute the amended form of sec. 7 for the same section as it appears in the original printed copy of the proposed bill.

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: All in favor of that motion will say "aye;" opposed, "no." The motion was carried.

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: The question is now upon the original motion, as amended. The motion reads as follows:

Resolved, That this Association authorizes and requests the Board of Trustees to make application to Congress for a special act, in the following form, to incorporate an association to be known as the "NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES," to succeed and continue the National Educational Association.

This is the motion placed before you by Dr. Soldan, on authority of the Board of Directors, and amended on motion of Mr. Lane, as follows:

A PROPOSED BILL TO INCORPORATE THE NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled:

SECTION 1. That the following named persons, who are now the officers and directors and trustees of the National Educational Association, a corporation organized in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, under the Act of General Incorporation of the Revised Statutes of the District of Columbia:

(Names of officers to be entered.)

and such other persons as now are or may hereafter be associated with them as officers or members of said Association, are hereby incorporated and declared to be a body corporate by the name of the "National Education Association of the United States," and by that name shall be known and have perpetual succession with the powers, limitations, and restrictions herein contained.

SEC. 2. That the purpose and object of the said corporation shall be to elevate the character and advance the interests of the profession of teaching, and to promote the cause of education, in the United States. This corporation shall include the National Council of Education and the following departments, and such others as may hereafter be created by organization or consolidation, to wit: the Departments, first, of Superintendence; second, Normal Schools; third, of Elementary Education; fourth, of Higher Education; fifth, of Manual Training; sixth, of Art Education; seventh, of Kindergarten Education; eighth, of Music Education; ninth, of Secondary Education; tenth, of Business Education; eleventh, of Child Study; twelfth, of Physical Education; thirteenth, of Natural Science Instruction; fourteenth, of School Administration; fifteenth, the Library Department; sixteenth, of Special Education; seventeenth, of Indian Education; and the number and names of these departments may be changed at the pleasure of the corporation, as provided in its By-Laws.

SEC. 3. That the said corporation shall further have power to have and to use a common seal, and to alter and change the same at its pleasure, to use or to be used in any court of the United States, or other court of competent jurisdiction; to make by-laws not inconsistent with the provisions of this act or of the constitution of the United States; to take or receive, whether by gift, grant, devise, bequest, or purchase, any real or personal estate, and to hold, grant, convey, hire, or lease the same for the purposes of its incorporation; and to accept and administer any trust of real or personal estate for any educational purpose within the objects of the corporation.

SEC. 4. That all real property of the corporation within the District of Columbia, which shall be used by the corporation for the educational or other purposes of the corporation as aforesaid, other than the purposes of producing income, and all personal property and funds of the corporation held, used, or invested for educational purposes aforesaid, or to produce income to be used for such purposes, shall be exempt from taxation; provided, however, that this exemption shall not apply to any property of the corporation which shall not be used for, or the income of which shall not be applied to the educational purposes of the corporation; and, provided further, that the corporation shall annually file, with the Commissioner of Education of the United States, a report in writing, stating in detail the property, real and personal, held by the corporation, and the expenditure or other use or disposition of the same, or the income thereof, during the preceding year.

SEC. 5. That the membership of the said corporation shall consist of three classes of members—viz., active, associate, and corresponding—whose qualifications, terms of membership, rights, and obligations shall be prescribed by the By-Laws of the corporation.

SEC. 6. That the officers of the said corporation shall be a President, twelve Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Board of Directors, and Executive Committee, and a Board of Trustees.

The Board of Directors shall consist of the President, the First Vice-President, the Secretary, the Treasurer, the chairman of the Board of Trustees, and one additional member from each state, territory, or district, to be elected by the active members for the term of one year, or until their successors are chosen, and of all life directors of the National Educational Association. The United States Commissioner of Education, and all former Presidents of the said Association now living, and all future Presidents of the Association hereby incorporated, at the close of their respective terms of office, shall be members of the Board of Directors for life. The Board of Directors shall have power to fill all vacancies in their own body; shall have in charge the general interests of the corporation, excepting those herein intrusted to the Board of Trustees; and shall possess such other powers as shall be conferred upon them by the By-Laws of the corporation.

The Executive Committee shall consist of five members, as follows: the President of the Association, the First Vice-President, the Treasurer, the Chairman of the Board of Trustees, and a member of the Association, to be chosen annually by the Board of Directors, to serve one year. The said committee shall have authority to represent, and to act for, the Board of Directors in the intervals between the meetings of that body, to the extent of carrying out the legislation adopted by the Board of Directors under such general directions as may be given by said board.

The Board of Trustees shall consist of four members, elected by the Board of Directors for the term of four years, and the President of the Association, who shall be a member ex officio, during his term of office. At the first meeting of the Board of Directors, held during the annual meeting of the Association at which they were elected, they shall elect one trustee for the term of four years. All vacancies occurring in said Board of Trustees, whether by resignation or otherwise, shall be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired term; and the absence of a trustee from two successive annual meetings of the board shall forfeit his membership.

SEC. 7. That the invested fund now known as the "Permanent Fund of the National Educational Association," when transferred to the corporation hereby created, shall be held by such corporation as a Permanent Fund and shall be in charge of the Board of Trustees, who shall provide for the safekeeping and investment of such fund, and of all other funds which the corporation may receive by donation, bequest, or devise. No part of the principal of such Permanent Fund or its accretions shall be expended, except by a two-thirds vote of the active members of the Association, upon the recommendation of the Board of Trustees, after such recommendation has been approved by vote of the Board of Directors, and after printed notice of the proposed expenditure has been mailed to all active members of the Association. The income of the Permanent Fund shall be used only to meet the cost of maintaining the organization of the Association and of publishing its annual volume of Proceedings, unless the terms of the donation, bequest, or devise shall otherwise specify, or the Board of Directors shall otherwise order. It shall also be the duty of the Board of Trustees to issue orders on the Treasurer for the payment of all bills approved by the Board of Directors, or by the President and Secretary of the Association acting under the authority of the Board of Directors. When practicable, the Board of Trustees shall invest, as part of the Permanent Fund all surplus funds exceeding five hundred dollars that shall remain in the hands of the Treasurer after paying the expenses of the Association for the previous year, and providing for the fixed expenses and for all appropriations made by the Board of Directors for the ensuing year.

The Board of Trustees shall elect the Secretary of the Association, who shall also be secretary of the Executive Committee, and shall fix the compensation and the term of his office for a period not to exceed four years.

SEC. 8. That the principal office of the said corporation shall be in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, provided that the meetings of the corporation, its officers, committees, and departments, may be held, and that its business may be transacted, and an office or offices may be maintained, elsewhere, within the United States, as may be determined by the Board of Directors, or otherwise in accordance with the By-Laws.

SEC. 9. That the Charter, Constitution, and By-Laws of the National Educational Association shall continue in full force and effect until the next annual meeting of the Association appointed to be held thereunder, and until new By-Laws shall be adopted; and that the present officers, directors, and trustees of said Association shall continue to hold office and perform their respective duties as such, until the expiration of the terms for which they were severally elected or appointed, and until their successors are elected. That at such annual meeting the members of the National Educational Association, then present, shall organize and proceed to adopt By-Laws, to elect officers to succeed those whose terms have expired or are about to expire, and generally to organize the "National Education Association of the United States;" and that the Board of Trustees of the corporation hereby incorporated shall thereupon receive, take over, and enter into possession, custody, and management of all property, real and personal, of the corporation heretofore known as the National Educational Association, incorporated as aforesaid, under the Revised Statutes of the District of Columbia, and all its rights, contracts, claims, and property of every kind and nature whatsoever; and the several officers, directors and trustees of such last-named Association, or any other person having charge of any of the securities, funds, books, or property thereof, real or personal, shall on demand deliver the same to the proper officers, directors, or trustees of the corporation hereby created.

SEC. 10. That the rights of creditors of the said existing corporation, known as the National Educational Association, shall not in any manner be impaired by the passage of this act, or the transfer of the property heretofore mentioned, nor shall any liability or obligation, or the payment of any sum due or to become due, or any claim or demand, in any manner, or for any cause existing against the said existing corporation, be released or impaired; and the corporation hereby incorporated is declared to succeed to the obligations and liabilities, and to be held liable to pay and discharge all of the debts, liabilities, and contracts, of the said corporation so existing, to the same effect as if such new corporation had itself incurred the obligation or liability to pay such debt or damages, and no action or proceeding before any court or tribunal shall be deemed to have abated or been discontinued by reason of this act.

SEC. 11. That Congress may from time to time alter, repeal, or modify this act of incorporation, but no contract or individual right made or acquired shall thereby be divested or impaired.

MR. GILLAN: I offer a substitute, as follows:

Be it resolved, That this Association do continue its corporate existence for the term of twenty years from and after the date limited by law for expiration of its present corporate existence, under the laws enacted by Congress for the District of Columbia; that the Board of Trustees and the proper officers of this Association be, and the same are hereby, directed to take, or cause to be taken, the necessary action to continue the corporate existence of this Association for the term of twenty years, as provided by laws enacted by Congress for the District of Columbia.

Mr. Gillan's motion was seconded. A motion was then made and seconded that Mr. Gillan's substitute be laid on the table; this motion was carried.

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: The question is now upon the original motion submitted by Dr. Soldan on behalf of the Board of Directors.

The motion was put to vote and carried.

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: The next order of business is the consideration of proposed amendments to the by-laws, offered at St. Louis in 1904. The Secretary will please read these proposed amendments, which are printed in full in the official program.

(The Secretary read from the minutes of last year the proposed amendments.)

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: These amendments to the by-laws are before you. What is your pleasure?

On motion, the first amendment was laid on the table.

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: The second amendment is before you. What is your pleasure?

On motion, the second amendment was laid on the table.

MR. GILLAN: I rise to offer an amendment, to be laid over under the rules until next year, and I do this on the assumption that it is barely possible that Congress may not pass this Act, and that we may find ourselves next year, as the attorney has said, operating under the same old constitution; therefore, I offer the following amendment to the constitution and by-laws, to be laid over in due course and acted upon next year.

I shall pass it to the Secretary, without reading, if you please, because it is identical, with the exception of a few words, with the resolution adopted last year, cutting out the provision for the election of Vice-President; otherwise it is identical, as follows:

Resolved, That sec. 2, Art. IV of the Constitution be amended by adding the following words to the first paragraph:

The active members from any state, territory, or district, in attendance at the meeting for electing a member of the Committee on Nominations, may elect the additional member of the Board of Directors for such state, territory, or district.

Resolved, That the By-Laws be amended by inserting the following paragraphs immediately after the first paragraph of By-Law No. 1:

"The Committee on Nominations shall meet on the second day of each annual session and nominate candidates for President, Treasurer, and a director for each state, territory, or district whose members shall not have reported the election of a director as provided in sec. 2, Art. IV, of the Constitution; and the Committee on Nominations shall report to the active members at their meeting the following day a list of the nominations.

"When the vote is taken by the Committee on Nominations for candidates for President, and Treasurer, the committee shall report the persons having the highest number of votes, not exceeding two persons, as candidates for each office. But if, after two formal ballots, any person shall receive a two-thirds majority of the votes cast by the Committee on Nominations for any one of the aforesaid offices, then the person receiving such two-thirds majority shall be reported as the only candidate for such office."

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: The proposed amendment will be printed in the minutes of this meeting.

MR. GILLAN: I offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Secretary be, and he is hereby, authorized and instructed to print and publish all proposed amendments to the constitution and by-laws, offered at this meeting, in the official program or bulletin or other announcement of the meeting of 1906, and to mail a copy of the same to each active member not less than one month before the date of such meeting.

The motion to adopt the resolution was seconded and carried.

ALBERT G. LANE, of Chicago: I wish to give notice at this time and to submit the proposed by-laws, which were drafted and printed in connection with the Proposed Bill for reincorporation, for consideration at the annual meeting next year in the following form:

PROPOSED BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I—MEMBERSHIP

ACTIVE MEMBERS

SECTION 1. Teachers and all who are actively associated with the management of educational institutions, including libraries and educational publications, may become active members.

SEC. 2. Any eligible person may become an active member upon application indorsed by two active members, and the payment of an enrollment fee of two dollars and the annual dues for the current year.

SEC. 3. Active members only shall have the right to vote and to hold office in the Association, in the National Council of Education, or in the several departments.

SEC. 4. All active members shall pay annual dues of two dollars, and shall be entitled to the volume of Proceedings without "coupon" or other conditions.

SEC. 5. The annual membership fee shall be payable at the time of the annual convention, or by remittance to the Secretary before September 1 of each year.

SEC. 6. Any active member may discontinue membership by giving written notice to the Secretary before September 1 in any year, and may restore the same only on payment of the enrollment fee of two dollars and the annual dues for the current year. A written application for active membership shall constitute an agreement to continue such membership and pay annual dues, unless written notice of discontinuance is sent to the Secretary before September 1 of the fiscal year for which such discontinuance shall apply.

CORRESPONDING MEMBERS

SEC. 7. Eminent educators not residing in America may be elected by the Board of Directors to be corresponding members. The number of corresponding members shall at no time exceed fifty.

SEC. 8. Corresponding members shall be entitled to the volume of Proceedings without the payment of fees or other conditions.

ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

SEC. 9. Any person on paying an annual membership fee of two dollars may become an associate member.

SEC. 10. Associate members may receive the volume of Proceedings in accordance with the usual "coupon" conditions, as printed on the membership certificate.

LIFE MEMBERS

SEC. 11. All life members and life directors shall be denominated active members, and shall enjoy all the powers and privileges of such members without the payment of annual dues.

ROLL OF MEMBERS

SEC. 12. The names of active, life, and corresponding members only shall be printed in the annual Yearbook, with their respective educational titles, offices, and addresses and the list shall be revised annually by the Secretary of the Association.

ARTICLE II—OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. The President, Vice-Presidents, directors, and Treasurer shall be chosen by the active members of the Association by ballot, unless otherwise ordered, on the third day of each annual session, a majority of the votes cast being necessary to a choice. They shall continue in office until the close of the annual session subsequent to their election and until their successors are chosen, except as hereinafter provided.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

SEC. 2. At the first session of each annual meeting of the Association the President shall appoint a Committee on Resolutions.

COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS

SEC. 3. At the third session of each annual meeting of the Association there shall be appointed by the President a Committee on Nominations, consisting of one member from each state and territory represented. Such a committee shall be appointed by the President on the nomination of a majority of the active members from such state or territory present at the meeting called for the purpose of making such nomination; provided, however, that such appointment shall be made by the President without such nomination, when the active members in attendance from any state or territory shall fail to make a nomination.

SEC. 4. The meetings of the active members of the several states to nominate members of the nominating committee shall be held at 5:30 P. M. on the first day of the annual meeting of the Association, at such places as shall be announced in the general program.

ARTICLE III—DUTIES OF OFFICERS

THE PRESIDENT

SECTION 1. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Association and of the Board of Directors, and shall perform the duties usually devolving upon a presiding officer. In his absence the first Vice-President in order, who is present, shall preside; and in the absence of all the Vice-Presidents, a pro tempore chairman shall be appointed on nomination, the Secretary putting the question.

THE SECRETARY

SEC. 2. The Secretary shall keep a full and accurate report of the proceedings of the general meetings of the Association and of all meetings of the Board of Directors, and shall conduct such correspondence and transact such other business of the Association as the directors or Executive Committee may assign, and shall have his records present at all meetings of the Association and the Board of Directors.

THE TREASURER

SEC. 3. The Treasurer shall receive, and under the direction of the Board of Trustees hold in safekeeping, the current income of the Association; shall expend the same only upon order of said board; shall keep an exact account of his receipts and expenditures, with vouchers for the latter; which accounts, ending the first day of July in each year, he shall render to the Board of Trustees and, when approved by said board, he shall report to the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall give such bond for the faithful discharge of his duties as may be required by the Board of Trustees; and he shall continue in office until the first meeting of the Board of Directors held prior to the annual meeting of the Association next succeeding that at which he is elected, and until his successor has been elected and has qualified.

AUDITOR OF ACCOUNTS

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the Association to appoint annually some competent person to examine the securities of the Permanent Fund held by the Board of Trustees, and his certificate, showing the condition of the said fund, shall be attached to the annual report of the Board of Trustees.

CERTIFICATION OF BILLS

SEC. 5. The President and Secretary shall certify to the Board of Trustees all bills approved by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IV—THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. The Board of Directors shall hold its regular annual meeting at the place of the annual convention, and not less than two hours before the assembling of the Association.

SEC. 2. Special meetings may be held at such other times and places as the board or the President shall determine.

SEC. 3. Each new board shall organize at the session of its election.

ARTICLE V—THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF EDUCATION

OBJECTS AND DUTIES

SECTION 1. The National Council of Education shall have for its object the consideration and discussion of educational questions of public and professional interest; the proposal to the Board of Directors, from time to time, of suitable subjects for investigation and research, and the recommendation of the amount of appropriations that should be made for such purposes; the appointment and general supervision of such special committees of investigation and research as may be provided for and authorized by the Board of Directors of the Association; the consideration, discussion, and recommendation to the Board of Directors for disposition of all reports by such special committees of research as may have been appointed on its recommendation or by its authority; the annual preparation and presentation to the Association at its annual convention of a report on "Educational Progress during the Past Year;" and in other ways shall use its best efforts to further the objects of the Association and to promote the cause of education in general.

MEMBERSHIP OF THE COUNCIL

SEC. 2. The Council shall consist of sixty members, selected from the membership of the Association. Any member of the Association identified with educational work is eligible to membership in the Council.

SEC. 3. The Board of Directors shall annually elect five members, and the Council shall elect five members, each member to serve for six years, or until his successor is elected.

SEC. 4. The annual election of members of the Council shall be held in connection with the annual meetings of the Association. If the Board of Directors shall fail, for any reason, to fill its quota of members annually, the vacancy or vacancies shall be filled by the Council.

SEC. 5. The absence of a member from two consecutive annual meetings of the Council shall be considered equivalent to resignation of membership, and the Council shall fill vacancies caused by absence from the Council as herein defined, as well as vacancies caused by death or resignation, for the unexpired term. All persons who have belonged to the Council shall, on the expiration of their membership, become honorary members, with the privilege of attending its regular sessions and participating in its discussions. No state shall be represented in the Council by more than eight members.

BY-LAWS OF THE COUNCIL

SEC. 6. The Council may establish by-laws for its government not inconsistent with the Act of Incorporation or of the By-Laws of the Association, provided such by-laws shall be submitted to and approved by the Board of Directors of the Association before they shall become operative.

ARTICLE VI—DEPARTMENTS

SECTION 1. A department shall consist of those members of the Association who are especially interested in the consideration of a particular group of educational problems. Each department shall be administered by a president, vice-president, secretary, and such other officers as it shall deem necessary to conduct its affairs.

SEC. 2. Each department shall hold its annual meeting at the time of the annual convention of the Association, except the Department of Superintendence, which may hold its annual meeting in February of each year, or at such other time as may be determined by the officers of said department.

SEC. 3. The objects of the annual department meetings shall be the discussion of questions pertaining to their respective fields of educational work. The programs of these meetings shall be organized and conducted by the respective presidents, in conference with, and under the general direction of, the President of the Association. Each department shall be limited to two sessions, with formal programs, at the time of the annual convention, except that a third session for business or informal round-table conference may be held at the discretion of the department officers.

SEC. 4. Upon the written request of twenty active members of the Association for permission to establish a new department, the Board of Directors may grant such permission. Such new department shall in all respects be entitled to the same rights and privileges as the departments named in the Act of Incorporation.

SEC. 5. The secretary of each department shall, in addition to performing the duties usually pertaining to his office, keep a list of the members of his department in attendance at the annual convention.

ARTICLE VII—MEETINGS

SECTION 1. The annual meeting of the Association shall be held at such time and place as shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

SEC. 2. Special meetings may be called by the President at the request of five directors.

SEC. 3. Any department of the Association may hold a special meeting at such time and place as by its own regulations it shall appoint.

SEC. 4. No paper, lecture, or address shall be read before the Association, or any of its departments, in the absence of its author, nor shall any such paper, lecture, or address be published in the volume of Proceedings, without the consent of the Association, upon the approval of the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VIII—AMENDMENTS

SECTION 1. These by-laws may be altered or amended at any annual meeting by the unanimous vote of the members present; or by a two-thirds vote of the members present, provided that the substance of the alteration or amendment has been proposed in writing at a previous annual meeting.

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: These proposed by-laws will be duly printed in the minutes of this meeting, and will be considered at the next annual meeting.

Is there any other business to come before this meeting? If not, a motion to adjourn is in order.

A motion to adjourn was made, and seconded, and carried; and the annual meeting was declared adjourned.

(Signed) IRWIN SHEPARD, Secretary.

Approved:

(Signed) WILLIAM H. MAXWELL, President.

FOURTH SESSION.—THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 6

The convention was called to order by President Maxwell, at 8 P. M.

Prayer was offered by Rev. James W. Marshall, pastor of St. Paul's Church, Ocean Grove, N. J.

A musical solo, "Lend Me Your Aid," by Gounod, was sung by Daniel Beddoe.

Lorenzo D. Harvey, superintendent of schools, Menomonie, Wis., delivered an address on "Manual Training in the Grades."

The topic, "The Practical Utility of Manual and Technical Training," was presented in an address by William Barclay Parsons, former chief engineer, New York City Rapid Transit Commission, New York.

Following this address, Daniel Beddoe sang "Prize Song," by Wagner.

The last address of the evening was presented by Frank A. Vanderlip, vice-president of the National City Bank, New York city, on the subject, "The Economic Importance of Trade Schools."

J. M. H. Frederick, superintendent of schools, Lakewood, Ohio, led in a discussion of the subjects presented.

The convention adjourned to Friday afternoon, July 7.

FIFTH SESSION.—FRIDAY AFTERNOON, JULY 7

The convention assembled for its closing session in the Ocean Grove Auditorium at 2:30 P. M. The Auditorium was filled to its utmost capacity long before the hour of opening, in anticipation of the arrival of President Theodore Roosevelt, who was to be present and deliver the closing address of the convention.

President Maxwell had appointed a former President of the Association, Dr. James M. Green, of Trenton, N. J., a committee of one, to take charge of all arrangements for receiving President Roosevelt and his party. Dr. Green secured, as an escort of honor for the President, the Third Regiment of New Jersey Infantry of the National Guard, Colonel John A. Mather of Camden, commanding, and the Second Troop of Cavalry of Red Bank, Captain Edwin Field, commanding.

The President arrived in Asbury Park from Oyster Bay, N. Y., at 2 P. M., accompanied by Private Secretary William Loeb, Jr., Surgeon Charles F. Stokes, U. S. Navy, and others. He was met by the receiving party, consisting of a special committee as follows: J. M. Green, Trenton, N. J.; Newton C. Dougherty, Peoria, Ill.; Howard J. Rogers, Albany, N. Y.; F. Louis Soldan, St. Louis, Mo.; Lawton B. Evans, Augusta, Ga.; the Executive Committee of the National Educational Association: William H. Maxwell, President; John W. Cook, First Vice-President; James W. Crabtree, Treasurer; Albert G. Lane, Chairman of Trustees; William T. Harris, U. S. Commissioner of Education; Irwin Shepard, Secretary; state and local representatives: Edward Casper Stokes, governor of New Jersey; United States Senators John Kean and John F. Dryden; Congressman Benjamin F. Howell and Richard Wayne Parker; State Senator Oliver H. Brown; State Director John Enright; Frank L. Ten Broeck, mayor of Asbury Park; Bishop James N. Fitzgerald and Rev. A. E. Ballard, president and vice-president of the Ocean Grove Association; James L. Hays, president of the State Board of Education of New York; T. Frank Appleby and R. A. Tusting, president and secretary of the Local National Educational Association Committee of Asbury Park and Ocean Grove.

After greetings, the President's party and the receiving party proceeded in carriages, under escort, to the Ocean Grove Auditorium. On entering the Auditorium, a most enthusiastic and impressive greeting met the President from the twelve thousand teachers assembled.

After the greeting, the convention was called to order by President William H. Maxwell. The exercises were opened with prayer by Hon. Nathan C. Schaeffer, state superintendent of public schools for Pennsylvania, President-elect of the Association, who invoked divine blessing in the following words:

O Lord our God, Thou art our Father, and we, Thy children, approach thy Throne of grace, beseeching Thee to grant us Thy favor and mercy. Make us mindful of all that Thou hast done for us. Make us duly thankful for health and strength, for life and light; for the goodly land in which we dwell, for its homes, its schools, its churches, its libraries, and for all other blessings that we enjoy.

We invoke a special blessing upon Thy servant, the President of these United States. Bless him in all his efforts to establish peace and justice among the nations of the earth. Give him wisdom from on high to guide him in the discharge of all his duties. Bless the governor of this commonwealth and all others in authority. Make us a righteous as well as a prosperous people. Grant that it may be our aim as a body of teachers, not merely to banish ignorance and illiteracy from the earth, but also to spread the light of Thy gospel and the news of salvation among all the children of men.

Hear us in these our prayers, answer us in love and mercy, and save us thru riches of grace in Christ, our Redeemer, Amen.

President Maxwell then introduced President Roosevelt in the simple announcement: "Members of the National Educational Association, the President of the United States."

The great audience rose and greeted the President with another impressive and long-continued welcome.

The President then addressed the convention.

Following the address of President Roosevelt, John R. Kirk, president of the State Normal School at Kirksville, Mo., was introduced and responded to the President. He closed by offering a resolution of thanks by the convention assembled to President Roosevelt for his eloquent and inspiring address.

Miss Katherine D. Blake, principal of Public School No. 6, New York city, seconded the resolution of Mr. Kirk, and spoke impressively at some length on the obligation under which President Roosevelt had placed the teachers of the country by his words and deeds. She most happily expressed the spirit and thought of the audience when, in seconding the resolution of thanks to President Roosevelt, she characterized him as "the best-loved man in all the great round world."

The resolution was passed by a unanimous rising vote of twelve thousand teachers amid cheers and waving salutes.

President Maxwell then addressed President Roosevelt as follows:

Mr. President, your words here will be the inspiration of every teacher who has heard your voice today. They will be an inspiration to all of the teachers of America wherever those teachers may be sojourning today. Treasured in the volume of our Proceedings, they will be an inspiration to generations of teachers yet unborn; and passing thru the minds and hearts of the teachers of America, they will serve to form the character of millions of American citizens in the future. As you leave here, the best wishes of the teachers of America go with you; their prayers will follow you for success, for happiness, and for God's blessing on your work for this nation.

Following this, the "Hallelujah Chorus" was sung by the Ocean Grove Festival Chorus, supported by the Ocean Grove Festival Orchestra, under the leadership of Mr. Tali Esen Morgan.

After the President and his party withdrew from the Auditorium, the Committee on Resolutions presented its report thru its chairman, Dr. Eliphalet Oram Lyte, of the First Pennsylvania State Normal School, as follows:

NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION

ASBURY PARK AND OCEAN GROVE, N. J., JULY 7, 1905

DECLARATION

The National Educational Association, now holding its forty-fourth annual convention in Asbury Park and Ocean Grove, and representing the teachers and friends of education thruout the country, makes the following declaration of principles:

1. The Bureau of Education continues to render invaluable service to the nation. It is the judgment of the Association that the powers of the bureau should be enlarged, and that liberal appropriations should be made to it by Congress in order to enable it to widen its usefulness.
2. The National Educational Association notes with approval that the qualifications demanded of teachers in the public schools, and especially in city public schools, are increasing annually, and particularly that in many localities special preparation is demanded of teachers. The idea that anyone with a fair education can teach school is gradually giving way to the correct notion that teachers must make special preparation for the vocation of teaching. The higher standard demanded of teachers must lead logically to higher salaries for teachers, and constant efforts should be made by all persons interested in education to secure for teachers adequate compensation for their work.
3. The rapid establishment of township or rural high schools is one of the most gratifying evidences of the progress of education. We believe that this movement should be encouraged until the children of rural communities enjoy the benefits of public education to an extent approximating as nearly as practicable the education furnished in urban communities.
4. The Association heartily approves of the efforts now being made to determine the proper place of industrial education in the public schools. We believe that the time is rapidly approaching when industrial education should be introduced into all schools, and should be made to harmonize with the occupations of the community. These courses, when introduced, should include instruction in agricultural as well as manual training. Wherever the conditions justify their establishment, schools that show the application of the branches of knowledge to practical life should be established.

5. The National Educational Association strongly recommends the increasing utilization of urban school buildings for free vacation schools and for free evening schools and lecture courses for adults and for children who have been obliged to leave the day school prematurely.

6. It is the duty of the state to provide for the education of every child within its borders, and to see that all children obtain the rudiments of an education. The constitutional provision that all persons must contribute to the support of the public schools logically carries with it the implied provision that no persons should be permitted to defeat the purposes of the public-school law by forcing their children at an early age to become bread-winners.

7. The national government should provide schools for the children of all persons living in territory under the immediate control of the government. The attention of Congress is specially directed to the need of adequate legislation to provide schools for the children of citizens of the United States living on naval reservations.

8. The association regrets the revival in some quarters of the idea that the common school is a place for teaching nothing but reading, spelling, writing, and ciphering; and takes this occasion to declare that the ultimate object of popular education is to teach the children how to live righteously, healthily, and happily, and that to accomplish this object it is essential that every school inculcate the love of truth, justice, purity, and beauty thru the study of biography, history, ethics, natural history, music, drawing, and manual arts.

9. The National Educational Association wishes to record its approval of the increasing appreciation among educators of the fact that the building of character is the real aim of the schools and the ultimate reason for the expenditure of millions for their maintenance. There are in the minds of the children and youth of today a tendency toward a disregard for constituted authority; a lack of respect for age and superior wisdom; a weak appreciation of the demands of duty; a disposition to follow pleasure and interest rather than obligation and order. This condition demands the earnest thought and action of our leaders of opinion, and places important obligations upon school authorities.

10. The National Educational Association wishes to congratulate the secondary schools and colleges of the country that are making the effort to remove the taint of professionalism that has crept into student sports. This taint can be removed only by leading students, alumni, and school faculties to recognize that inter-school games should be played for sportsmanship and not merely for victory.

11. The National Educational Association observes with great satisfaction the tendency of cities and towns to replace large school committees or boards, which have exercised thru subcommittees executive functions, by small boards which determine general policies, but intrust all executive functions to salaried experts.

12. Local taxation, supplemented by state taxation, presents the best means for the support of the public schools, and for securing that deep interest in them which is necessary to their greatest efficiency. State aid should be granted only as supplementary to local taxation, and not as a substitute for it.

13. We cannot too often repeat that close, intelligent, judicious supervision is necessary for all grades of schools.

14. A free democracy cannot long continue without the assistance of a system of state-supported schools administered by agents chosen by the people, and responsible to the people for its ideals, its conduct, and its results.

 O. J. KERN, of Illinois;
 EDWARD J. GOODWIN, of New York;
 WILLIAM L. BRYAN, of Indiana;

Committee on Resolutions.

The declaration as presented was then adopted by a unanimous vote of the convention.

Following this action, a resolution of thanks was presented by Chairman Lyte, and, on motion, was also adopted, as follows:

Resolved, That the thanks of the National Educational Association are due, and are hereby most cordially tendered, to the residents of Asbury Park and Ocean Grove, whose open-hearted, refined hospitality will long be remembered; to the newspapers that have fully recorded the proceedings of the Association from day to day; to the railroads and other transportation companies, whose hearty and well-directed co-operation in bringing the large membership to these beautiful twin cities by the sea was essential to the success of this meeting and to the educators of Asbury Park and Ocean Grove and the state of New Jersey, who have so successfully borne the burden of preparing for the great body of teachers and friends of education that have assembled here this week. This Association desires to refer particularly to the services of Hon. James L. Hays, president of the State Board of Education of New Jersey, and his associates on the Board; Hon. Charles J. Baxter, state superintendent of public instruction; Dr. J. M. Green, principal of the State Normal School, Trenton, N. J.; Mr. T. Frank Appleby, Chairman of the General Local Committee; Mr. R. A. Tusting, secretary, and their associates; Dr. Fred S. Shepherd, superintendent of schools of Asbury Park; Miss Lidie M. Doren, superintendent of schools of Ocean Grove; Professor John Enright, superintendent of schools of Monmouth county; and Professor H. Brewster Willis, superintendent of schools of Middlesex county; to the teachers and school officers who have contributed in many ways to the success of this meeting; to Mr. Tali Esen Morgan, director of music, Ocean Grove, to the eminent soloists who took part in the public exercises of the general meeting, and to the Ocean Grove Festival Chorus and the Ocean Grove Festival Orchestra, for the exceptionally fine music rendered by them; to President James N. Fitzgerald, Vice-President A. E. Ballard, and other officers of the Ocean Grove Auditorium Association, for the use of the Auditorium and for other courtesies extended; and to all others who have co-operated with them in making arrangements for this meeting and in carrying their carefully prepared plans to successful completion.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Association are also due, and are hereby tendered, to Hon. Edward Casper Stokes, governor of the state of New Jersey, and his official associates, and to the military department of the state, represented by the Third Regiment of Infantry, Colonel John A. Mather, of Camden, commanding, and the Second Troop of Cavalry of Red Bank, Captain Field commanding, for having furnished an escort to the President of the United States, and for appropriately and generously providing for the care and comfort of the chief executive of the nation during his visit to the convention.

The chairman of the committee then presented the following special resolution, moving its adoption, and asking the Secretary to put the question to vote:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Association be tendered to the retiring President, Superintendent William H. Maxwell, of New York city, and to the retiring Treasurer, President James W. Crabtree, of Nebraska, for the faithful and efficient services which they have rendered to the Association during the past year.

The motion was carried by a rising vote of the convention, with hearty applause.

PRESIDENT MAXWELL: Members of the National Educational Association: I thank you for this hearty expression of your esteem and good-will. I should like you to believe that from the day you elected me your President until this moment I have spared no pains, I have given my best thought and energy, to carry out your purposes and to make this meeting the success I believe it has been. Anything, however, which I did would have availed but little, had I not had the cordial support and encouragement of a host of helpers. The local committee in Asbury Park and Ocean Grove spared neither trouble nor expense to provide for your comfort and to illustrate the proverbial hospitality of New Jersey. Mr. Tali Esen Morgan, with his chorus and orchestra, provided such music as has seldom been heard in a convention of teachers. The presidents of departments made, possibly, the most interesting and instructive programs ever presented in the history of the Association, and secured most valuable discussions. Where so many have done so much, it seems invidious to single out particular individuals for special remark. And yet, in view of their pre-eminent services, I am sure you will pardon me if I refer particularly to two gentlemen. One is Dr. James M. Green, principal of the New Jersey State Normal School, who took charge of the Sunday services and of the reception of President Roosevelt. How well he performed these duties you have all seen. The other is our honored secretary, Dr. Irwin Shepard. I risk nothing in saying that, as a rule, the members of this Association know little, indeed can know but little, of the invaluable services rendered by Dr. Shepard. It has been my great privilege to work with him for the past year, and therefore I can speak from intimate knowledge. I have learned to know him and to appreciate him, and I have no hesitation in saying that the success of these enormous conventions is largely due to him. With admirable patience, with a loyalty that never falters, with a complete knowledge of our history and our traditions, with an unsurpassed mastery of detail, with high ideals of the work our Association should do, Mr. Shepard devotes his life to your service. As I put aside the cares of office, I pause for a moment to thank our Secretary that he made them so light, and to wish for him and his prosperity and happiness.

There now remains for me but one more duty to perform—the pleasant duty of introducing to you my successor in the office of President, Dr. Nathan C. Schaeffer, of Pennsylvania, to whom I now present the official gavel of authority as President of the National Educational Association.

PRESIDENT-ELECT NATHAN C. SCHAEFFER: Members of the National Educational Association: Twenty-five years ago, while on my wedding trip, I attended for the first time the National Educational Association. The meeting impressed me as the most earnest body of educators upon the face of the globe, and this impression has grown stronger year by year. The presidency of the National Educational Association is the highest compliment which the teachers of America can bestow, and I shall return to my summer home at Mount Gretna, not only with feelings of profound gratitude and appreciation, but also with the conviction that the National Educational Association has given me the finest possible gift to take with me to my silver wedding tomorrow. Words fail to express my feeling of obligation for the honor conferred. It shall be my ambition to make the next meeting of the Association redound to the highest and best interests of the children of America, and to this end I ask your assistance, your sympathy, and your active support. I now pass the gavel back to you, President Maxwell, in order that you may close the meeting, which has been so eminently successful thru your efforts and guidance.

The President then declared the Forty-fourth Annual Convention of the National Educational Association adjourned sine die.

IRWIN SHEPARD, Secretary.

MINUTES OF THE MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS FOR 1904-1905

ASBURY PARK, N. J., JULY 3, 1905

The annual meeting of the Board of Directors was called to order in the basement room of the Public Library at 4:30 P. M., July 3, by President William H. Maxwell.

The following directors responded to roll-call:

A. J. Matthews, Arizona; S. L. Frogge, Kentucky; E. F. Turner, Tennessee; M. Bates Stephens, Maryland; Isaac W. Hill, Alabama; J. H. Hinemon, Arkansas; E. O. Lyte, Pennsylvania; J. W. Crabtree, Nebraska; A. H. Chamberlain, California; John S. Locke, Maine; N. C. Dougherty, Illinois; L. C. Greenlee, Colorado; W. H. Elson, Michigan; George L. Towne, Nebraska; A. E. Winship, Massachusetts; T. A. Mott, Indiana; Ben Blewett, Missouri; Charles H. Keyes, Connecticut; John Enright, New Jersey; Edmund D. Lyon, Ohio; A. S. Downing, New York; James H. Canfield, New York; F. Louis Soldan, Missouri; Walter Ballou Jacobs, Rhode Island; A. P. Marble, New York; R. B. Lees, representing Board of Education of Nashville, Tennessee; A. G. Lane, Illinois; W. H. Maxwell, New York; Irwin Shepard, Minnesota; John D. Benedict, Indian Territory; A. C. Nelson, Utah; Oscar J. Craig, Montana; Lydia A. Yates, North Carolina; Marion Brown, Louisiana; L. D. Harvey, Wisconsin; Lucy Robinson, West Virginia; Clem Hampton, Florida; A. V. Storm, Iowa; J. A. Mercer, Illinois; J. W. Spindler, Kansas; Andrew R. Hickam, Oklahoma.

Present, forty-one directors.

On motion, the reading of the minutes of the last meeting, held in St. Louis, Mo., June 30, 1905, was dispensed with, and they were approved as printed in the volume of Proceedings of the St. Louis meeting.

The Secretary read communications from absent directors tendering their resignations and nominating successors for appointment by the board, as follows:

Director James E. Klock, of New Hampshire, nominating H. C. Morrison.

Director W. F. Kunze, of Minnesota, nominating J. A. Cranston.

Director Warren Easton, of Louisiana, nominating Miss Marion Brown.

Director Robert G. Young, of Montana, nominating Oscar J. Craig.

Director D. J. Johns, Jr., of Tennessee, nominating E. F. Turner.

Director W. K. Tate, of South Carolina, nominating E. B. Wallace.

Director John F. Keating, of Colorado, nominating L. C. Greenlee.

On motion, the resignations of the several directors were accepted, and the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot of the directors present for the election of the respective nominees. The Secretary reported the ballot so cast, and the president announced the several nominees duly elected as members of the Board of Directors.

The next subject for consideration was announced as the Report of the Board of Trustees to the Board of Directors on the subject of Reincorporation, in accordance with the resolution on that subject passed by the active members at their annual meeting, June 30, 1905.

The Secretary reported that the Board of Trustees had completed their report, that it was transmitted by mail on April 20, 1905, to the members of the Board of Directors, and that sixty-three directors had replied casting votes of unqualified approval, and two others had cast votes of qualified approval, of the plan for reincorporation proposed in the following report of the Board of Trustees:

NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, WINONA, MINN., April 20, 1905.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

To the Board of Directors of the National Educational Association:

Pursuant to the authorization and request contained in the resolutions adopted by the Association on June 30 last, with respect to the continuance of the corporate existence of the Association your Board of Trustees have taken legal advice and have carefully considered what steps are necessary to protect the interests of the Association, in view of the expiration, by limitation, of its present charter in February, 1906.

We are advised by our counsel, Mr. John B. Pine, of New York, and are unanimously of the opinion, that the most desirable means of perpetuating the existence of the Association is by a charter granted by a special act of Congress. The advantages of such a charter, briefly stated, are that it is national in its scope, and accords with and emphasizes the national character and dignity of the Association; that it places the Association upon the most permanent basis possible, as it is perpetual in its operation; and that by means of such a charter the interests of the Association can best be protected and its funds most carefully safeguarded.

Other associations of like character, such as the Carnegie Institute and the General Education Board, have within recent years been incorporated by act of Congress, and it seems not improbable that an application for a charter, if presented by this Association, will receive favorable consideration.

Reincorporation of the Association by act of Congress will necessarily involve the creation of a new corporation, but it is proposed that such new corporation shall be known as the "NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES," and shall in all except a technical sense be the same association as the present one, with the same officers and with like objects and form of government. Taking the present constitution and by-laws as a basis, a charter has been prepared, in the form of a bill to be submitted to Congress, which embodies all the fundamental provisions of the constitution, and a set of proposed by-laws has been drafted, which includes the present by-laws, and also those provisions of the constitution which relate merely to matters of procedure.

The restatement of the constitution, in terms suitable for a charter, such as that now proposed, has necessarily involved changes in terms and phraseology; and under the provisions of the resolutions first mentioned, it therefore becomes our duty to submit our recommendations to the Board of Directors and to the Association. We ask you to note particularly that it has not been the intention of the Trustees or their counsel to make any change in any particular of a substantial character; they have endeavored, on the contrary, to preserve and perpetuate, in the most desirable form, all the essential features of the present constitution and by-laws unaltered.

In order that the recommendations of the trustees may be perfectly understood, and that the details of the proposed charter and by-laws may receive the closest scrutiny, copies of the same are submitted, herewith, to each director, with a request for an expression of his opinion. If a majority of the replies are favorable, copies of the documents will be sent to all the active members of the Association, so that they may be prepared to vote, at the next annual meeting of the Association, upon a proposition to apply to Congress for a charter, in the form herewith presented.

Respectfully submitted,

ALBERT G. LANE, Chairman,
NICHOLAS MURRAY BUTLER,
F. LOUIS SOLDAN,
NEWTON C. DOUGHERTY,
WILLIAM H. MAXWELL,
Board of Trustees.

Copies of the Report of the Board of Trustees and of the Proposed Act of Incorporation by Congress were distributed to the directors, but the report was not read, as all had received copies by mail and were familiar with the text.

Mr. John B. Pine, of New York city, attorney and counsel employed by the Board of Trustees, was present and explained the various provisions of the proposed bill, answering numerous questions asked by the directors.

Three questions were raised regarding the provisions of sec. 7 of the bill, and were discussed at length, viz.:

1. Does the Proposed Bill provide for, and establish with sufficient definiteness, a "permanent fund"?
2. Should the income from the "permanent fund" be solely under the control of the Board of Trustees?
3. Should provisions be made under which the "permanent fund" may be drawn upon under certain circumstances?

After somewhat extended discussion, the Proposed Bill of incorporation was referred back to the trustees, with the request that they report at a special meeting, to be held July 4, at 9 A. M., such amendments as will carry into effect the changes suggested in the discussion.

The board adjourned at 5:20 P. M., to meet at 9:30 A. M., July 4.

ADJOURNED MEETING OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

ASBURY PARK, N. J., JULY 4

The Board of Directors met in adjourned session at 9 A. M., and was called to order by President Maxwell. The following directors responded to roll-call:

A. C. Nelson, Utah; J. W. Crabtree, Nebraska; Ben Blewett, Missouri; A. V. Storm, Iowa; J. A. Mercer, Illinois; J. H. Hinemon, Arkansas; S. L. Frogge, Kentucky; L. C. Greenlee, Colorado; E. F. Turner, Tennessee; F. L. Soldan, Missouri; James H. Canfield, New York; Albert G. Lane, Illinois; Hiram Hadley, New Mexico; A. E. Winship, Massachusetts; L. D. Harvey, Wisconsin; Irwin Shepard, Minnesota; William H. Maxwell, New York; W. T. Harris, District of Columbia; John W. Cook, Illinois; John S. Locke, Maine; A. J. Matthews, Arizona; A. S. Downing, New York; J. M. Greenwood, Missouri; N. C. Dougherty, Illinois; George F. Towne, Nebraska; Charles H. Keyes, Connecticut; Lyda A. Yates, North Carolina; Marion Brown, Louisiana; Andrew R. Hickam, Oklahoma; E. O. Lyte, Pennsylvania; Oscar J. Craig, Montana; T. A. Mott, Indiana.

Present, thirty-two directors.

A letter of resignation as director was read from Hugh A. Owen, director for New Mexico. The resignation was accepted, and, on motion of Director A. E. Winship, of Massachusetts, Hiram Hadley, the newly appointed territorial superintendent of public instruction of New Mexico, was elected director for that territory.

The business of the previous meeting was resumed. Trustee F. Louis Soldan reported, as a result of the conference of the trustees with their counsel, Mr. Pine, that a satisfactory adjustment of the points in question had been reached in accordance with the following amended form of sec. 7 of the Proposed Bill:

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SECTION SEVEN OF THE PROPOSED CHARTER RECOMMENDED BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS, N. E. A.

SEC. 7. That the invested fund now known as the "Permanent Fund of the National Educational Association," when transferred to the corporation hereby created, shall be held by such corporation as a Permanent Fund, and shall be in charge of the Board of Trustees, who shall provide for the safekeeping and investment of such fund, and of all other funds which the corporation may receive by donation, bequest, or devise. No part of the principal of such permanent fund or its accretions shall be expended except by a two-thirds vote of the active members of the Association, upon the recommendation of the Board of Trustees, after such recommendation has been approved by vote of the Board of Directors, and after printed notice of the proposed expenditure has been mailed to all active members of the Association. The income of the Permanent Fund shall be used only to meet the cost of maintaining the organization of the Association and of publishing its annual volume of Proceedings, unless the terms of the donation, bequest, or devise shall otherwise specify, or the Board of Directors shall otherwise order. It shall also be the duty of the Board of Trustees to issue orders on the Treasurer for the payment of all bills approved by the Board of Directors, or by the President and Secretary of the Association acting under the authority of the Board of Directors. When practicable, the Board of Trustees shall invest as part of the Permanent Fund all surplus funds exceeding five hundred dollars that shall remain in the hands of the Treasurer after paying the expenses of the Association for the previous year and providing for the fixed expenses and for all appropriations made by the Board of Directors for the ensuing year.

The Board of Trustees shall elect the Secretary of the Association, who shall also be secretary of the Executive Committee, and shall fix the compensation and term of his office for a period not to exceed four years.

Director Soldan moved the adoption of the amended form of sec. 7; seconded by Director Keyes of Massachusetts.

After discussion, the motion of Director Soldan was adopted.

On motion of Director James H. Canfield, of New York, seconded by Director A. S. Downing, of New York, the following resolutions were unanimously passed:

Resolved, That the Board of Directors approve and adopt the recommendations of the Board of Trustees that application be made to Congress for a special act, in the form herewith submitted, or in the amended form herewith submitted, to incorporate an association to be known as the "NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES," to succeed and continue the present association; and

Resolved, That the Board of Directors recommend the following resolution to the Association for adoption:

Resolved, That this Association authorizes and requests the Board of Trustees to make application to Congress for a special act, in the following form, to incorporate an Association to be known as the "NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES," to succeed and continue the National Educational Association.

On motion of Director Downing, Director F. Louis Soldan, of Missouri, was appointed as the representative of the Board of Directors at the annual meeting of the active members on July 6, and was authorized to state to the active members that it was the unanimous vote of the Board of Directors that the amended form of sec. 7 of the Proposed Bill should be adopted instead of the form as proposed in the original bill.

Director A. E. Winship, of Massachusetts, moved that the thanks of the Board of Directors be extended to Mr. John B. Pine for his valuable assistance and counsel; seconded by Director W. T. Harris, of the District of Columbia. The motion was unanimously carried.

The annual report of the Treasurer of the Association, James W. Crabtree, of Nebraska, was then presented, and printed copies of the same were distributed to the directors present.

On motion of Director Keyes, of Connecticut, the Treasurer's report was received and approved, and ordered printed in the annual volume of Proceedings.

The report of the Board of Trustees was presented by Chairman Albert G. Lane, of Chicago, and printed copies were distributed to the directors present.

Chairman Lane explained the action of the Board of Trustees, by which the First Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago had been selected as the custodian of the securities belonging to the "permanent fund," excepting certain Kansas bonds which were held in the possession of the chairman of the Board of Trustees for the purpose of collecting interest in default. Chairman Lane made an encouraging report on the prospect of securing final payment of the face value of all Kansas bonds. This he illustrated by the statement that the authorities of the city of South Hutchinson had, a number of years ago, proposed to pay 25 per cent. of the face of the bond held by the National Educational Association; three years later they offered 50 per cent.; subsequently they offered 60 per cent.; and recently they have offered to settle by payment of the face of the bond, and the trustees recommend the acceptance of the proposal. The land values in Kansas are so good today that people with a knowledge of the conditions give assurance that the Association will recover at least the face value of all its bonds.

Director James M. Greenwood, of Missouri, moved that the report be received and adopted, and printed in the volume of Proceedings; seconded and carried.

A communication was received from C. D. Fleming, principal of Grammar School No. 1, Brooklyn, N. Y., transmitting to the Board of Directors thru President William H. Maxwell a formal application for the organization of a new department of the Association, to be called the Department of Discipline and Government.

The Secretary reported that the application did not bear the required number of signatures of active members of the Association to constitute a petition in regular form for a new department, as provided by the constitution.

On motion of Director Downing, the application was received and placed on file.

A communication was received from Superintendent L. D. Harvey, of Wisconsin chairman of the Committee on Industrial Education in Schools for Rural Communities, transmitting recommendation on behalf of that committee, that the work of the committee be continued, and that the Board of Directors make the necessary appropriation to carry on that work and to print the reports.

On motion of Director Canfield, the communication with its recommendations was referred to the National Council of Education for the consideration and recommendation of the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations.

A communication was received from Lewis C. Monin, dean of the Armour Institute of Technology, Chicago, Ill., transmitting a formal petition for the organization of a new department of the National Educational Association, to be known as the Department of Technical Education.

On motion of Director Crabtree, the petition was referred to the Executive Committee of the Association, with power to act.

Director W. T. Harris, chairman of the Committee on the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, appointed by the Board of Directors at its meeting in Detroit, July 9, 1901, submitted the following report:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF LOUISIANA PURCHASE EXPOSITION

To the Board of Directors of the National Educational Association:

I have the honor to call your attention to the action of this Board of Directors at the Detroit meeting on July 9, 1901, in response to an invitation from the committee on education of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

It was resolved to appoint an advisory board of twenty-one members to act in co-operation with the said education committee of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, as that committee may request; this advisory board to have power to fill vacancies, and to add to their numbers. Said committee was duly appointed with the following members:

W. T. Harris, of District of Columbia, Chairman.
 Edwin A. Alderman, of Louisiana.
 Newton C. Dougherty, of Illinois.
 Nicholas Murray Butler, of New York.
 William H. Maxwell, of New York.
 James MacAlister, of Pennsylvania.
 Calvin M. Woodward, of Missouri.
 Halsey C. Ives, of Missouri.
 Aaron Gove, of Colorado.
 Andrew S. Draper, of Illinois.

William R. Harper, of Illinois.
 Arthur T. Hadley, of Connecticut.
 Danial C. Gilman, of Maryland.
 J. G. Schurman, of New York.
 David Starr Jordan, of California.
 James M. Greenwood, of Missouri.
 Charles M. Jordan, of Minnesota.
 Lewis H. Jones, of Michigan.
 W. T. Carrington, of Missouri.
 F. Louis Soldan, of Missouri.

Carroll G. Pearce, of Nebraska.

At a meeting of said committee held at Detroit to nominate a suitable person to act as director of the department of education and social science, the committee chose by ballot Mr. Howard J. Rogers as their nominee, and appointed a subcommittee of three, to act as executive committee at St. Louis, to whom further questions might be referred by said committee on education of the Exposition, said subcommittee consisting of F. Louis Soldan, N. C. Dougherty, and C. M. Woodward.

As the objects of this committee have been accomplished, it makes this final report of its action, and asks respectfully to be discharged.

(Signed) W. T. HARRIS, Chairman.

On motion, the report was received and the committee discharged.

The secretary reported a communication from Professor Calvin Thomas, chairman of the Advisory Committee on the Universal System of Key Notation, in which Chairman Thomas reported that the expenses of publishing the report had exceeded the estimates, and that there remained an unpaid proportion of expenses amounting to $90.31, which, under the action of the Board of Directors a year ago, would properly fall to the share of the National Educational Association. Professor Thomas requested that an amount be appropriated sufficient to cover the extra expense.

On motion of Director Ben Blewett, of Missouri, $90.31 was appropriated to meet the extra expenses of the Committee on Key Notation.

A communication was received from R. Fulton Cutting, president of the Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor in New York city, transmitting a proposition by Mrs. Emily E. Williamson, of New Jersey, to offer two prizes (one of two hundred dollars and one of one hundred dollars), to be given under the direction of the National Educational Association for the best form of reports on the condition of the poor, adaptable to the needs of the small cities, the large cities, and state superintendents.

After discussion commending the purpose and spirit of the communication, a resolution was passed instructing the Secretary to reply to the courteous proposition of Mr. Cutting and Mrs. Williamson, and to state that, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, the subject was more properly one for the consideration of the school authorities of the city of New York than for the National Educational Association.

A communication from Mrs. Charles C. Darling, secretary of the Public Educational Association, was received and referred to Director E. Oram Lyte, chairman of the Committee on Resolutions of the general Association.

On motion, the Board of Directors adjourned sine die.

IRWIN SHEPARD, Secretary.

MINUTES OF THE MEETING OF THE NEW BOARD OF DIRECTORS FOR 1905-1906

ASBURY PARK, N. J., JULY 6, 1905

The new Board of Directors of the National Educational Association met in the basement room of the Public Library of Asbury Park at 4:30 P. M., July 6, 1905.

The meeting was called to order by President-elect Nathan C. Schaeffer. The following directors responded to roll-call:

William H. Maxwell, New York; Representative of the Board of Education, Nashville, Tenn.; James H. Canfield, New York; John W. Cook, Illinois; J. M. Greenwood, Missouri; Oscar T. Corson, Ohio; Albert G. Lane, Illinois; E. Oram Lyte, Pennsylvania; F. Louis Soldan, Missouri; N. C. Schaeffer, Pennsylvania; J. N. Wilkinson, Kansas; I. W. Hill, Alabama; George B. Cook, Arkansas; A. H. Chamberlain, California; L. C. Greenlee, Colorado; Charles H. Keyes, Connecticut; Miss Clem Hampton, Florida; Miss Frances Mann, Idaho; T. A. Mott, Indiana; A. V. Storm, Iowa; L. D. Whittemore, Kansas; Henry T. Bailey, Massachusetts; George L. Towne, Nebraska; John Enright, New Jersey; James C. Byrnes, New York; Wells L. Griswold, Ohio; Andrew R. Hickam, Oklahoma; J. W. Lansinger, Pennsylvania; W. B. Jacobs, Rhode Island; M. A. Lange, South Dakota; E. F. Turner, Tennessee; L. E. Wolfe, Texas; D. H. Christenson, Utah; Miss Lucy Robinson, West Virginia; L. D. Harvey, Wisconsin; T. T. Tynan, Wyoming; E. T. Mathes, Washington; W. T. Harris, District of Columbia; Robert B. Fulton, Mississippi; Irwin Shepard, Minnesota.

Present, forty directors.

Director James H. Canfield, of New York, presented the following preamble and resolution, and moved their adoption; seconded by Director Lane, and carried by unanimous vote:

WHEREAS, By a resolution of the Association, adopted at the annual meeting of active members, held on July 6, 1905, the Board of Trustees was authorized and requested to make application to Congress for a special act to incorporate an association to be known as the "NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES," to succeed and continue the "NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION," in a form approved by the Association; and

WHEREAS, It may prove impracticable for the trustees to secure the passage of such special act before the date of the expiration of the present charter of the Association, namely, February 24, 1906;

Resolved, Providing it shall prove impracticable for the trustees to procure the passage of such special act before the date mentioned, or, if for any reason it shall seem to the trustees necessary to protect the interests of the Association:

First, That the President and Secretary be, and they hereby are, authorized, upon the request of the trustees, to execute a certificate, under the general incorporation law of the District of Columbia, as amended March 3, 1905, extending the corporate existence of the Association, and making the same perpetual, or to continue until the passage of a special act incorporating the National Association of the United States.

Second, That the Board of Directors consent that the corporate existence of the Association be continued and made perpetual.

The next order of business being the election of a member of the Board of Trustees for four years, to succeed Trustee F. Louis Soldan, of Missouri, whose term of office had expired, Director Keyes, of Connecticut, nominated Trustee Soldan for re-election.

Mr. Soldan expressed his thanks for the nomination, but requested that he be not elected to serve longer as a member of the Board of Trustees. It being the unanimous wish of the Board of Directors that Mr. Soldan should continue on the Board of Trustees, the Secretary was instructed to cast the unanimous ballot of the Board of Directors for his re-election. The ballot was so cast, and Mr. Soldan was declared re-elected.

Mr. Soldan then resigned the office to which he had been re-elected, and urged that his resignation be accepted. On motion, the resignation was accepted.

Director L. E. Wolfe, of Texas, placed in nomination Superintendent James M. Greenwood, of Missouri, as a member of the Board of Trustees for the ensuing four years.

On motion, the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot of the Board of Directors for Mr. Greenwood's election. The ballot was so cast, and Mr. Greenwood was declared elected as a member of the Board of Trustees to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Trustee Soldan.

On motion of Director Mott, of Indiana, Dr. W. T. Harris was unanimously elected to succeed himself as member of the Executive Committee for the period of one year.

On motion, the chair was instructed to appoint a committee on Nominations, of three members. The chair appointed as such committee Directors J. N. Wilkinson, of Kansas; J. M. Greenwood, of Missouri; John W. Cook, of Illinois.

A recess of five minutes was then taken to enable the directors present to sign a petition in pursuance of the resolution of Director Canfield, adopted at the opening of the meeting. The petition read as follows:

We, the undersigned, directors of the National Educational Association, do hereby consent and request that the corporate existence of the Association be constituted and made perpetual under and pursuant to the provisions of the act of general incorporation of the revised statutes of the District of Columbia, sec. 202, as amended March 3, 1905.

It being understood that this consent and request shall not be used unless it shall prove impracticable for the trustees to procure the passage of a special act of Congress for reincorporation before the expiration of the present charter.

All of the directors present, forty in number, signed the petition.

The Board of Directors was called to order for the resumption of business. On motion of Director Soldan, action of the Board of Trustees in the employment of counsel to advise concerning the reincorporation of the Association was approved, and the board was authorized to employ counsel for the future to the extent that they might deem it necessary to protect the interests of the Association.

The next order of business being the selection of a place of meeting for the forty-fifth annual convention in 1906, the board received invitations from Portland, Oregon; San Francisco, Cal.; Denver, Colo.; and Salt Lake City, Utah. These invitations were presented in brief addresses by representatives of the respective cities.

Director William H. Maxwell, of New York, moved that the invitations be referred to the Executive Committee, with full power to select the place of meeting, and to make all necessary arrangements with the authorities of the city selected and with the transportation companies; seconded by Director John W. Cook, of Illinois; unanimously carried.

The Committee on Nominations to fill vacancies in the National Council reported as follows:

To the Board of Directors of the National Educational Association:

Your Committee on Nominations of members to fill vacancies in the National Council of Education nominates the following, all for re-election for the term of six years; namely:

W. H. Bartholomew, of Kentucky, term to expire in 1911.

Frank A. Fitzpatrick, of Massachusetts, term to expire 1911.

I. C. McNeill, of Wisconsin, term to expire 1911.

E. Oram Lyte, of Pennsylvania, term to expire 1911.

James M. Greenwood, of Missouri, term to expire 1911.

Respectfully submitted,
(Signed) J. N. WILKINSON,
JOHN W. COOK,
Committee.

On motion of Director A. G. Lane, of Illinois, the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot of the members of the Board of Directors for the nominees. The ballot was so cast, and the nominees were declared elected as members of the Council for the term of six years.

An application for the establishment of a new department of the Association, to be known as the Department of Teachers' Interests, was presented in a communication and petition signed by many active members of the Association, more than the required number of twenty signatures being attached.

On motion of Director F. Louis Soldan, of Missouri, seconded by Director T. A. Mott, of Indiana, the petition was referred to the Executive Committee, with instructions to report with recommendations at the next meeting.

On behalf of Miss Mary E. Bancroft, president of the Department of Special Education, Miss Mary R. Campbell presented a verbal request to the Board of Directors for an appropriation to the amount of $85 for certain expenses incurred in preparing the Asbury Park Auditorium for the meetings and exhibits of that department.

On motion of Director Charles H. Keyes, of Connecticut, Miss Campbell's request was referred to the Executive Committee, with power to act.

Director James M. Greenwood, chairman of the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations of the National Council, presented a report of that committee to the National Council on certain applications for appropriations which had been considered by the committee, and recommended by the Council.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON INVESTIGATIONS AND APPROPRIATIONS

To the National Council of Education:

The Committee on Investigations and Appropriations begs leave to submit the following report on such matters as have been regularly brought before it for consideration:

1. The Committee on Industrial Education presented the following request:

"Application for the appointment of a committee of investigation, and for recommendation of an appropriation for the expenses of the same.

"On behalf of the Committee of Five on Industrial Education, appointed by the Council July 7, 1903, whose report is submitted at this meeting, I respectfully ask the Council to appoint a committee to continue the work already begun by the Committee of Five, and to recommend to the Board of Directors that such an appropriation be made as may be necessary to carry on the work of the committee and print its reports.

"It is the judgment of the Committee of Five that if the Council should deem it wise to appoint the committee asked for, it should be authorized to continue its work for at least three years, and to make at least one report each year.

"The following are some of the reasons for the appointment of such a committee:

"The report of the Committee of Five made at this meeting does not attempt to deal with details, but in a general way sets forth the reasons for industrial education in rural schools, the necessity for the organization of a new type of secondary schools in which the industrial phase of educational effort is made prominent; and indicates in brief outline what may be attempted in the way of industrial education at the present time, in existing types of schools.

"Further work is necessary to put into available and authoritative form the results of experiments in this field in this and other countries; to give such detail of successful experiments as may be useful in other localities than where the experiment is in operation; and to present plans of organization for the development of industrial education in rural communities.

"The United States Department of Agriculture is deeply interested in this subject, and it is believed that the proposed committee, representing the National Educational Association, could in a variety of ways co-operate with this department, thus combining for a single purpose technical knowledge and training, and practical acquaintance with educational conditions and possibilities in rural communities.

"The Patrons of Husbandry, the Farmers' Institutes, and other organizations and agencies are also interested in industrial education, and it is believed they would welcome the co-operation of a committee of the National Educational Association representing that body and its interests in industrial education.

"Such a committee and the Bureau of Education could co-operate in a variety of ways, which would prove valuable to those interested in the organization and administration of this phase of educational work."

(Signed) "L. D. HARVEY."

"MENOMONIE, WIS.,
"May 3, 1905."

On motion, an appropriation of not more than three hundred dollars ($300), or so much thereof as may be necessary, was recommended for the working expenses of this committee during the next year.

2. On motion, the committee recommends that two thousand copies of the Report of the Committee on Taxation, as Related to Public Education, or more copies of these if there be a demand, be printed and distributed by the secretary to active members, one copy each, on application only, and copies sold to others at cost and carriage price; that ten thousand copies of the Report of the Committee on Industrial Education in Rural Schools, or more copies if there be a demand, be printed and distributed by the Secretary on the same conditions; and that three thousand copies of the Report of the Committee on Salaries, Tenure, and Pensions of Public-School Teachers be printed and distributed by the secretary under the conditions outlined above.

3. No other requests having been presented, and no one appearing in the interest of any other matter, the committee adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. GREENWOOD, Chairman.
FRANK A. FITZPATRICK, Secretary.

On motion of Director T. A. Mott, of Indiana, an appropriation not to exceed $300 was allowed for the expenses of the Committee on Industrial Education in Schools for Rural Communities for the ensuing year, for the continuation of the work of the committee, as outlined in the application of Chairman Harvey.

Chairman Greenwood also reported a recommendation of the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations, to the effect that an appropriation not to exceed $300 should be made for printing a report by the Committee on Public Schools and Public Libraries, providing such report should be formulated and prepared for publication during the current year. On motion, this recommendation was adopted.

Chairman Greenwood then presented the following letter from President Charles W. Eliot, which letter had been received by the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations too late to be considered either by the committee or by the Council.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., July 1, 1905.

To the National Council of Education:

The committee appointed in 1903 to report to the Council on an investigation proposed by President Baker, of the University of Colorado, concerning the culture element and the economy of time in education, did not succeed in presenting any report at St. Louis in 1904. There were differences of opinion in the committee which had been developed in correspondence; and only two members of the committee attended the St. Louis meeting. The Council continued the same Committee of Five, and requested a report from them at the meeting of July, 1905.

The committee has been obliged to do its work chiefly by correspondence; altho three members of the committee, Messrs. Baker, Goodwin, and Eliot, met in New York early in December last to discuss the results of the correspondence.

Among the topics which President Baker had suggested for investigation, there were three which seemed to the committee to afford opportunity for promising inquiries. The first of these topics was: "The value of a college training for young men who are going into business." Your committee was unanimously of the opinion that the Council might wisely pass a resolution requesting the Commissioner of Education at Washington to investigate that subject by ascertaining at several of the business centers of the country the number of college-bred men who hold high places in industries, commerce, and finance.

Your committee also advise the Council to appoint a committee of five persons, partly college men and partly school men, to prepare a report on the following topics: (1) the best period for the high school—four years, from fourteen to eighteen, or six years, from twelve to eighteen; (2) the devices already in use for shortening the college course, or the combined courses of college and professional school. These two topics relate to economy of time in education—an economy highly valuable to college graduates who are going into business, as well as to graduates who are going to study a profession. In case the committee just mentioned be appointed, your committee recommends that the Council ask for an appropriation not exceeding $500 to be placed at the disposal of the new committee to meet the cost of postage, stationery, and clerk hire.

This report is unanimous so far as its first recommendation is concerned, and is supported by a majority of the committee as regards the second recommendation.

CHARLES W. ELIOT,
JAMES H. BAKER,
J. M. GREENWOOD,
E. J. GOODWIN,
E. A. ALDERMAN,

Committee.

By CHARLES W. ELIOT, Chairman.

It was moved and carried that the portion of President Eliot's letter which referred to the work proposed for the United States Commissioner of Education be referred to the Commissioner, and that the part relating to the work of the National Council be referred to the president of the Council with the recommendation that it be placed upon his next program for discussion.

There being no other business, the board adjourned, sine die.

OF
THE NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION
FOR 1904-5
ASBURY PARK AND OCEAN GROVE CONVENTION

To the Executive Committee:

In accordance with the custom set by my predecessors in office, I beg leave to present a brief report of some of the more striking features of the meeting of the Association held in Asbury Park and Ocean Grove, N. J., July 3-7, 1905, and some suggestions, which seem to me valuable, regarding the future policy of the Association.

The preparations made by the Local Committee in Asbury Park and Ocean Grove for the reception and entertainment of the Association were entirely adequate. Tho nearly twenty-one thousand teachers were in attendance, the hotel and boarding-house accommodations proved to be both ample and comfortable. The arrangements for transacting the business of the Association were all that could be desired. The churches and other halls used for the departmental meetings were conveniently located and sufficiently capacious, while the unsurpassed facilities of the auditorium in Ocean Grove—affording seating accommodations for eleven thousand people—were freely placed at our disposal for the general meetings. The music rendered by the Ocean Grove festival chorus and orchestra, under the leadership of Mr. Tali Esen Morgan, was a striking feature of the occasion, and added much to the enjoyment and profit of those who attended.

The advance membership came for the most part from New Jersey and from New York City. New Jersey furnished 980 advance members; New York City furnished 6,753, of whom 6,367 were associate members and 386 were new active members.

The large enrollment from New York City was entirely due to the efforts of an energetic committee of teachers. Ever since the Boston meeting in 1903, the active members residing in New York city have maintained a permanent organization, with Dr. Walter B. Gunnison as president, Miss Josephine E. Rogers as treasurer, and Mr. Harry F. Towle as secretary. In preparation for the meeting, this body appointed two committees—one on membership and one on entertainment.

The committee on membership, of which Mr. William J. O'Shea was chairman, worked systematically for several months. Their efforts were crowned with success. Already nearly one-half the schools in the city became active members, entitled to send one representative each to the meetings of the Association. Before the committee concluded its labors, practically every school had become an active member, while nearly one-half the whole number of teachers had become associate members.

The committee on entertainment, of which Mr. Gustave Straubenmüller was chairman, established headquarters both in Asbury Park and in New York City. In Asbury Park the New York teachers added much to the success and enjoyment of the meeting by the social element they introduced. One feature of the closing reception at the New York City headquarters deserves particular mention. Each visitor was presented with a striking portrait of President Roosevelt, under which appeared in a facsimile of the President's handwriting a sentence from the address he had delivered that afternoon, together with a facsimile of his autograph. It would be well if a copy of this beautiful souvenir could be prominently displayed on the walls of every school in the land, as an inspiration to teachers and to pupils.

The committee's headquarters in New York City was visited by thousands of teachers after the close of the meeting. Guides were furnished to places of historic and other interest, and everything was done to render the stay of our guests pleasant and profitable. Another treat which was very greatly enjoyed by the visiting teachers was a sail on a specially chartered steamer on the Hudson, through New York Bay, to Coney Island.

Columbia University also made elaborate preparations for the entertainment of visiting teachers, a prominent feature of which was a notable sermon preached in the gymnasium on Sunday, July 9, by Dr. Lyman Abbott.

The social functions maintained at the various state headquarters, particularly Illinois, Missouri, and New Jersey, did much to promote the general enjoyment, and to provide opportunities for that friendly exchange of thought among teachers from all parts of the country which is one of the chief reasons for the existence of the Association.

A unique feature of the convention was the holding of religious services under the direction of the National Educational Association in the Ocean Grove auditorium on the Sunday preceding the convention. Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis, of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, preached in the forenoon, and Rev. Russell H. Conwell, of the Baptist Temple, Philadelphia, in the evening. Their sermons were delivered to enormous audiences. They set a high standard for the subsequent meetings. Similar services should, in my judgment, be held in future on the Sunday preceding the first meeting of the Association.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee held in St. Louis in October, 1904, it was decided that, in the meeting of 1905, the chief emphasis should be laid on the work of the departments; that the number of general meetings should be restricted to five, two in the afternoon and three in the evening; and that five forenoons and three afternoons should be devoted to department meetings. I am now convinced that this is the most profitable and economical distribution of time yet devised for the five days to which the meetings of the Association are limited. The general meetings are of high importance for purposes of inspiration and for the enlightenment of public opinion. On the other hand, there is a constant and growing desire on the part of teachers for instruction in all matters that pertain to the school and to teaching. Such instruction is best obtained in the department meetings, particularly when, as at Asbury Park, they are made the medium for recording the results of experience and of experiment, and of promoting free interchange of thought.

At the meeting of the department presidents held in Chicago in December, 1904, to discuss the program, the following guiding principles for the conduct of each department were informally adopted:

1. The president of each department shall make a brief opening address, in which he shall review the most important experiments and advances made during the year in the particular field under consideration.
2. No paper shall exceed half an hour in length.
3. The discussion of papers shall be organized; that is, the president shall arrange to have present a number of persons who have given special study to the subject under consideration, and who shall hold themselves ready at any moment to carry on the discussion in a lively and instructive manner.

The carrying out of these three principles, which were adopted in nearly all cases by the department presidents, reinforced by their own devotion to the work and varied to suit each particular case, was no doubt a large element in the unprecedented success of the department meetings.

One department there was that surpassed all the others in the interest aroused by its program—the Department of Elementary Education. The interest was due not solely to the excellent program presented, but to the fact that this is the only department in which the subjects of most vital interest to the great mass of teachers—the curriculum, the methods, and the administration of the elementary school—are presented and discussed. The attendance on the meetings of this department was larger than the attendance of the general meetings ten years ago; indeed, it was much too large to admit of the most profitable kind of discussion. The inference is clear: the Department of Elementary Education ought to be divided into at least two departments, or else the time assigned to this department ought to be doubled or even trebled. The subjects in which three-fourths of those who attend the meetings of the National Educational Association are most interested ought to have a larger apportionment of time than they have hitherto received.

The general meetings were largely attended. The plan was to have only one subject treated at each of these meetings, but to have it presented by a school man from the school point of view, and by a layman from the point of view of the taxpayer and the parent. The Association is particularly indebted to the distinguished gentlemen, not professional teachers—Mayor George B. McClellan, Mr. William Barclay Parsons, and Mr. Frank A. Vanderlip, all of New York city—who gave freely of their time and labor to prepare and deliver addresses of unusual value.

The most inspiring meeting of all, however, was the last, when the only stated address was that delivered by President Roosevelt. No one who gazed upon that memorable scene will forget it. A perfect summer day, when all surrounding nature—trees, flowers, earth, ocean—seemed to be in tune, lent an added charm to an event in itself deeply impressive—a visit by the President of the United States to the national convention of teachers. Countless multitudes welcomed and accompanied him on the way from the railroad station to the convention hall. Inside, an audience had assembled such as it has fallen to the lot of but few men in the history of the world to address. Fifteen thousand men and women—the elite of the teachers of the United States—were seated or standing within the walls. As the western sun streamed thru the lofty windows and open doors, the roof and walls seemed to disappear, and nothing met the eyes of the President but the flag of his country and a vast sea of faces upturned in every attitude of enthusiastic and respectful attention. The warmth of the reception was equalled only by the eagerness to hear his words. Those words thrilled the hearts of those who heard them and will go down to history as an inspiration to teachers yet unborn.

At the business meeting of the Association, the Board of Directors submitted for approval a bill embodying a new charter for the Association, to be presented to Congress for its adoption. The existing charter expires in February, 1906. The bill was prepared, under the direction of the Board of Trustees, by Mr. John B. Pine, their legal adviser, and was practically a renewal of the existing charter. When it was under discussion in the Board of Directors, that body, with the assistance of Mr. Pine, amended it so as to give a legal status to what has long been called the "permanent fund"—the accumulated and invested savings of the Association—and to provide that, in future, only the interest of this fund shall be available for use, except by a two-thirds vote of each of three bodies—the Board of Trustees, the Board of Directors, and the active members. The report as amended was adopted by a large majority of the active members. Should it be found impracticable to secure the passage of this bill by Congress, the Executive Committee was authorized to take all necessary steps to have the Association reincorporated under the general corporation law recently passed for the District of Columbia.

I beg leave to summarize my suggestions as to the future conduct of the Association under the following heads:

1. To increase the usefulness of the Association, to render its membership more stable and more representative, and to diffuse more widely the benefits of its deliberations, the active membership should be largely increased. To this end, I recommend that the plan which originated in New York city be adopted thruout the country, and that every school of over twelve teachers be urged to become an active member. Each school would thus be entitled to one representative in the active membership, and would receive the volume of Proceedings for its library, while the pecuniary burden on the teachers would be of the slightest.

2. The Department of Elementary Education should be divided into at least two departments.

3. It should be a matter of paramount importance with each department to have presented and discussed at its meetings any noteworthy experiment or advances made during the preceding year in its particular field of observation. Thus the papers and discussions will grow more practical and less academic from year to year.

4. The better to accomplish the last-mentioned purpose, the Secretary of the Association should be authorized and empowered to collect information regarding educational experiments and progress in foreign countries as well as in our own country, and to classify the facts collected for use by the department presidents in making up their programs. It follows that he should be provided with a sufficient number of qualified assistants.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

WILLIAM H. MAXWELL, President.

NEW YORK CITY,
September 13, 1905.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY

ADVANCE MEMBERSHIPS FOR THE ASBURY PARK AND OCEAN GROVE MEETING

As a result of the remarkable zeal of the principals and teachers of the City of New York, a very large enrollment of advance members, both active and associate, was secured. This work was accomplished by the Committee on Membership of the New York City Association of the National Educational Association, of which committee Principal William J. O'Shea was chairman, and Miss Josephine E. Rogers treasurer. The work of this committee, extending from February, 1905, to the opening of the convention, resulted in securing advance members as follows:

Advance associate members	-	-	-	-	6,362
New active members	-	-	-	-	384
Total	-	-	-	-	6,746

Five associate memberships and two new active memberships were reported after the close of the convention, and should be added to the above statement. In addition to the above, Miss Josephine E. Rogers, treasurer of the Committee on Membership, collected and reported to the Secretary annual membership dues from 303 former active members in New York city for the years 1904-5 and 1905-6.

From the state of New Jersey advance memberships were secured as follows:

Advance associate memberships	-	-	-	-	952
New active memberships	-	-	-	-	28
Total	-	-	-	-	980

Special recognition is due Mr. John Enright, county superintendent of schools, Freehold, N. J., and Principal J. M. Green of the State Normal School, Trenton, N. J., for securing the advance memberships from New Jersey.

Principal George Wheeler of the James G. Blaine School, Philadelphia, secured among the teachers of Philadelphia advance memberships as follows:

Advance associate memberships	-	-	-	-	115
New active memberships	-	-	-	-	22
Total	-	-	-	-	137

RECAPITULATION OF ADVANCE MEMBERSHIP

	Associate	New Active	Total

New Jersey.....	952	28	980
Philadelphia.....	115	22	137
Total.....	7,429	434	7,863

The enrollment fees and annual dues of all new active members were reported to the Secretary at Winona as collected, and were included in the monthly reports of revenue from the Secretary's office to the Treasurer. All receipts before June 15, 1905, were included by the Treasurer in his report for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905. Receipts reported to the Secretary between June 15 and June 30, 1905, were carried over to the year beginning July 1, 1905, and will be included in the Treasurer's report for the year ending June 30, 1906.

The revenue from all advance associate memberships was paid over to the Association at the close of the convention at Asbury Park, and is included in the Treasurer's receipts for the current year, July 1, 1905, to June 30, 1906.

SPECIAL COMMITTEES

A complete list of the special committees of the Association, giving the membership and a historical outline of each may be found on pp. 86-90 of the Yearbook for 1904-5, St. Louis meeting.

At the convention at Asbury Park and Ocean Grove the following committees made reports:

THE COMMITTEE ON TAXATION AS RELATED TO PUBLIC EDUCATION, James M. Greenwood, chairman, made its final report in printed form to the National Council of Education. This constituted a pamphlet of 86 pages.

THE COMMITTEE ON SALARIES, TENURE OF OFFICE, AND PENSIONS OF TEACHERS, Carroll D. Wright, chairman, made its final report in printed form to the National Council of Education. This report constituted a pamphlet of 458 pages, with 274 pages of important statistical tables showing the salaries of teachers of various grades in all classes of schools in the United States.

THE COMMITTEE ON INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION IN SCHOOLS FOR RURAL COMMUNITIES, L. D. Harvey, chairman, presented to the National Council of Education a printed report of 97 pages. This report was accepted as a report of progress, and the committee was continued for the purpose of pursuing investigations still further in accordance with the plans outlined by the chairman, L. D. Harvey, and set forth in a communication to the Board of Directors (see p. 54 of the Yearbook). An appropriation of $300 for the expenses of this committee for the current year was recommended by the Committee on Investigations and Appropriations of the Council and authorized by the Board of Directors at its meeting July 6, 1905.

THE COMMITTEE ON CONTEMPORARY EDUCATIONAL DOCTRINE, Paul H. Hanus, chairman, has had no meeting the past year and has made no report.

THE COMMITTEE ON THE NATIONAL BUREAU OF EDUCATION, William R. Harper, chairman, has made no report during the past year.

THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTION PRESENTED BY PRESIDENT BAKER, OF COLORADO, Charles W. Eliot, chairman, made report to the Council of Education, with recommendations. For action of the Board of Directors on these recommendations see pp. 55 and 56 of the Yearbook.

THE ADVISORY BOARD OF THE LOUISIANA PURCHASE EXPOSITION, W. T. Harris, chairman, made report to the Board of Directors on July 4, which report was duly received and the committee discharged (see p. 50 of the Yearbook).

THE COMMITTEE ON A UNIVERSAL SYSTEM OF KEY NOTATION, E. O. Vaile, chairman, presented a report of the committee on conference with the Modern Language Association and American Philological Association, at the Milwaukee meeting of the Department of Superintendence on March 1, 1905 (see p. 158 of the volume of Proceedings for 1905).

James H. Canfield, librarian of Columbia University, made application for an appropriation of $300 for the preparation and publication of a report on "Instruction in Library Economy in Normal Schools." This report is to be prepared by a committee consisting of James H. Canfield, chairman, librarian of Columbia University; Melvil Dewey, of the State Library School, Albany, N. Y.; Miss Mary E. Ahern, editor of Public Libraries, Chicago, Ill.; Martin Hensel, librarian of Public School Libraries, Columbus, Ohio; Miss Electra Doren, head instructor in the Library School of Cleveland, Ohio. The Committee on Investigations and Appropriations of the National Council recommended the granting of this appropriation, which recommendation was adopted by the Board of Directors at its meeting July 6, 1905, providing the report should be formulated and prepared for publication during the current year.

Respectfully submitted,

IRWIN SHEPARD, Secretary.

*This total includes record of registered associate members and also full count of all railway membership coupons collected at Asbury Park from those who did not register. This number will be reduced by the cancellation of duplicate railway membership coupons which in many cases were issued with railway "exchange orders," but whose number cannot be ascertained until settlement with the railroads is completed.
